

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, July 24.—In St. Paul's church on Monday afternoon Rev. A. W. Daniel, rural dean, officiated in the marriage of Miss Ethel B. Kennedy, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kennedy, and Ralph H. Steele of the Bank of Montreal staff, St. John. The bride who was unattended entered the church with her father, looking very winsome in a dainty white frock of embroidered voile, white hat trimmed with white corded silk and feathers, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and ferns. The church was very attractively decorated with sprays and pink peonies, the chancel being lighted by electricity. The choir was present and sang "The Dies," "O Perfect Love" was given very sweetly as a solo by Mrs. Walter Harrison. A very large number of friends attended. There were no invited guests to the church. During the afternoon at the home of the bride and groom, a very pleasant informal reception was given. The party, which were profusely decorated with flowers, those in the front room being lovely sweet williams and in the back parlor pink and white carnations and peonies. Refreshments were served in the dining room, in the centre of the table was a large pyramid wedding cake, pink roses and carnations were used in the decoration. Among those present were, besides the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kennedy, Mr. Allan Kennedy, Miss Jackson, Mr. Arthur Kennedy, Miss Beale Babbs (Fredericton), Miss Clara Miller (St. Martins), Miss Haynes (Fredericton), Miss Remahaw, Miss Agnes Remahaw, Mrs. David Robertson, Miss Dorothy Robertson, Miss Madge Robertson, Rev. A. W. Daniel, Mrs. R. E. Paddington, Miss Adams, Pat and Jack Starr, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Boyd, Mrs. Fred A. Peters, Mrs. Harry Frink, Miss Sybil Frink, Mrs. A. Dobbin, Mrs. Brock, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. H. F. Paddington, Miss Florence Paddington, Mrs. J. DeWitt, Mrs. M. Robinson, Miss Thomson, Miss Dorothy Guest, (Vermont), Miss L. Thomson, Mrs. Donville, Mr. G. Pitt-Rivers, Mr. C. W. Harvey, Mr. John D. Purdy, Mr. J. M. Hastings, Mr. Gurney, Mrs. Hann and others. The toast to the bride was proposed by the groom, and responded to by the groom. Leaving Rothsay by automobile the happy couple went to Hampton from where they took the train for Quebec. They expect to be away about three weeks and returning to St. John. A delightful children's party, with Mrs. R. D. Patterson as hostess, for her little daughter, Zoe, took place at the home of Mrs. Patterson on Monday. The list of guests including Ruth Harrison, Louis Fairweather, Frances and George Cudlipp, Kathleen and Maurice Blanche, Mrs. Mary and Frances Robinson, Mrs. Booth, Amy Armstrong, George Brand, Barbara, Betty, Frances and Elsie Gilbert, Betty Thompson, Helen Allison, Sibbie Frink, Keith and Jimmie Casritte. