cers to forward him their photos for publication in Municipal Journal. President Teed thanked the convention for the honor conferred upon him in electing him president. The meeting closed after hoaring a brief description of the new filtration plant by Engineer Grimmer.

The convention of the New Brunswick Union of Municipalities closed this evening with a grand banquet at the Queen Hotel, given by the city and county councils, which was a grand county councils, which was a grand the conference and a bitter struggle is anticipated.

Warden McNally made an excellent chairman, having Premier Hazen and Hon. Dr. Landry on right, and President Teed and Dr. J. W. Robertson on the left. Vice chairs were held down by ex-Mayor Sears and Mayor Chestnut.—About seventy-five guests were present, including ex-Premier Robinson, Hon. Robert Maxwell, James Lowell, Coun. Dean, Dr. L. A. Currey, Ald. J. King Kelley and Dr. MacRae.

The repast was an excellent one and was served in a manner that reflected J. King Kelley and Dr. MacRao.

The repast was an excellent one and was served in a manner that reflected much credit upon the landlord, Mr. McCaffrey. There were the usual patriotic toasts, which were drunk in pure, filtered water, and greeted with musical honors. Ex-Mayor Sears, in an eloquent speech, proposed the health of the government and the legislature, which was replied to by Premier Hazen and Mr. Robinson in suitable terms. Mr. Maxwell proposed the health of the municipalities union, to which president Teed replied. Hon. Dr. Landry proposed the health of Prof. Robertson and that gentleman responded in an eloquent speech. A number of voluntary toasts followed and the pleasant gathering broke up shortly after mid-

Brunswick municipalities concluded its session this afternoon. At 3 o'clock the delegates, accompanied by Mayor Chestnut, several of the aldermen and city Engineeer Grimmer visited the waterworks station and inspected the newly installed filtration plant, after which all had their photographs taken in a group. The delegates then met in session and passed a mption approving of action recommending affiliating with the Canadian Union of Municipalities, et them ter of choosing delegates to the next annual meeting of the Canadian union to be held in Montreal.

City Clerk Magee of Moncton introduced a resolution requesting the government to cancel the railway charter granted several years ago to the Moncton Street Rilway, Heat and Power Company. The resolution was withdrawn. Warden Grimmer in a .neat speech congratulated ex-Mayor Sears in the way he conducted the convention as president.
