After a stormy discussion an amendment moved by C. H. C. Fortner, of Toronto, finally brought down the discussion to the basis of whether ther should or should not be any extension of the time limit. He moved that that portion of the report suggesting eight years be struck out

J. R. L. Starr, of Toronto, said there was evidently a misunderstanding among the delegates as to the con struction of the clause which it was proposed to introduce in the Discipline. Owing to changing congregations in city churches it was almost nece sary that more time should be given to ministers to work out the pr with which they were confronted. Many other delegates took a contrary view, and Rev. Dr. J. C. Speer, of Toronto, moved an amendment to the
