

Interest will be exacted for all arrears.

Sick scholars are intrusted to the care of the Sisters of Holy Cross Hospital, at the expense of the parents.

None but relations or those who represent them are allowed to visit the pupils.

Text-books are sold by the Institution.

Every student must wear the customary uniform, consisting of a black frock coat with white seams, a blue sash and a black military cap.

All linen must be stamped.

Every new student must present on his arrival, a certificate of good character, either from his parish priest, or, if he comes from another institution, from the president thereof.

During the scholastic year of about ten months parents will receive three reports of their children's progress and deportment.

All idle, pernicious or insubordinate students will be dismissed.

For the academic year 1892-93 classes will be resumed on September 1st. Students are requested to be present on that day.

N. B.—The Central Vermont Railway affords easy communication with the Petit Séminaire.

---