

nothing of the liquor being in the canoe when he found his report, left Sarawak, and that when he found that such was the fact he condemned the proceeding and refused to drink himself and found fault with the woman who gave the liquor to the other Indians, there would seem to be no grounds for removing the Chief in question from his position.

I am,

Sir,

Yours obedient servant.

W. H. B. [unclear]
 Deputy Secy & General of Indian Affairs