LOCAL NEWS.

J. S. Edwards Lodge, I. O. O. F., Manchester Unity, will celebrate their anniversary tonight by a social in their room.

A number of persons have been reported by the police for not having cleared the snow from in front of their premises.

The C. P. R. steamer Lake Michigan sailed from Antwerp this morning at 10 o'clock with a general cargo and passengers.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Zion church, met last evening. The committee which had charge of the recent sale handed over the sum of $100 to the society.

The Governor Cobb of the Eastern Steamship Line, did not arrive in port until early this morning. The steamer was obliged to stay at Portland until the storm passed.

This monthly meeting of the local board of health will be held this afternoon. The Hanley case may be discussed but nothing definite will be decided on as the provincial board has the case in charge.

Rev. B. N. Nobles, Baptist clergyman, brother of Rev. B. H. Nobles, who has accepted a call to Victoria street church, North End, is in the city today. He comes back to St. John at the dictate of Dan Cupid, to marry a couple of his old parishioners of the Carlton Baptist congregation. Rev. Mr. Nobles says he is very satisfactorily situated by Sackville pastorate.

The death occurred this morning at her residence, 138 Rockland street, of Mrs. Eliza E. wife of Capt. William Tower, in the 83rd year of her age. She is survived by her husband, two sons and two daughters, the sons are Amos, of Boston, and George, of the daughters are Mrs. Wesley Friars and Mrs. Chip Sweet, of this city.

A steady stream of people wended their way to city hall this morning to pay dog licenses. The rush is accounted for by the fact that on Friday all who have not paid the tax must appear in the police court. Up to noon forty-three licenses had been issued. It is now thought that the number this year will reach the one thousand mark.

There should be more lights at the Suspension bridge. Last night a young colored girl had a narrow escape from being run over by a team of horses. There are no lights in York rooms, the close vicinity of the bridge, and on a dark night it is almost impossible to see a team approaching.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the tea and sale of the Women's Guild of St. James' church will open. The school-room of the church has been prettily decorated for the occasion. The different tables will contain candy, fancy goods, children's dresses, etc. A corps of young ladies will be in charge of the tables.

Work has been resumed with vigor on the New Royal Bank of Canada site, corner King and Canterbury streets. The cellar has been cleared of snow and a dozen massive iron pillars raised by the gin-poles into position, resting upon concrete bases. The stone-work is now some feet above the sidewalk, and with the commencement of the steel framing the prospect of a handsome structure seems to be taking shape.

Unless something direful intervenes in the line of weather, St. John will enjoy one of the most wintry and typically Canadian Christmases in a long while. The thermometer is hovering in that region which spells big business, and the freezing of the river, accompanied by plenty of snow, is enabling country folk to reach town, not only to sell their produce, but to buy generously of the holiday wares on every side. Merchants, generally, say trade is good, and they are looking for it to be a great deal better.

THIS EVENING.

Victoria Rink opens. Tea and sale in St. James' Church. Hazen Avenue sale in York rooms. Literary meeting in St. Andrew's church.

THE PROPOSED CAR WORKS.

With reference to the story published in today's paper from this morning's Star, it is informed that certain statements made concerning what is perhaps too definite an announcement. That there is talk of such a plant is not denied, but the citizens interested have so far made no plans. There are many difficulties to be overcome, and those who have been referred to as promoters of the enterprise realize that the most careful consideration is required. It is to be hoped that such a plant with a competent man at its head, may be established here, but any announcement of a definite nature is at the present time premature.

PASSENGER STEAMERS ARRIVE

The C. P. R. steamer Mount Temple arrived off Partridge Island about nine o'clock this morning from Antwerp with general cargo and 305 steerage passengers.

Dr. J. H. March, the quarantine officer, boarded the steamer on arrival and found about a dozen cases of measles and whooping cough. These were removed to the Partridge Island Hospital. The Mount Temple sailed from Antwerp on Nov. 23rd and for the voyage during the past fourteen days has experienced some rough weather, westerly winds and head seas. The ship will dock this afternoon.

SALVATION ARMY FUNERAL

The funeral of the late Capt. Samuel Munroe, of the Salvation Army, took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Major Phillips conducted the burial service at No. 2 barracks, Brimley street. The officers who attended and interment was in Fernhill.

