INTERNATIONAL BIBLE LESSON FOR TO-MORROW. kirst Quarterly Review.

Golden Text — And Jesus went about all Galilee 'teaching in their Synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness.—Matt. 4, 23.

To inferest a class review day ought to be something more than a rehearsal of the quarter's lessons. We all prefer fresh bread to stale, and few relish hush, or oold victuals. Suppose we take this course — have the lessons review us—boys and girls, teachers, officers, superintendents and pasters.

Take the two first lessons, Luke 2, 1-20, and Matt. 2, 1-12. No matter in what walk of life we find ourselves, from humble shepherd to the wise and wealthy, the question for us is—have we been led of God to wise and yearth, the duester for Josus Christ and have we accepted Him as our personal, present and eternal Saviour King?

Lesson third, Luke 2, 40-52—Do we instruct and commit our children to God in private, and accompany them in public to the place of worship? If so, may we not expect them to be subject to us and to our God?

Lessons four and five, Mark 1, 1-11, Matt. 4, 1-11—Are we trusting in baptism with or in water, or outward ordinances, and neglecting that holy spiritual ancinting from God, in which He acknowledges us as sons; without this, when tempted by the devil, we are surely overcome.

devil, we are surely overcome.

Lesson six, Luke 5, 1-11—Have we been called into the service of Jesus Christ, and are we ready as His disciples to be co-workers with Him? Lesson seven, Mark 1, 21-34—When Jesson seven seven Lesson nine, Matt. 5, 1-16—Are these blessed beatitudes by our Lord my personal experiences?

Lesson ten, Matt. 5, 3-48—Is my tongue, temper and life, under the control of this wonderful love spoken of in verses 44 and 45?

This quarter's lessons are lost to lesson seven, Mark 1, 21-34—When I enter the synagogue may I not be the man with the unclean spirit, or withcred hand?

WIFE'S ADVICE

Dodd's Dyspepsia Yablets Cured the Stomach Trouble that Confined Henry A. Coles to His Bed. One of the unpleasant features Indigestion and Dyspepsia is that it always keeps getting worse. Take the case of Henry A. Coles, of St. Mary's Raver, Guysboro Co., N. S.

He says:

He says:

"I had Stomach Trouble for about five years more or less, and at last I was taken to my bed and the doctor called in. He did me no good. I was suffering a great deal and did not know what to do."

Everyone must admit Mr. Coles was in a bad way. But that's what Indigestion leads to if you neglect it. But if Mr. Coles did not know what to do, his wife did. She said, "Try Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets," Like a wise man he took his wife's advice, and of the result he says:

"I took seven boxes, and I have not felt' any of the trouble since. I heartily recommend Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets to any sufferer from Stomach Trouble. They cured me."