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fleming have been cruising on the St. John river in their motor launch, the guests Mr. and Mrs. Frank Storey, have returned home. They had a very delightful trip, going to Fredericton and on the way have visited Grand Falls, Westwood, Bellefleur and other points of interest. Guests of Mrs. and Miss Henderson, Riverside, are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. Helen Taylor, of Ottawa. Those present were Mrs. W. S. Allison, Mrs. Mahon, Mrs. W. S. Whitaker, Mrs. Harry Paddington, Mrs. Leonard Tully, Miss Paddington, Mrs. W. Z. East, Miss Mabel Gilbert, Mrs. Harry Frink, Miss Catherine, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Thomas Bell, Miss Allison and her guests Miss Grier and Miss Seaman, Mrs. J. B. Cudlipp, Mrs. J. M. Robinson. Mrs. Sarah Haynes, and Miss Bessie Bebbitt, of Fredericton have been spending a few days in Rothsay, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy. A party, who were pleased to again meet Miss Edith Row, who was for some time principal of The Ellinger Home Farm at New Brunswick, and is now living in Montserrat, was given by her mother and sister, Mrs. and Miss Row, are spending a few weeks at Mrs. Campbell's Hampton Station and paid a visit to Rothsay, on Monday. Miss Annie Armstrong is visiting at the home of her school mate, Miss Snowball at Chatham. Among those from Rothsay who attended the young people's dance given on Tuesday evening by Mrs. F. E. on Tuesday by Mrs. F. E. Sayre, St. John, in honor of her daughter's guest Miss Anne DeWitt, St. John, were Misses Jean Foss, Edith Cudlipp, Campbell Mackay, Elmer Paddington, Herbert West, Jim Gilbert, Carroll Cudlipp, Ray Mackay, Harry Barker, Tom O'Hara, Cecil West. Mr. Arthur Partridge, of Rochester, (N. Y.), was the week-end guest of Mrs. E. H. and Miss Fairweather, St. John. Mrs. Robert S. Ritchie is confined to her room at Riverside with a badly strained ankle. A party, who crossed to Long Island on Thursday evening and had tea on the shore, including Mr. West, Miss Lillie West, Miss Whitaker, Miss Purdy, Miss Daniel, Miss Sanderson, Mrs. Cecil West, Mr. Moffet, Mr. Daries, Mr. Herbert West and Mr. Ray Mackay. Miss Purdy left by Sunday's C. P. R. to visit Mr. and Mrs. N. Carrie at their summer home at Tidnish and will then cruise the Bras d'Or lakes in their line motor yacht. Mrs. Hammond, of Gloucester, has been here guest of the Misses Coon. Mrs. John A. Calhoun, of Philadelphia, is expected this week to visit her sister, Mrs. Thomas Bell. A greatly enjoyed luncheon bridge was given on Friday afternoon by Mrs. R. D. Patterson at her summer home in the park. Prizes were won by Mrs. Walter West, Mrs. M. B. Blanche, Mrs. Booth, of England, was the guest of honor, others present being Mrs. W. Z. East, Mrs. H. F. Paddington, Miss Tully, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Stubbart, Mrs. Brand, Mrs. Fayson, Miss Russell (Montreal), Mrs. J. B. Cudlipp, Mrs. Harry Frink, Miss Kaye, Miss Gilbert, Mrs. Leonard Tully, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. C. H. Fairweather, Miss Alice Fairweather, Miss Madge Robinson, Mrs. F. C. Jones, Mrs. Paul Blanchet, Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. John M. Robinson, Miss Paddington, Mrs. Frank Fairweather, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Jack McKean, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. F. A. Peters, Miss Alice Davidson,

