

feeling, and when they grow up they pursue the same course with their own children, or those entrusted to their management, and thus the race of fretters is perpetuated.

The British Museum.

The first public establishment that I visited was the British Museum. As you approach the building, you are struck with a beautiful lofty iron railing, not less, I judge, than eighteen feet high.

reached two large reading-rooms, 120 feet long, where there were 400 or 500 persons engaged in reading, writing, and study, each furnished with table, desk, pens, ink, etc.

Obituary Notice.

The recent death of Mrs. Catherine BARNARD, wife of Mr. James Barnard, of this town, has forcibly brought to my mind, a sentiment uttered some seventeen years ago, by a faithful steward of the mysteries of Christ.

books, enlarging to make room for additional treasures, just as though it was a new thing. You must not think, however, that the attention of the nation is concentrated upon the British Museum; it is only one of many collections.

Missionary Intelligence.

AMOY AND HONG-KONG.—The London Missionary Society are having returns for their labor in China of a cheering character. Twenty-two new members have been introduced into their Churches, seventeen at Amoy and five at Hong-Kong.

published reports upon this subject in the Swedish language. A missionary journal appeared in 1834, edited by a well-taught and zealous friend of the gospel.

Marks of Divine Providence in England.

It is well to notice unlooked-for events and occurrences which no one could have expected; because in this way we are perpetually reminded of that Unseen Hand which, in our daily plans and calculations, we are too apt to forget.

contempt, derision, and persecution. They were sometimes beaten, and often hooted; but now they were in perfect peace, and associated with the Churches of the valleys in thorough fraternization.

What if Russia Succeeds?

Lamartine's forthcoming History of Turkey gives the following graphic and striking view of the consequences if Russia succeeds in the present war.

November number of the National Magazine is on our table, replete with interest and instruction. Those who wish a good Magazine for their families will do well to subscribe for it.

General Intelligence.

DOMESTIC. PROVISIONAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE, Halifax, Nov. 15, 1854.—His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, in Council, has been pleased to make the following appointments:—

Strange Matrimonial Adventure. The event of which I am to speak occurred a few weeks since in the city of Dubuque, a young man connected with one of the Evangelical congregations there, but not a member of the Church, had engaged to marry a young lady belonging to a respectable Catholic family in the place.

Stranger in the Land.

The examination of the applicants for baptism took place to-day before my brother, and Dr. Hirschberg, some of the native church-members were also present. There were two male applicants, eight of whom we thought admissible, among whom was Ma Lak. Dr. Hirschberg was highly satisfied with the knowledge and feeling of the men, and so were we all.

From the King's Library we passed into the General Library. Here, among other curiosities, I saw Wellington's schedule drawn up on the field of Waterloo, and Nelson's draft of the battle of the Nile.

Of the thirteen children which God gave her, we trust eleven are now alive, and the seven daughters (all of whom are members of society) were privileged to witness the departure of her who had been the guide of their youth, and were led to exclaim, of a truth, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

Small as our Church is, it sustains already the position of a mother Church. You will be interested to hear that the only Society of Christian Christians in America is composed of individuals who originally belonged to it.

At the late meeting of the Evangelical Alliance in London, the Hon. and Rev. Baptist W. Noel gave some account of his recent visit to the Valleys of the Vaudois and the Waldensian Churches, which he commenced by a very graphic description of several of the localities.
