

ROYAL TEMPLAR BOOK AND PUBLISHING HOUSE,

HAMILTON, ONTARIO.

Headquarters in Canada for Temperance Literature,
Temperance Song Books, Sheet Music, Dialogue and Recitation Books, Story Books, Scientific Books, Sermons, Pamphlets, Tracts, and White Cross Leaflets.

CATALOGUE OF 2,000 PUBLICATIONS FREE TO EVERY APPLICANT.

MUSIC AND SONG BOOKS.

Trumpet Notes for the Temperance Battle.

FIELD. The book used in the great Royal Revival Movement, containing the Odes of the Royal Templars of Temperance. In paper, 30 cents; in boards, 35 cents.
No. 1, only, 10 cents.

Song Notes for the Temperance Army.

Contains the Odes of Good Templars and Sons of Temperance. In paper, 30 cents; in boards, 35 cents.

Rallying Songs for Young Teetotalers.

16 pages; best selection for Juvenile Societies. 15 cents.

"Royal Templars' March,"

—a beautiful piece of sheet music in emblematic covers, and

"What would You take for Me?"

by R. T. Crossley, —a very popular piece of sheet music. 10 pieces free by mail for 25 cents.

International Royal Templar.

The leading and largest temperance periodical of the Dominion, its circulation far exceeding the combined circulation of all other Canadian temperance periodicals. Subscription price, $1 per annum. A magnificent premium to every new subscriber. Send for specimen copy to

W. W. BUCHANAN, Editor and Manager,
HAMILTON, ONT.