

36 That the best thanks of this Conference be presented to the members and friends of the Copetown Society, Ancaster Circuit, for their kindness and courtesy in extending the most liberal hospitality to the members of this Conference.

37 That the Osprey Mission, recommended by the Owen Sound District Meeting, be taken up.

38 That the expediency of procuring an Act of Incorporation to comprise the whole of our Connexional funds, be referred to the Annual Committee for its serious consideration.

39 That the minister appointed to the Durham Circuit be instructed by this Conference to visit the colored Church in Priceville, and ascertain immediately after Conference the facts in reference to the propriety of establishing a Mission there, and promptly report to the Annual Committee.

40 That the name of the Blanshard Circuit be changed, and that it be hereafter called the St. Mary's Circuit.

41 That this Conference authorize the Arthur Circuit to dispose of an acre and a half of its church property, to defray the expenses of building a parsonage in Mount Forest, on that Circuit.

42 That the proposal from the representatives of the Morris and Grey Circuit, to empower the Trustees of Connexional lots in Ainleyville to sell part of their property, be referred to the Chapel Committee.

43 That this Conference declares the action of the London Conference, (see minutes resolution,) with reference to the residence of the Cayuga Circuit minister in the town of Cayuga to be advisory.

The Rev. W. McClure introduced a series of recommendations, with special reference to the importance of the religious education of the youth of our Churches in Sabbath Schools, &c.

44 That the juvenile part of our congregations and Circuits becomes every year of more importance to our usefulness, stability and progress, so much so that if neglected or injudiciously managed by preachers and people, no other amount of effort can compensate the Connexion for the loss sustained by us in this. Also, that no permanent, efficient progress is effected or can be reasonably hoped for, unless our preachers and the officers of our churches make this matter a duty and study; equal in importance to any other of the solemn duties devolving upon us. Also:

45 That our ministers be required to pay more attention to Sabbath Schools and the juvenile interests on each Circuit, by forming among the more advanced children Bible and Catechetical classes, Bands of Hope and such other judicious
