

Though sad the requiem Old Year sings,
Joyous the New Year's bell now rings.

THE dampness of Spring and Fall, and exposure to the chills of Winter, develop rheumatism in those naturally disposed to the disease. Early guard against its approach by using Haygard's Yellow Oil, the matchless remedy for rheumatism.

Why are seeds, when sown, like gateposts? Be cause they are planted in the earth to propagate.

HOW TO SPELL "SOO."

There lived a young maid at the Sault,
Whose eyes were a beautiful blault;
But most sad to relate
Was this lovely maid's fate:
Died of eating too much codfish stault.

AN old darkey who was asked if in his experience prayer had ever been answered, replied, "Well, sah, some pra's is ansured an' some isn't; 'pends on what you axes fo'. Just after de wah, wen it was mighty hard scratchin' for de cullud breddren, I observed dat wen ebber I pway de Lord to sen' a turkey to de ole man, dere was no notice took of the partition; but wen I pway dat he would sen' de ole man fo' de turkey, de latter was 'tended to befor' sun up nex' mornin' dead sartin'!"

THE ARITHMETIC IN LOVE

2 lovers sat beneath the shade,
And 1 un2 the other said:
"How 14 8 that you be9
Have smiled upon this suit of mine;
If 5 a heat, it palps for you—
Thy voice is mu6 melody—
"Tis 7 to be thy loved 1, 2—
Say, O9 nymph, wilt marry me?"
Then lisped she soft: "Why 13ly 1!"

AROUND her waist his arm he placed,
In the parlor cozy and warm,
He vowed to love his "turtle dove,"
And defied the cold world's storm.
Upon his vest her head did rest,
The maiden gently twitters,
"You are not as strong I see as you used to be,
Oh Fred! take Burdock Bitters."

WHY suffer from the effects of impure blood, giving rise to unsightly blotches, pimples and festering sores; when the blood and secretions can be so easily and pleasantly cured by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters? The cost is trifling and the result marvellous.

THERE was a gay maiden name Fanny,
Who wouldn't darn socks for her granny,
But she'd sit all the day,
And she'd hammer away,
Like a tinker upon the pianny.

MEN are frequently like tea—the real strength and goodness are not properly drawn out until they have been in hot water.
