Our enterprising townsmap, Mr. R. G. Murphy, on Saturday evening the 14th, gave an oyster supper to a few of his friends at the Empire Hotel, Elgin. Although the Conservatives have a majority here, Mr. Murphy polled the largest vote of any of the candidates, and in appreciation of the fact a few of his intimate friends parted to the public as the mischievous correspondent of local news. He declares that that picture represents the office devil. Why do we not get a published statement from the proprietor of Gen Buell cheese factory respecting prices.

While our music teacher, Miss M. fortune to meet an intoxicated man fortune to meet an intoxicated man driving a double team. He kept two-thirds of the road and raised his whip to strike his horses while they were opposite her horse. This frightened Daisy, and she upset the cuttor, throwing Miss Chisbolm out. Her injuries were very slight, and the horse was caught a few rods from where the accident occurred.

Johnston, Elbe Mills; Wm. Neilson, Lyn; Fred L. Moore, Addison; Jas. B. Saunders, Athens; Raney Loucks, Frankville; N. E. Brown, New Dubinguies were very slight, and the horse was a fair attendance of the members of the Society. At 1 p. m. the directors met for the transaction.
