TESTIMONIALS.

Broughty Farty, war Dunder, Sept. 12, 1849.

'In regard to pronunciation, we feel perfectly satisfied that this review pieces that subject on a truer ground than any other work of the kind. 'The system of promouncing conforms to a pure and many tuste, adapted to the character of the language, and is far removed from all affectation and mere fashioti. * It is now, as we fully believe, in this revision, brought down to the true circumsances of the continuity in all respects. And we hope it will find its way rapidity, not only to the schools and the study, but to the parfor the counting room, and to the every day purposes of life,"—Hon. Wm. B. Cathoun, Dec., 1847.

ST. LEON AND CAXTON SPRINGS.

MONTREAL, June 3, 1650.

For the past twelve months I have frequently recommended the Waters of the St. Leun and Caxton Springs, and have formed a favorable opingon of their efficiency as aperients in various derangements and diseases. I have found both Waters well adapted, in the generality of eases, for accomplishing all the purposes of the ordinary eatine aperient draughts, over which their tonic and alternive ingredients give them, for continued use, a superiority.
