

The House took into Consideration the Bill for the Establishment of the Interest of Money.

Bill for promissory Notes.

Likewise, a Bill for giving like Remedy upon promissory Notes of Hand as is now used upon Bills of Exchange, and a Bill for determining Disputes by Arbitrations; which being read a 2d Time, were ordered to be committed, and were accordingly committed.

Bill for Arbitrations.

Reported agreed to.

Mr. Gerrish, from a Committee of the whole House, then reported, that the Committee had gone through the said Bills, and had agreed to the same.

And the same being read a third Time,

Sent to the Council.

Ordered, That the said Bills be engrossed, and sent up to his Majesty's Council.

A Bill.

His Majesty's Council sent down a Bill, intituled, An Act in Addition to an Act, intituled An Act relating to Treasons and Felonies.

Which being read, was ordered to lye upon the Table till To-morrow.

Three Bills returned by the Council agreed to.

The following Bills, which were sent up by the House, were returned by his Majesty's Council agreed to, viz. a Bill for determining Disputes by Arbitration; a Bill for giving like Remedy upon Promissory Notes of Hand as is now used upon Bills of Exchange, and a Bill for the Establishment of the Interest of Money;

Ordered, that the said Bills do pass, and be returned to his Majesty's Council.

Bill in Amendment to an Act respecting Writs.

Upon a Motion being made and seconded, Leave was given to Mr. Brenton, to bring in a Bill in Amendment of an Act, intituled, An Act prescribing the Form of Writs and the Manner of issuing the same, which he delivered in, and the same being read,