

copy of an English journal with a very nice reference to Mac's book & I sent it on to Mary. It is a blessing she is so well & I think her mother is a real help to her especially with the sewing.
The Immigration Dept. got me a very nice Irish girl but she doesn't know much. I will try & keep her for she is gentle, but if she doesn't do better I can't afford to pay for that alone. I was over nine days & liked her so much.

Mary is going to enclose a picture he took of the porch. Prepare for the shock of the bills to follow! I was kind of cool I wouldn't send them!
All her pain in sending much love & in the hope that you will manage with it in some form of ~~affection~~ ~~with~~ ~~some~~

BOULDERFEL,

BARRIE.

December 14th 24

Dear Willie:

There was a general chorus of disappointment when we saw you were back in Ottawa for we were all hoping you would drop off here for thanksgiving. I suppose you had what you would call a "wonderful trip".
We read what there was to read but there wasn't much in the papers. I had a note from Audrey saying they had seen you several times & had
