Ottawa, September 15th., 1920,

Sir,-

I beg to acknowledge statement of your account dated 1st August, relative to drugs supplied on behalf of Indians of the Stikine, New Westminster, and West Coast, Agencies, and I beg to inform you that the accounts in connection therewith have not reached the Department and payment for the drugs cannot be made until certified accounts have been received. The Department is writing Mr. Simpson, Indian Agent, Telegraph Creek, Mr. Byrne, Indian Agent, at New Westminster, and Mr. Cox, Alberni, in regard to the matter and requesting them to forward certified accounts for the drugs, if the same were received by them.

Your obedient servant,

For Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
