

BETWEEN SEASONS

Just a word about our store. It's clean. The entire stock is gone over at least once a month, much of it every week. That is why there are no bad odors. It's ventilated. That prevents the mixing of flavors, and the ore is as sweet Monday morning as Saturday night.

Our clerks are efficient, their knowledge of the goods we handle will help you in your shopping. Our delivery system is prompt, we haven't an airship or an automobile but we are doing our best to make the service perfect.

We believe that in getting things to eat it pays the customer to buy the best. We get them for you. Our prices are as low as good buying can make them.

We want your confidence, and so we won't sell you turnips for marmalade, nor chicory for coffee. We will tell you just what you are getting so far as we know, and we make it our business to know our grades.

H. MALCOLMSON,
GROGER.

Mr. Beers in his new sphere is demonstrating the highest fame of actors art, the glare of the lime light, use of make-up, or the make-up box do not enter into this, the profession. All hatched methods are discarded. He relies solely on his mimetic powers, ability of differentiating the characters he impersonates and his superb skill in pantomime, all of which gives to his performance a realism that renders his characters at once visible and lifelike. Herein lies the great charm of Mr. Beers' impersonations. Mr. Elwyn Barron, the London playwright and special writer for the American press, places Mr. Beers as head and shoulders above many who are ranked with him as great. At Brisco Opera House Nov. 6th.
