

Rhodes to Oxford

Eleven Rhodes Scholarships will be awarded to Canadians again this fall. They will entitle the winners to study at Oxford University in England for two (and possibly three) years commencing in September 1983. The value of each scholarship is approximately $7,000 per annum. Applications for the 1983 awards may be made until October 25, 1982.

The Rhodes Scholarships, established in 1904 under the Will of Cecil Rhodes, are the best known of international scholarships. They have been the model for many similar awards in Canada, the United States and elsewhere. Rhodes Scholars proceed to Oxford where unique opportunities exist for general undergraduate studies and for advanced work in both the humanities and the sciences. The present stipend is approximately sufficient to pay all expenses and to enable the scholar to take advantage of excellent opportunities for travel in Britain and on the Continent of Europe during the three lengthy vacations of the Oxford academic year.

Canadians, preferably in their third or fourth year of university work, who are unmarried and between 18 and 24 years of age, are eligible for the scholarships. Application forms and particulars may be obtained from university Registrars or from the Secretary in each province.

Applicants for the Rhodes Scholarship are not required to write an examination. Selection is made by provincial committees after personal interviews and on the basis of the candidate's record. Although scholastic ability is of importance, such factors as character, qualities of leadership and interest in outdoor sports are carefully considered. Some definite quality of distinction, whether in intellect or character or a combination of these, is the essential requirement.

Over 600 Canadians have now held Rhodes Scholarships. Many of these scholars on returning to Canada have had distinguished careers and made significant contributions to the public life in this country.

Arabs protest Israeli complicity

by Bill Ingles

A hastily organized rally to protest the massacre of civilians in Lebanese refugee camps burned together over 250 people in Edmonton Tuesday.

The rally began with a march around the lawn in front of City Hall as pickets chanted slogans in support of the Palestinians in Lebanon and the now exiled P.L.O. and their leader, Yasser Arafat.

The march also included more conservative members of the Edmonton Arab community who spoke out against alleged Israeli complicity in the massacre at the Beirut camps.

Demonstrators set fire to signs and stomped the burning embers into the ground in a graphic demonstration of their anger.

Once the speeches had begun other protesters brought an Israeli flag on to the steps of City Hall and again burned it, dashing the remains into the ground.

In the aftermath of the noisy march, organizers held a minute's silence to remember the slain.
