Union MEETINGS .- The Union Prayer Meeting in Granville Street Church was well attendnotwithstanding the storm. The next Meet ing will be in Poplar Grove Church on Monday evening next. Subject of prayer—The Christianisation of India and the East Y. M. C. Association .- The Asnual Meeting of the Y. M. C. Association for this city will be d in their rooms on Saturday evening next. CITY RAILBOAD .- The case in City Court of Conion against City railroad drivers, for an assuit in removing the team of the former from the track, resulted in the acquittal of the defendents, the question of the right of way being served for the decision of a superior court. The deep snow since Thursday last has stopped he cars for a season. The city council has seed an ordinance against the use of the snow plough, and requiring that runners be used when now permits. In this the city fathers may pos-ably find they have exceeded their prerogative. MARINE DISASTER .- The brig J. J. The Amherst Gazette states that John Gutten of Pugwash, left that place in the fall of 1865, in a schooner, with a cargo of lumber for St. February. It is said Pierre, arrived safely at his distination. He sold the Queen in person. his cargo, and left for Bay of Islands, in the schooner Ocean Belle, Peppy, master; taking with him money and goods to purchase a cargo fish. A large number of vessels were frezen in the Bay the following winter, and it was supposed that the Ocean Belle was among them; out when the Spring opened, no tidings from her could be obtained, and it became too evident that she had never reached the Bay. The possibility that Mr. C. and the crew have been picked up by some other vessel is not now entertained, so long a time having elapsed since they were heard from.

NARMOUTH .- The Herald gives a list of a the supping owned in the County. The total master of vessels at present owned in Yarmouth is 186.—smounting to 72,607 tons,—and classified as follows : -25 Ships, 79 Barques, 1 Steamship, 18 Brigs, 13 Brigantines, and 50 Schooners. There are at present thirteen vessels of large size building or under contract for parties in Yarmouth, the aggregate tonnage which will amount to 8,450 tons.
