

The Renowned Remedy HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A MOST ASTONISHING CURE OF SCROFOLOUS
GLORES.—A CERTIFICATE BY THE MAYOR OF BOSTON.

COPY of a Letter from J. Noble, Esq., Mayor of Boston, Lincolnshire.

To Professor Holloway.
Dear Sir.—Mrs. Sarah Dixon, of Lincolnsfield, Boston, has this day departed before me that for a considerable period she was severely afflicted with Scrofulous Gores, and had been reduced to a state of decay and debility, so far as to be unable to travel to any part of the world, without payment of extra premium whatever or licence previously obtained.

Policies admitted to the "FIRST CLASS" shall, so long as the premiums thereon are regular paid when due, be INDISPENSABLE on any ground whatever, and the person whose lives are insured may, at any time, make application for travel to any part of the world, without payment of extra premium whatever or licence previously obtained.

Being recommended by a friend to try your Ointment, I procured a small pot, and a box of the "Five" and when I was about to apply it, no amendment appeared. By persisting with the medicine for a short time longer, according to the directions, and strictly adhering to your rules as to diet, &c., the sore was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the best of health.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours truly,
August 12th, 1852. (Signed) J. NOBLE.

AN EXTRAORDINARY AND RAPID CURE OF CRYSTALS IN THE EYE, AFTER MEDICAL CURE HAD FAILED.

COPY of a Letter from Mrs. Elizabeth Yeates, of 17, Westgate Street, Bath, to her Lawyer, dated Jan. 12th, 1853.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir.—I suffered for a considerable period from a severe attack of Scrofulous, which at length settled in my leg, and resisted all medical treatment. My sufferings were very great, and I quite despaired of any permanent amendment, when I was advised to apply your Ointment. I did so without delay, and am happy to say, the result was eminently successful, for they effected a decided cure of my leg, and restored me to the enjoyment of health. I shall ever speak with the greatest confidence of your medicines, and have recommended them to others in my neighborhood, who have suffered from similar diseases.

I am, Sir, your obliged and faithful servant,

(Signed) ELIZABETH YEATES.

The following important communication has been forwarded to Professor Holloway for publication, by Mr. B. Loxon, Chemist, King's, Norwich.

COPY of a Letter from Captain Smith of Great
Yarmouth, dated January 19th, 1853.

To Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir—I send you the particulars of a cure effected by Professor Holloway's invaluable medicines: Mr. John Watson, into it; Her Majesty's Services in the British Fleet at Malta, a bad ulcerated ankle, and after having been in the Malta Hospital for six months, was sent to England to a medical practitioner, who, in his opinion, where he remained as inmate four months, has not been able to have the limb supinated, he was turned out incapable. He then came to Yarmouth, and was under a medical gentleman for about three months, but his uncle became so much worse, that all hope was lost. At this period, by my advice, he tried your Ointment, and, after having had an untried application, healed all the ulcers, and restored him to perfect health and strength.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours truly,

(Signed) JOHN SMITH.

SURPRISING CURE OF A BAD BREAST, NERVOUS
DEBILITY, AND GENERAL ILL-HEALTH.

COPY of a Letter from Mr. T. P. Keay, Chemist, Ac.
Lower Lambeth-Lane, Manchester, dated February
14th, 1853.

To Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir—I have great pleasure in forwarding to you the particulars of a very remarkable cure of a bad breast, effected solely by the use of your celebrated Ointment and Pill. Mrs. Martha Bell, of Pitt-street, in this town, had been for a considerable time labouring under nervous debility, loss of appetite, and general ill-health, occasioned by elevated wounds in the breast. In his hands, and in the course of a very short time, the effect produced was most astonishing; her appetite was specially improved, the sores and ulcers in the breast gradually healed, and the nervous exertion of her system was wholly removed.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours faithfully,

(Signed) T. P. KEAY.
