LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

HON. JOHN YU has returned home from England.

Mr. J. C. FLEMING will lecture on the "Pathways to Fame," in St. Patrick's Hall, next Wednesday.

A morning race is advertised to take place on the Hillsborough race, on Monday next, 31st inst.

Dr. CHAS. M. P. P., was so far recovered from his illness as to be in his place in the House last Thursday.

The Firmen of Charlottetown intend having a torchlight procession and concert some time next month.

The collection in the Cathedral on St. Patrick's Day for St. Vincent de Paul Society amounted to eighty seven dollars.

A correspondent from Mount Stewart speaks in glowing terms of the lecture lately delivered there by Professor Fletcher.

The Island Printer for March surpasses the previous numbers in the amount of valuable and interesting information it contains.

The 25th of March having been the Day of Annunciation, was observed as a holiday by Catholics. There were services at the Cathedral.

Mr. JOHN HENRY, of Summerside, purchased the trotting station, "St. William Valley," on Monday last for seven hundred and thirty-five dollars.

The residents of Killarney Cape have petitioned the Government for a Post Office, to which, from their numbers and situation, they are certainly entitled.

The Moncton Telegraph says that Mr. Tim. Duggan, late of Charlottetown, and still later of Moncton, has vanished from the latter place leaving behind him many friends more anxious than affectionate.

H. PACE WILSON'S Dramatic Company is now performing in the Maritime Provinces. Having had such a successful season last year, Mr. Wilson will no doubt visit the Island on occasion of his next tour.

Next part of the Advertiser's editorial staff that resides in this city is a proof of the fact that the staff is not without its share of talent. The staff is not without its share of talent.

At a meeting of the creditors of the Bank of P. E. Island, held in this city on Saturday last, a resolution was passed that Mr. Patrick Blake, M. P. E., be sent to New York to represent the bank to the Government. Mr. Blake left for Ottawa yesterday afternoon.

The lack of accommodation at the Cape is the subject of general remark. Twelve passengers came across one day last week, among them a lady in delicate health, who suffered very much. There is something more required at the Cape than is to be had at present in the way of accommodation.

The Moncton Telegraph is kind enough to say of the Herald: "The Charlottetown Herald is a paper of the first class, and its editorial staff is one of the best in the Dominion." The Herald is a paper of the first class, and its editorial staff is one of the best in the Dominion.

We have received from the old Travellers Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., a copy of the official gazette of the British Empire, to be placed in New York Harbor. It is the only correct picture of that noble gift and faithfully represents to the eye the enormous statue, completed and in the midst of its magnificent surroundings.

The Summerside Boat says the resurged Patrol has "a general tone of success." This, we presume, is altogether apart from its political tone. But after all it may be said and nothing more. Most of us have heard of the tone of a piano, or the healthy tone given out by a person's lungs under the stethoscope, but the tone of success is something new.

DANIEL CARROLL was charged with highway robbery before the Stipendiary Magistrate on Saturday. Joseph McDonald, of Ingonish, charged Carroll with knocking him down and taking from him person the sum of $100, on the 19th of July, 1882. Carroll, who has been away in the States, returned some time ago. He was arrested last week for drunkenness, and the above offence was also brought against him. He was remanded until Saturday next.

On Monday evening, the 24th inst., Mr. James H. Reddin, of Charlottetown, delivered a lecture at the "Pathways to Fame" in St. Patrick's Hall. The audience was large and appreciative. The lecture, which was both interesting and instructive, was delivered in a clear, distinct voice, and was listened to throughout with the greatest attention. At its close a vote of thanks was moved by Mr. Henry Moore, and seconded by Rev. M. J. McMillan, which was acknowledged in suitable terms. The amount realized has been presented to the Building Committee of St. Catharines, in aid of the funds for the erection of the new church in that parish.

The Canadian-American, published at Minneapolis, Minnesota, devoted considerable of its space to Canadians who are so successfully taking the lead in all branches of business in Minnesota and Dakota. The Islanders on the list are: Mr. James E. Morrissey, of the firm of Morrissey Bros., who have a large machine shop and foundry at Crookston, Minn.; Mr. M. J. is a son of the late Edward Morrissey, of Charlottetown, and is well known both here and in Summerside, where he has done business for a number of years. Mr. Michael Hogan, son of Mr. James Hogan, of Owen Sound, Ont., has been engaged as book-keeper and draughtsman for the past two years in the real estate office of Moore & Bennett, Bank Centre, Minnesota, and is doing well; Capt. N. J. Hogan, also of Morrissey, is one of the representative men of Spring Hill, Stevens County, Minn. He left here forty years ago for New York City, out of which port he sailed for thirty years. He has been four times around the globe, eight times half way around, has doubled Cape Horn over twenty-five times, and was one of the sufferers from the deprivations of the Alabama during the civil war. He has been living in Minnesota about ten years, and has purchased and cultivated over four hundred acres of land. Although all those many years away from "home," the Captain still retains a warm spot for his "sug' little, tight little Island."
