

...inquiring for Miss Olive, and Constance, ...
...I fear I can give it but too well," replied he.
...Constance took the letter from his hand. It
...was addressed to Miss Olive, and directed
...to the care of Edmund Wallingford. She glanced
...at the signature, and judging it better to leave
...it to her, she handed it to her, who broke the seal
...and read it. The letter was from a young man
...whom she had never seen, and she was surprised
...and somewhat alarmed. The name of the sender
...was not in the letter, but she recognized the ...handwriting as that of a young man who had
...written to her some time since. She was
...glad to see it, and she read it with interest.
...The letter was from a young man who had
...written to her some time since. She was
...glad to see it, and she read it with interest.
...The letter was from a young man who had
...written to her some time since. She was
...glad to see it, and she read it with interest.

...AN IRISH DRAGOON IN BATTLE.
...The following is the letter, which we find
...in the Boston Herald, of the 27th inst., which
...describes the death of a young man, who was ...killed in the Crimea. The letter is from the ...mother of the deceased, and is a touching
...and interesting account of his life and death.
...The young man was named John, and was
...a member of the 10th Dragoon Regiment. He
...was killed in the Crimea, and his death
...was a great loss to his family. The letter
...describes his character, his habits, and his
...conduct in the army. It is a touching
...and interesting account of his life and death.

...OUR NEW GOVERNMENT.
...In reviewing the political complexion of the ...new Administration, we are anxious to place
...before the public a general outline of the
...policy which we believe to be the best for
...the country. It is not our intention to
...discuss the merits of the various parties,
...but to point out the principles which we
...believe to be the best for the country.
...The new Administration is composed of
...men of high ability and high character,
...and we believe that they will be able to
...conduct the Government in a manner
...which will be for the benefit of the ...country. We believe that the new
...Administration will be able to meet the
...various difficulties which are before us,
...and to conduct the Government in a
...manner which will be for the benefit of
...the country.

...THE DEPARTING YEAR.
...The year has passed, and we are about to
...enter upon a new one. It has been a year
...of great interest and excitement, and we ...believe that it will be remembered as
...one of the most important in our history.
...We have seen the close of the Crimean
...War, and the beginning of a new era in
...our history. We have seen the rise of
...the Republican Party, and the fall of
...the Whig Party. We have seen the ...election of Abraham Lincoln, and the ...beginning of the Civil War. We have
...seen the death of General Grant, and the ...end of the war. We have seen the
...reconstruction of the South, and the ...beginning of a new era in our history.

...ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICAN.
...The steamship American, arrived at Halifax
...Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock.
...The vessel was loaded with passengers and
...freight, and she was in excellent condition.
...The passengers were all well, and they ...were glad to see the vessel. The
...captain was a gentleman of high
...character, and he was well known to
...the passengers. The crew was all
...well, and they were glad to see the
...vessel. The vessel was in excellent
...condition, and she was well equipped
...for her voyage. The passengers were
...all well, and they were glad to see
...the vessel. The captain was a
...gentleman of high character, and he
...was well known to the passengers.

...I will not tell you the name of the
...man who was killed, but I will tell you
...that he was a brave and noble man.
...He was killed in the Crimea, and his
...death was a great loss to his family.
...The letter describes his character, his
...habits, and his conduct in the army.
...It is a touching and interesting
...account of his life and death.

...THE DEPARTING YEAR.
...The year has passed, and we are about to
...enter upon a new one. It has been a
...year of great interest and excitement,
...and we believe that it will be
...remembered as one of the most
...important in our history. We have
...seen the close of the Crimean War,
...and the beginning of a new era in
...our history. We have seen the rise
...of the Republican Party, and the
...fall of the Whig Party. We have
...seen the election of Abraham Lincoln,
...and the beginning of the Civil War.

...OUR NEW GOVERNMENT.
...In reviewing the political complexion of
...the new Administration, we are anxious
...to place before the public a general
...outline of the policy which we believe
...to be the best for the country. It is
...not our intention to discuss the merits
...of the various parties, but to point
...out the principles which we believe to
...be the best for the country.

