REV. FATHER DUNN OF PARKHILL GOES TO CLINTON

It may be truly said that the departure of Rev. Father Dunn from Parkhill has caused sorrow among his parishioners and friends.

Since his coming to this parish six and a half years ago, he has, with untring zeal, labored for the honor and glory of God and for the spiritual and temporal welfare of those entrusted to his care, payer saring, and eyer self-sarificing. welfare of those entrusted to his care, never sparing, and ever self-sacrificing. Father Dunn endeared himself to all and especially to those who in sickness found consolation in his faithful ministrations. On the Sunday evening previous to his departure the choir of Sacred Heart Church, Parkhill, presented him with a beautiful tea set in Haviland China, accompanied by a neatsented him with a beautiful tea set in Haviland China, accompanied by a neatly worded address. On Monday evening a representative gathering of the citizens of Parkhill presented the reverend gentleman with a handsome leather club bag and beautifully illuminated address. On Tuesday the separate school children, among whom he will be very greatly missed, gave him a fancy electric reading lamp for his a fancy electric reading lamp for his library. During the evening two dele-gations of his faithful parishioners from gations of his faithful parishioners from Parkill and Bornish presented Father Dum, with two well filled purses of gold together with addresses sulogistic of the good works and kindly deeds of their beloved pastor, and their sorrow for his departure from among them.

Father Dunn's feeling reply to the various addresses was indeed tinged with sadness, but he assured all that it was only in obedience to the will of God with sadness, but he assured all that it was only in obedience to the will of God and his Bishop that he was saying good-bye to his present pastorate, where nought but good feeling existed. The people of Parkhill and Bornish feel assured that Father Dunn will gain in his new field of labour such love, respect, and faithful friends as he did in Parkhill

PARISH OF LA SALETTE

The following address was read on behalf of the congregation of La Salette to Father Gnam prior to his departure to take charge of the parish of Ingersoll. This was followed by an address and purse from the ladies, the children having previously showed their mark of appreciation in a similar manner. His departure has called forth universal regret from all classes and creeds, but especially from his people ds, but especially from his people who felt the separation most keenly

ALL MY PIMPLES GONE

Girl Tells How a Blotchy Skin Was cleansed by a Simple

"I was ashamed of my face," writes Miss Minnie Pickard of Altamahaw. "It was all full of pimples and scars, but after using D. D. D. Prescription I can say that now there is no sign of that Eczema, and that was three years ago."

D. D. D. has become so famous as a cure and instant relief in eczema and all other serious skin diseases, that its value is sometimes overlooked in clearing up rash, pimples, black-heads, and all other minor forms of skin impurities.

The fact is, that while D. D. D. is so penetrating that it strikes to the very root of eczema or any other serious trouble, the soothing Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol and other ingredients are so carefully compounded there is no wash for the skin made that can compare with this great household remedy for every kind of skin trouble.

D. D. D. is pleasant to use, perfectly harmless to the most delicate skin, and absolutely reliable. Write the D. D. D. Laboratories Dent B. 49 Colborne

Dear Mr. Editor,—Some time ago I sent you a few notes on some little church matters that struck me as seasonchurch matters that struck me as season-able, and you were good enough to give them publication under the caption of "The Church in Newfoundland," The subject of my remarks at that time was a series of soul-stirring, fervor-inspiring sermons that I had heard from the lips of a priest who had just then arrived sermons that I had heard from the lips of a priest, who had just then arrived amongst us, in the person of the Rev. Father O'Callaghan, one who has since earned for himself, by his touching appeals and practical, heart-to-heart discourses, the very fitting title of "our local Father Bernard Yaughan."

This very day, it was my great pleasure to hear Father O'Callaghan, in his five-minute sermon at last Mass, deliver a touching and eloquent appeal to a vast congregation of about three thousand people in our beautiful cathedral of St. John, taking as his text from the gospel of the day, "Many are called, but few are chosen."

of the day, "Many are called, but few are chosen."
It is not in the power of my poor pen, Mr. Editor, to even attempt a description of the fervor with which this learned preacher held that great congregation spell bound, how his words were drank in eagerly, his very manner commanding rapt attention, and how, I am sure, every one of those present, left the sacred edifice, impressed with the sincerity and solemnity of his timely remarks.

Enough, that it was our great honor

Enough, that it was our great honor to be present, for I am certain such discourses, short though they be, cannot fail to be productive of much good, cannot fail to rouse in our latent hearts that one little spark of trust and faith that semelow or other never fully that somehow or other never fully dies, even in the most callous of us. Maybe, Mr. Editor, these few words

Maybe, Mr. Editor, these few words are sadly lacking in the characteristics that are necessary to obtain publication in your most admirable journal, but listening to that discourse to-day, somehow or other, I couldn't refrain from trying, in a feeble way, to tell as many people as possible, of the great honor and women of the world. A few years before his death he sent an "Essay on Shelly" to the Dublin Review, but it was returned unpublished. Shortly after his death it was found amongst his effects and again sent to the same publication. To satisfy the demand for the casay, the publishers of the Review were forced to print three extra editions. "A Renegade Poet and other Essays," by this gifted person, has been brought out by the Ball Publishing Co., 683 Atlantic ave., Boston. Like Thompson's other works, this will no doubt meet a ready sale amongst those who are fond of the best in literature. The price is $1.25 net, postage 8 cents.

A Useful Book for the Clergy

One of the most useful books for Catholic families which has lately come from the press is that entitled "Talks With Parents," by Father Phalen. Untold good would be the result of its careful study by heads of families. Wherever it goes it will do admirable missionary work expecially amongst those who are it goes it will do admirable missionary work, especially amongst those who are careless in the bringing up of their children. So that it may have a wide distribution Mr. F. A. Ronnan, of Halifax, N. S., has brought it out in cheap form. It can be had in quantities of fifty or more at 6cts, per copy by addressing that gentleman.