LUNCHEON ON THE C. P. R. EMPRESS OF BRITAIN

One Hundred and Fifty Eight Citizens are Guests of Capt. Murray This Afternoon

To mark the first visit of the Steamer Empress of Britain to St. John, the Canadian Pacific Railway Company through Captain Murray and General Superintendent Downie, arranged a luncheon and reception to citizens which is being held this afternoon. Invitations to the number of one hundred and fifty, representing the seating capacity in the dining saloon of the steamer, were issued. The invitation cards are of particularly neat design, being in the form of folders, the outside bearing the company's flag and the name of the steamer.

FUNERAL OF LATE WILLIAM McLELLAN

Remains Arrived Here from Vancouver Yesterday—Interment in Old Loch Lomond Cemetery.

The remains of William McLellan arrived in the city yesterday from Vancouver. Deceased was 75 years and 10 months of age and up to the time of his death was the proprietor of a variety store in Vancouver. A daughter, Miss Margaret, was with her father when he died and accompanied the remains across the continent. Another daughter, Mrs. Wood, with Jeremiah and James, two sons from Lowell, Mass., arrived in the city to meet the remains which were taken to Chamberlain's undertaking rooms on arrival of the Atlantic express yesterday.

The sons and daughter are, through their sad mission, making their first visit to St. John for some years past. The late Wm. McLellan was a most respected gentleman and his demise is mourned by a large number of old acquaintances.

BANDSMEN PLAN AN EXCURSION TO IRELAND

It is understood that a number of members of the City Cornet band are planning an excursion which is out of the ordinary run. They propose a trip to Ireland to be made next summer during the time the Dublin exhibition is on. The bandmen think that such an excursion would appeal strongly to Irishmen now residing in Canada, as well as to some few other persons who look forward to one day seeing the old country. The fare, it is learned, may be arranged at fifty dollars for the round trip from St. John, and if after the matter has been settled for a while, a reasonable number agree to go, the proposal will be carried out.

MRS. MASON AND MR. MCKAY ARE STILL HERE

Mrs. E. I. Mason and her private secretary, Mr. McKay are still here. They are awaiting the action of the U. S. Immigration authorities and will proceed to Ontario as soon as Mr. McKay's solicitor has finished looking into the matter.

ROXBURY-CHRISTOPHER

A pretty wedding will take place this evening in the West End, when Miss Emily Christopher, eldest daughter of C. W. Christopher, driver of No. 6 Horse Co., will be married to Sutton Roxborough of the C. P. R. office staff. The ceremony will take place at half-past eight at the bride's home, 109 Ludlow street, the rooms being prettily decorated and the ceremony to be performed under a ball of carnations. Rev. B. N. Nobles, of Sackville, former pastor of the Ludlow street Baptist church, West End, will be the officiating clergyman. The bride will wear cream silk, and the couple will be attended. Mr. and Mrs. Roxborough will reside in the West End.

DEATHS.

COLLINS—Suddenly in this city, on the 12 inst., Timothy, son of Mary and the late Michael Collins, aged 25 years. Funeral from his late residence, 51 Lombard street on Friday morning at 8:45 to Holy Trinity church for High Mass of Requiem at 9 o'clock. Friends invited to attend.

TIMOTHY COLLINS DIED THIS MORNING

He Never Regained Consciousness After Being Hurt Yesterday

Timothy Collins, who was crushed between a heavy frame which was being hoisted on a crane, in Hilyard's shipyard yesterday morning, died at 11:30 o'clock this forenoon at the hospital. Mr. Collins was 24 years of age and was just completing his apprenticeship as a boiler maker in the Phoenix Foundry. At the shipyard he was superintending the work on a new steel barge which is being built by the Messrs. Flemming. A large piece of steel was being hoisted and the rope on the crane broke. Mr. Collins was just beneath the frame, and it fell on him crushing him badly. The doctors did everything possible to save the young man's life, but to no avail. Mr. Collins never regained consciousness. He is survived by a widowed mother and one sister. The death will be a hard blow to the family of the young man, and it will come with more sadness than usual, as Jeremiah Collins, his brother, was killed by falling from the overhead bridge, near Lombard street, to the I. C. R. railway tracks below a few years ago. After falling a train ran over him. The employers of Mr. Collins speak highly of him. He was a coming mechanic and was a trusted employee. The funeral will probably be held on Friday.

The regular monthly meeting of the Associated Charities is being held this afternoon. Mrs. C. H. Hall says that she is quite busy at present making preparations for the Christmas season. There are very few cases of destitution in the city.
