

The building, which was erected in 1886 and was furnished by the Ladies' Auxiliary, is open every day except Sunday from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. Its privileges are open to all members. The Reading Room is well supplied with newspapers, periodicals and magazines. The parlor is very comfortably furnished, and members will always find at their disposal a piano, an organ, college song books, checkers and chess.

Library.

The Library of the Association is composed chiefly of works on missions. Books will be let out on application to the General Secretary or any member of the Rooms' Committee, and should be returned at the end of two weeks.

Boarding Houses.

At the office of the Association students will find a complete list of rooms and boarding houses, which have been personally inspected by the members of our Fall Campaign Committee. During the first week of October members of this Committee will be in attendance, and will give all possible assistance to new students.

General Secretary.

With the erection of Association Hall the administration of the growing work of the Association was too heavy a burden upon the President and undergraduate officers so the Association employ a General Secretary or executive officer to supervise the work. The Secretary will be pleased to welcome any student to whom he may be of service. His hours will be found on the Y. M. C. A. bulletin board.
