

Items Of Local Interest

Mrs. F. L. Morgan, of Newton Centre, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Vaughn.

Mrs. F. B. Rennie, of Edmonton, Alta., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Shaw.

Mrs. MacGowan, of St. John, N. B., is visiting in town at the home of her sister, Mrs. B. D. Lingley.

Watch, clock and jewelry repairing done by Fred G. Herbin, Herbin Block. Expert workmanship at moderate prices.

President and Mrs. Patterson entertained very pleasantly the members of the Senior class of Acadia on Friday evening last.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bleakney were at Salisbury, N. B., this week, attending the funeral of the former's grand-mother, particulars of whose death appears elsewhere in this paper.

Miss Maud Baker, who recently returned from a stay of three weeks at the Infirmary, Halifax, where she underwent a serious operation, is now able to be around town again and her friends wish her a complete recovery to her former health.

Mrs. Orpin, of Cambridge, who has been spending the winter at Wolfville at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. P. Benjamin, returned home on Sunday last. Mrs. Orpin is now ninety-nine and a half years of age, and although in somewhat feeble health promises to reach her hundredth birthday. Her daughter Mrs. Huestis, accompanied her home.

Orpheus Lodge, No. 92, I. O. O. F., celebrated the 104th anniversary of the Order on Sunday morning last by attending service at St. John's Church. About sixty members of the Order marched from the Lodge Room at 10.30 accompanied by the Wolfville Band and together with the congregation gathered, taxed the seating capacity of the church to the limit. The Rev. R. F. Dixon delivered the address. F. C. Bishop gave a well-rendered solo during the service.

The opening of "The Little Shop" at the corner of Main street and Linden avenue on Monday afternoon caused more than a flutter among the feminine population of Wolfville. There was a general turn out of the fair sex to inspect the pretty things in the way of ladies' apparel displayed, and the proprietors found their stock much admired and eagerly sought after. This institution bids fair to continue to be a favorite place of resort and is pronounced by patrons as a real addition to the attractions of the town.

What Is Upstairs?

There may be something interesting—a long lost friend who owes you money and wants to be friends again, or, for instance—

A Little Shop with lip sticks in it and hair nets and kiddies' dresses and nighties and a shirt waist box—and an Airdele pup 'n' everything like that.

INSURANCE IS SECURITY

Stop and consider how much security you obtain from Insurance. Loss from fire—loss of income from accident or illness—loss of life from accident—loss from motor car accidents, collision, personal loss or injury to others. For a very small investment you get protection from all this.

Let us explain these or other classes of Insurance.