MARITIME PROVINCES

Miss Edith Cudlipp and Misses Kerr served at the tea hour. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter and little son, of St. John, are here spending a few days at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McAvity. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hooper, of St. John; Miss Yeates, sister of Mrs. Hooper, and Miss Petrie, her niece, are spending this week at Karsalie. Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robertson and Miss Hooper left for Upper St. John. There were only about thirty-five in attendance at the boat club dance on Saturday evening, the weather being very unfavorable. The club have purchased a fine gramophone, which will furnish music for dancing. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Sayre, Miss David Sayre and Miss Edith Row, are spending over the week-end at their cottage here. Miss Alice Davidson has returned home to a pleasant visit to friends at Dorchester. Mrs. Louis Barker and little daughter, Phyllis, of Montreal, were with Mrs. and Mrs. J. S. Gibbon and family. The boys from here who attended the camp at Sussex returned home on Monday, having enjoyed the week-end very much. The boys captured the prize for keeping the cleanest tent, and Jeff Starr first prize for high jump (intermediate). The others returning were Harry Barker, Elmer Paddington, Rob. MacKeen and Claud West. Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Paddington and their daughter Florence, who were away in Sussex over the week-end, returned today. Mrs. Joseph H. Henderson and little daughter, Muriel, left with friends to spend a week or two at Meteghan (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gibbon and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Secley and child, are camping out on Long Island. On Tuesday, Mr. Robert Thomson and party left for Dick's Lake, on a few days' trout fishing trip. Miss Hazel McArthur, who has been visiting Mrs. Edna Fichler at Deep Brook (N. S.), is expected home on Saturday. Rev. John C. Mortimer and Mrs. Mortimer are receiving congratulations in consequence of the arrival of a little son in their home. Miss Donville has been in St. John visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. Morris Robinson, Cass square. On Saturday, Mr. L. P. D. Tully went to St. Andrews, returning on Monday with his three children, who have been the guests of their grandmother, Lady Tully. Mrs. Robert Thomson is enjoying a two weeks' visit from her friends, Mrs. Beag. A delightful children's party, with Mrs. R. D. Patterson as hostess, for her little daughter, Zoe, took place at the home of Mrs. Patterson on Monday. The list of guests including Ruth Harrison, Louis Fairweather, Frances and George Cudlipp, Kathleen and Maurice Blanche, Mrs. Mary and Frances Robinson, Mrs. Booth, Amy Armstrong, George Brand, Barbara, Betty, Frances and Elsie Gilbert, Betty Thompson, Helen Allison, Sibbie Frink, Keith and Jimmie Casritte. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fleming have been cruising on the St. John river in their motor launch, the guests Mr. and Mrs. Frank Storey, have returned home. They had a very delightful trip, going to Fredericton and on the way have visited Grand Falls, Westwood, Bellefleur and other points of interest. Guests of Mrs. and Miss Henderson, Riverside, are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. Helen Taylor, of Ottawa. Those present were Mrs. W. S. Allison, Mrs. Mahon, Mrs. W. S. Whitaker, Mrs. Harry Paddington, Mrs. Leonard Tully, Miss Paddington, Mrs. W. Z. East, Miss Mabel Gilbert, Mrs. Harry Frink, Miss Catherine, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Thomas Bell, Miss Allison and her guests Miss Grier and Miss Seaman, Mrs. J. B. Cudlipp, Mrs. J. M. Robinson. Mrs. Sarah Haynes, and Miss Bessie Bebbitt, of Fredericton have been spending a few days in Rothsay, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy. A party, who were pleased to again meet Miss Edith Row, who was for some time principal of The Ellinger Home Farm at New Brunswick, and is now living in Montserrat, was given by her mother and sister, Mrs. and Miss Row, are spending a few weeks at Mrs. Campbell's Hampton Station and paid a visit to Rothsay, on Monday. Miss Annie Armstrong is visiting at the home of her school mate, Miss Snowball at Chatham. Among those from Rothsay who attended the young people's dance given on Tuesday evening by Mrs. F. E. on Tuesday by Mrs. F. E. Sayre, St. John, in honor of her daughter's guest Miss Anne DeWitt, St. John, were Misses Jean Foss, Edith Cudlipp, Campbell Mackay, Elmer Paddington, Herbert West, Jim Gilbert, Carroll Cudlipp, Ray Mackay, Harry Barker, Tom O'Hara, Cecil West. Mr. Arthur Partridge, of Rochester, (N. Y.), was the week-end guest of Mrs. E. H. and Miss Fairweather, St. John. Mrs. Robert S. Ritchie is confined to her room at Riverside with a badly strained ankle. A party, who crossed to Long Island on Thursday evening and had tea on the shore, including Mr. West, Miss Lillie West, Miss Whitaker, Miss Purdy, Miss Daniel, Miss Sanderson, Mrs. Cecil West, Mr. Moffet, Mr. Daries, Mr. Herbert West and Mr. Ray Mackay. Miss Purdy left by Sunday's C. P. R. to visit Mr. and Mrs. N. Carrie at their summer home at Tidnish and will then cruise the Bras d'Or lakes in their line motor yacht. Mrs. Hammond, of Gloucester, has been here guest of the Misses Coon. Mrs. John A. Calhoun, of Philadelphia, is expected this week to visit her sister, Mrs. Thomas Bell. A greatly enjoyed luncheon bridge was given on Friday afternoon by Mrs. R. D. Patterson at her summer home in the park. Prizes were won by Mrs. Walter West, Mrs. M. B. Blanche, Mrs. Booth, of England, was the guest of honor, others present being Mrs. W. Z. East, Mrs. H. F. Paddington, Miss Tully, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Stubbart, Mrs. Brand, Mrs. Fayson, Miss Russell (Montreal), Mrs. J. B. Cudlipp, Mrs. Harry Frink, Miss Kaye, Miss Gilbert, Mrs. Leonard Tully, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. C. H. Fairweather, Miss Alice Fairweather, Miss Madge Robinson, Mrs. F. C. Jones, Mrs. Paul Blanchet, Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. John M. Robinson, Miss Paddington, Mrs. Frank Fairweather, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Jack McKean, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. F. A. Peters, Miss Alice Davidson,

