

Items Of Local Interest

Next Sunday will be Blossom Sunday.
A disastrous fire at Sussex, N. B., on Sunday caused damage estimated at about $200,000.

To-night

At the annual meeting of the Valley Medical Society held at Digby on May 29th, Dr. M. R. Elliott of this town, was elected vice-president for Kings county, and Dr. C. E. A. deWitt was elected secretary-treasurer.

The rains on Tuesday and Wednesday were most timely and decidedly beneficial to the country as the ground was becoming very dry. Both the grass and trees are looking exceedingly well and gardens are coming along finely.

I. O. D. E. Dance

A. Milne Fraser, Typewriter Dealer of Halifax, will be in Wolfville, Monday afternoon, June 11th. Any one desiring to purchase a new or secondhand typewriter should leave word at THE ACADIAN Office and he will call.

Community Hall

Ideal weather conditions prevailed for the King's Birthday which was very generally celebrated on Monday. There were many fishing and motoring trips and a goodly number from this town attended the Horse Show at Kentville.

Mill's Orchestra

Apple prospects this year according to expert opinions through the Valley are for an unprecedented, crop if nothing untoward happens in the way of weather. Some of the first buds were winter-killed making the yield on such trees late, but on the whole there never was a finer outlook.

Tickets $1.00

*Those who attended the play, "Daddy Long-legs", presented at the Opera House last Friday evening by the Mount Allison College Players were loud in their praise of the performance. The play certainly deserved a much larger audience. All the parts were exceedingly well taken and their acting would have done credit to professionals. The selections by the orchestra and the solos by Mrs. Kathryn Thompson Blight, soprano, and Miss Bernice Stultz, violinist, were greatly enjoyed. The playing of the latter was especially good and her selections were loudly applauded.

A STORY

About two wee frost fairies called Andrew and Judy. Of course they were a few million years old but they only met in the winter of '23 and grew very fond of each other. They were in Wolfville making all the town beautiful but they stayed too long. June came in and finding them still there, was very angry and got the South wind to blow them out. They were so very lonely that the Fairy Queen sympathetically turned Andrew into a sewing machine and Judy into a dress form and they are now ready to take orders at

Coming Events

Notices under this heading are inserted at 10 cents a line. Each repeat, 5 cent a line; minimum charge, 30 cents. Contract rates on application.

For the next two Sundays union services will be held by the Presbyterian and Methodist congregations. The morning service will be held at the Presbyterian church and the evening service at the Methodist church. Rev. D. B. Hemmeon will be the preacher next Sunday and Rev. G. W. Miller will officiate on June 17th.

Mrs. Roderick MacDonald, Robie street, Halifax, announces the engagement of her daughter, Brenda, to Mr. Eugene George Clark, of Hampstead, New Hampshire. Marriage to take place at an early date in New Hampshire. Miss MacDonald has many friends in Wolfville, where with her mother and other members of her family she resided for over a year after the Halifax explosion.

On Friday evening the citizens of Wolfville were invited to inspect the set of eighteen war pictures presented to the Wolfville Public school by the Sir Robert Borden Chapter of the I. O. D. E. Short addresses were given by Mrs. Davison, of the teaching staff, and Dr. MacDonald. Mrs. Phinney, Regent, then formally presented the pictures and Principal Silver accepted on behalf of the school.

WAR MEMORIAL PICTURES

The I. O. D. E. War Memorial pictures, 18 in number, are now on exhibition at the new school house.

The pictures were a gift from the Canadian War Memorial Fund but the cost of the framing was borne by the Sir Robert Borden chapter and by them presented to the school.

History and poetry will have their records of the great war, these pictures are the Canadian records in art. 1000 sets were made, 65 was the allotment to N. S., each province according to its population. Visitors are welcome at any time as the pictures are hung in the corridors and study in the various rooms would not be interfered with. Begin with number 1, The Prince of Wales, and take them in historical sequence. A short description is given with each one.

NINA E. DAVISON,
Educational Secretary.
