| On emerging from unconsciousness. The great curiosity: where do things come from? The lesson of the apple. Going back through the ages. The source of life is God.   |      |
| II. GOD . . . . .  | 9    |
| Our good right to believe in Him. Nothing is without a cause. Natural and artificial flowers. There is a Thought at work in the universe. As every stream of water runs to the sea, our minds go toward God. |      |
| III. OUR MEANS OF KNOWING GOD . . .  | 13   |
| Our littleness and His Greatness. The hand of a child cannot seize the stars, neither  |      |