...THE DEPARTING YEAR.
...The year has passed, and we are about to
...enter upon a new one. It has been a
...year of great interest and excitement,
...and we believe that it will be
...remembered as one of the most
...important in our history. We have
...seen the close of the Crimean War,
...and the beginning of a new era in
...our history. We have seen the rise
...of the Republican Party, and the
...fall of the Whig Party. We have
...seen the election of Abraham Lincoln,
...and the beginning of the Civil War.

...ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICAN.
...The steamship American, arrived at Halifax
...Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock.
...The vessel was loaded with passengers
...and freight, and she was in excellent
...condition. The passengers were all
...well, and they were glad to see the
...vessel. The captain was a gentleman
...of high character, and he was well
...known to the passengers. The crew
...was all well, and they were glad to
...see the vessel. The vessel was in
...excellent condition, and she was well
...equipped for her voyage.

...I will not tell you the name of the
...man who was killed, but I will tell you
...that he was a brave and noble man.
...He was killed in the Crimea, and his
...death was a great loss to his family.
...The letter describes his character, his
...habits, and his conduct in the army.
...It is a touching and interesting
...account of his life and death.

...THE DEPARTING YEAR.
...The year has passed, and we are about to
...enter upon a new one. It has been a
...year of great interest and excitement,
...and we believe that it will be
...remembered as one of the most
...important in our history. We have
...seen the close of the Crimean War,
...and the beginning of a new era in
...our history. We have seen the rise
...of the Republican Party, and the
...fall of the Whig Party. We have
...seen the election of Abraham Lincoln,
...and the beginning of the Civil War.

...OUR NEW GOVERNMENT.
...In reviewing the political complexion of
...the new Administration, we are anxious
...to place before the public a general
...outline of the policy which we believe
...to be the best for the country. It is
...not our intention to discuss the merits
...of the various parties, but to point
...out the principles which we believe to
...be the best for the country.

...THE DEPARTING YEAR.
...The year has passed, and we are about to
...enter upon a new one. It has been a
...year of great interest and excitement,
...and we believe that it will be
...remembered as one of the most
...important in our history. We have
...seen the close of the Crimean War,
...and the beginning of a new era in
...our history. We have seen the rise
...of the Republican Party, and the
...fall of the Whig Party. We have
...seen the election of Abraham Lincoln,
...and the beginning of the Civil War.

...ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICAN.
...The steamship American, arrived at Halifax
...Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock.
...The vessel was loaded with passengers
...and freight, and she was in excellent
...condition. The passengers were all
...well, and they were glad to see the
...vessel. The captain was a gentleman
...of high character, and he was well
...known to the passengers. The crew
...was all well, and they were glad to
...see the vessel. The vessel was in
...excellent condition, and she was well
...equipped for her voyage.

...INCIDENTS RELATIVE TO THE BATTLE
...OF INKERMAN.
...The following are some of the incidents
...which occurred during the battle of ...Inkerman. The battle was fought on
...September 20th, 1854, between the
...Russian and British forces. The ...British forces were defeated, and the
...Russians were victorious. The battle
...was a hard-fought one, and it was
...one of the most important in the ...Crimean War. The following are some ...of the incidents which occurred during
...the battle.

...THE DEPARTING YEAR.
...The year has passed, and we are about to
...enter upon a new one. It has been a
...year of great interest and excitement,
...and we believe that it will be
...remembered as one of the most
...important in our history. We have
...seen the close of the Crimean War,
...and the beginning of a new era in
...our history. We have seen the rise
...of the Republican Party, and the
...fall of the Whig Party. We have
...seen the election of Abraham Lincoln,
...and the beginning of the Civil War.

...OUR NEW GOVERNMENT.
...In reviewing the political complexion of
...the new Administration, we are anxious
...to place before the public a general
...outline of the policy which we believe
...to be the best for the country. It is
...not our intention to discuss the merits
...of the various parties, but to point
...out the principles which we believe to
...be the best for the country.

...THE DEPARTING YEAR.
...The year has passed, and we are about to
...enter upon a new one. It has been a
...year of great interest and excitement,
...and we believe that it will be
...remembered as one of the most
...important in our history. We have
...seen the close of the Crimean War,
...and the beginning of a new era in
...our history. We have seen the rise
...of the Republican Party, and the
...fall of the Whig Party. We have
...seen the election of Abraham Lincoln,
...and the beginning of the Civil War.

...ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICAN.
...The steamship American, arrived at Halifax
...Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock.
...The vessel was loaded with passengers
...and freight, and she was in excellent
...condition. The passengers were all
...well, and they were glad to see the
...vessel. The captain was a gentleman
...of high character, and he was well
...known to the passengers. The crew
...was all well, and they were glad to
...see the vessel. The vessel was in
...excellent condition, and she was well
...equipped for her voyage.

...I will not tell you the name of the
...man who was killed, but I will tell you
...that he was a brave and noble man.
...He was killed in the Crimea, and his
...death was a great loss to his family.
...The letter describes his character, his
...habits, and his conduct in the army.
...It is a touching and interesting
...account of his life and death.

...THE DEPARTING YEAR.
...The year has passed, and we are about to
...enter upon a new one. It has been a
...year of great interest and excitement,
...and we believe that it will be
...remembered as one of the most
...important in our history. We have
...seen the close of the Crimean War,
...and the beginning of a new era in
...our history. We have seen the rise
...of the Republican Party, and the
...fall of the Whig Party. We have
...seen the election of Abraham Lincoln,
...and the beginning of the Civil War.

...OUR NEW GOVERNMENT.
...In reviewing the political complexion of
...the new Administration, we are anxious
...to place before the public a general
...outline of the policy which we believe
...to be the best for the country. It is
...not our intention to discuss the merits
...of the various parties, but to point
...out the principles which we believe to
...be the best for the country.

...THE DEPARTING YEAR.
...The year has passed, and we are about to
...enter upon a new one. It has been a
...year of great interest and excitement,
...and we believe that it will be
...remembered as one of the most
...important in our history. We have
...seen the close of the Crimean War,
...and the beginning of a new era in
...our history. We have seen the rise
...of the Republican Party, and the
...fall of the Whig Party. We have
...seen the election of Abraham Lincoln,
...and the beginning of the Civil War.

...ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICAN.
...The steamship American, arrived at Halifax
...Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock.
...The vessel was loaded with passengers
...and freight, and she was in excellent
...condition. The passengers were all
...well, and they were glad to see the
...vessel. The captain was a gentleman
...of high character, and he was well
...known to the passengers. The crew
...was all well, and they were glad to
...see the vessel. The vessel was in
...excellent condition, and she was well
...equipped for her voyage.

...I will not tell you the name of the
...man who was killed, but I will tell you
...that he was a brave and noble man.
...He was killed in the Crimea, and his
...death was a great loss to his family.
...The letter describes his character, his
...habits, and his conduct in the army.
...It is a touching and interesting
...account of his life and death.

...THE DEPARTING YEAR.
...The year has passed, and we are about to
...enter upon a new one. It has been a
...year of great interest and excitement,
...and we believe that it will be
...remembered as one of the most
...important in our history. We have
...seen the close of the Crimean War,
...and the beginning of a new era in
...our history. We have seen the rise
...of the Republican Party, and the
...fall of the Whig Party. We have
...seen the election of Abraham Lincoln,
...and the beginning of the Civil War.

...OUR NEW GOVERNMENT.
...In reviewing the political complexion of
...the new Administration, we are anxious
...to place before the public a general
...outline of the policy which we believe
...to be the best for the country. It is
...not our intention to discuss the merits
...of the various parties, but to point
...out the principles which we believe to
...be the best for the country.

...THE DEPARTING YEAR.
...The year has passed, and we are about to
...enter upon a new one. It has been a
...year of great interest and excitement,
...and we believe that it will be
...remembered as one of the most
...important in our history. We have
...seen the close of the Crimean War,
...and the beginning of a new era in
...our history. We have seen the rise
...of the Republican Party, and the
...fall of the Whig Party. We have
...seen the election of Abraham Lincoln,
...and the beginning of the Civil War.

...ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICAN.
...The steamship American, arrived at Halifax
...Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock.
...The vessel was loaded with passengers
...and freight, and she was in excellent
...condition. The passengers were all
...well, and they were glad to see the
...vessel. The captain was a gentleman
...of high character, and he was well
...known to the passengers. The crew
...was all well, and they were glad to
...see the vessel. The vessel was in
...excellent condition, and she was well
...equipped for her voyage.