DORCHESTER

St. John, Mrs. Kenny and Miss Phyllis Kenny, of St. John, are the guests of Mrs. Teed this week. Mrs. C. H. Hanington, who has spent the past few days in Boston, arrived home on Wednesday last. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chapman were called to Amherst on account of the death of Mr. Ingle Bent. Dorchester friends express sincere sympathy to Mrs. Bent and family in their sad loss. Miss Mageline Bliss, who has been the guest of Miss Margaret Teed, returned on Saturday to her home in Amherst. Mrs. O. H. Home and son Myron returned from Moncton, where they recently spent several days. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Chambers and Miss Elsie Chambers, who spent several days in Amherst, the guest of Mrs. George Gallant, have returned home. Mrs. Ray Landry, of Edmonton (Alta.), is the guest of Judge and Mrs. Mageline Bliss for some time. Misses Margaret and Dorothy Teed, and Messrs. Hugs and Lionel Teed, delightfully entertained a number of their friends on an enjoyable dance on Thursday evening last, in honor of their guests Miss Madeline Bliss, of Amherst, and Miss Phyllis Kenny, of St. John. The dancing rooms were prettily decorated with roses, ferns and other cut flowers. Other guests were: Mrs. A. B. Phips, Mrs. Kenny, of St. John, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Fayson, Misses Carmelita Rich, Ada Palmer, Jo Oulton, Marjorie Hutchinson, Lila Foster, Katherine Bean (Portsmouth), Florence Lockhart, Marjorie Friel, Louise Friel, Messrs. Will Tait, Will McQueen, Jerry Potter, Will Hickman, Joe and Jack Hickman, Ralph Hewson, Sydney Willett (Shediac), Will Gillespie, Adrian Richard, Fred Richard, Ralph Teed. Mr. Fred Foster, who spent the past week in Sussex, with the Cadets, has returned home. Mrs. J. F. Teed gave a delightful afternoon bridge party on Friday, Miss Adams Palmer won the first prize, and

DALHOUSIE

Dalhousie, N. B., July 22.—Miss Ais Stewart, of Ottawa, is spending a few weeks in town as the guest of her friend, Miss Rosalind Ferguson. Mrs. R. Z. Walker and son, Master George Walker, of Fredericton (N. B.), are spending some time here, guests at the Ingham Hotel. Mrs. Arthur Jolicoeur and little family of Montreal, are spending a few weeks in town, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Scott at the Queen. Mr. T. G. Scott has returned from Mount Clemens Springs (Mich.), very much improved in health. Mrs. A. W. Donbridge and daughter, Miss Doris Donbridge, of Quebec, are spending a couple of weeks here, guests at the Ingham Hotel. Mrs. "Babe" Langley, of Campbellton (N. B.), is visiting her aunt here, Mrs. W. A. Mott. Mr. A. C. LaBrosse, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, at Verdonnes (P. Q.), arrived here Friday, to spend his vacation with his parents, Hon. C. H. and Mrs. LaBrosse. He will leave on Monday for Montreal. Mrs. (N. B.), who will spend the remainder of his vacation, the guest of his sister, Mrs. R. L. Lemox. Miss Isabel Jenkins, niece of Sir Geo. E. Foster and Lady Foster, arrived here last week to spend the summer months at the Ingham Hotel. The Misses Edith and Emma Baldwin, registered nurses at Boston, are spending a few weeks in town, the guests of their mother, Mrs. John Baldwin. Miss Helen McEwan, of Richibucto, is visiting her sister here, Mrs. Lesley Brown. Mrs. Jim Scott of the staff of the Royal Bank of Canada, Montreal, returned to that city on Tuesday, after spending his vacation here, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Scott. Mr. Bourque, M. P. P., of Richibucto,

SHEDAC

Shediac, N. B., July 22.—Mrs. C. C. Hamilton, of New Brunswick, arrived in town recently, and is remaining for a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. M. and Mrs. James and daughter, Miss Kathleen, of St. John, have been spending the week at Point du Chene, guests of Mrs. W. Wilson. Mrs. Miss Marian White, of Moncton, was the guest during the week of her cousin, Miss Jean Webster. Miss Jean Webster, of Montreal, is spending her vacation at Brule, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Schaeffer. Mrs. James Gibson has returned from spending some days at Carleton Point (P. E. I.). Mr. and Mrs. F. Holt and little son, are guests of Mrs. Holt's sister, Mrs. Agnes Weldon. Mrs. C. S. Nickerson, of Boston, who has been spending a week in town, the guest of Mrs. Lena Bray, returned to Moncton on Wednesday, where she is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Northrup, for the summer. Mrs. J. Y. A. McQueen, who has been enjoying a few weeks at Cape, the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Jas. Hanington, has returned to Montreal. Mrs. M. C. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E. Fletcher, accompanied by her wife and child, left Friday morning on their return to England; taking passage on the steamer Horsmand. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, who has been at a much enjoyed outing party on Wednesday afternoon. The party went down as far as Burn Church on the steamer J. W. Brantley, and returned in the evening. Mrs. F. H. Haley and family are spending a few weeks at Bay du Vin. Mrs. William Bentley and little son, of St. Martins, are the guests of Miss Agnes Wilson. Douglas McCosh, of Douglastown, has joined the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred from Truro (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser went to Cross Point on Friday to visit relatives. Mrs. J. E.