

In and Around Toronto

MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY.

October the month of the Holy Rosary, will be soon with us. In our churches on Sunday we heard announced the regulations and suggestions regarding the exercise of this beautiful devotion.

A VISIT TO "SUNNYSIDE."

Quite by accident I made a visit to and through the Sacred Heart Orphanage at Sunnyside on an afternoon of last week. A friend wished to see some of the institutions of our city and Sunnyside was chosen almost at random as a beginning.

Our first call was at the classrooms where the boys and girls had just come in from recess. Our entrance into the first of these was the signal for about fifty boys between the ages of eleven and fourteen to rise.

A remarkable change in the men and demeanor of the children, by comparison with that of a few years ago, was very apparent. Former visits, in which a dull, down look was seen on the countenance of nearly every boy, seemed to fade into something that never could have been, in presence of the bright and happy countenances facing us.

Bidding the children good-bye, we visited the dormitories, and such dormitories! Large, lofty rooms with hardwood floors, each with its several rows of little white beds.

So far we have seen only the bright side of the picture, the poetry as it were of the whole thing, but there is also the side of dry facts and figures. Four hundred and twenty children are in the register of the house for the year, over three hundred of these are at present inmates.

only a little over three cents per capita per day. The annual collection taken in the churches is the additional income upon which the house depends. Sunnyside Orphanage, like the House of Providence, St. Michael's Hospital and similar institutions, is altogether self-supporting, no interchange of assistance taking place, consequently the executive of each institution has to devise its own ways and means.

To anyone with means to help others the Sacred Heart Orphanage should appeal strongly. Its inmates are those who have almost the whole of life before them and on their present nourishment, environment and training depends most of their career for good or evil.

A DELIGHTFUL TEA.

About one hundred and fifty guests accepted the invitation of Mrs. John Mallon to an afternoon tea on Tuesday of this week, for the purpose of meeting her daughter, the young lady, Mrs. Scully of Brandon, who at present is visiting her old home.

GREETING TO IRISH ENVOYS.

It would be difficult to imagine a more enthusiastic gathering than that assembled on Monday evening at Association Hall to greet the Hon. John E. Redmond, M.P., leader of the Irish Nationalist Party, and his colleagues, Capt. A. J. E. Donelan, M.P. for Limerick, and Mr. Patrick O'Brien, M.P. for East Cork.

The Irish Celt had not the day all to himself on Monday last, his Scottish brother shared with him its pleasure and glory.

THE BLACK WATCH BAND.

The Irish Celt had not the day all to himself on Monday last, his Scottish brother shared with him its pleasure and glory. The band of the Black Watch, as heard at Massey Hall at the afternoon concert, gave one a far higher idea of its excellence than that given by its open air performances.

A GLANCE BACKWARD.

A gathering such as that of Monday night takes us back to a similar occasion not many years ago, when the Irish delegates were given welcome on their return from the Irish Convention. How many of those who were then the leading spirit are now missing!

ries his right arm to our liking and admiration in his credentials, only a man with a great sense of justice and a broad degree of discernment could have placed himself so in touch with a people alien to him in religion and tradition, as to be chosen by them as their representative in parliament.

Those speeches are all given elsewhere, so they can be only referred to here. Mr. Ross spoke in a much stronger tone than at this time last year, and the old-time vim, which poor health had weakened for a time has all returned.

Mr. Ross was the signal for renewed cheering. So full of ready and local suggestions was the address of the Premier that it must have been a question in the minds of his listeners, whether Irish wit, as exemplified to Mr. O'Brien or Scotch humor as portrayed in Mr. Ross, were the most felicitous and engaging.

Though unable to be present himself, owing to somewhat poor health, that loved Canadian and Irish patriot, the Hon. Edward Blake, was represented at the greeting given to the Irish envoys by his sweet-faced and helpful wife.

MRS. BLAKE WAS THERE.

Though unable to be present himself, owing to somewhat poor health, that loved Canadian and Irish patriot, the Hon. Edward Blake, was represented at the greeting given to the Irish envoys by his sweet-faced and helpful wife.

MCCORMACK-EICHHORN.

Amongst the late weddings is that of Miss Marion Elizabeth, youngest daughter of Mr. A. Eichhorn, and Mr. Edward F. McCormack. The marriage took place at St. Paul's church, Rev. Father Hand, P.P., officiating. The bride was given away by her brother-in-law, Dr. M. Wallace. She was prettily attired in champagne silk eolienne over taffeta and carried a bouquet of bridal roses.

THE CANADIAN NORTHWEST

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of the Dominion Lands in Manitoba, or in the North-west Territories, excepting 1 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the District in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the Local Agent for the district in which the land is situated, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act and the amendments thereto to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans: (1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. (2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother. (3) If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence on the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead. (4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of Clauses (2), (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 30 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled, and the land may be again thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of the three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the North-west Territories information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba; or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the North-west Territories.

JAMES A. SMART, Deputy Minister of the Interior

N.B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from Railroad and other Corporations and private firms in Western Canada.
