

DISTRICT NEWS

WETASKIWIN.

Bulletin News Service. Miss Brown of the Edmonton public school teaching staff is in the city, the guest of Mrs. J. E. Hoag.

John Irwin of the Calgary Milling Co. passed through the city today and was receiving acquaintances.

J. Olson was in from Bawf on Wednesday on business.

The usual good luck followed the Wetaskiwin baseball game to Leduc on Wednesday evening.

The attention of the government has been drawn to the condition of some of the roads around Wetaskiwin and the district of public works has set aside $2,500 for the completion and improvement of the Pigeon Lake main road.

This road already extends to the lake a distance of 25 miles. Two years ago the road was fairly good, condition but owing to the heavy lumber traffic over it last spring during the wet season it was badly cut up necessitating some considerable work on the portion from Brock Lake to Pigeon Lake.

The speech also contained an appeal to the Independent Democrat, on the grounds that the Republican party had improved the waterways, is building the Panama canal, started the movement for the redemption of the public debt, and the conservation of the forests and water resources, and was making many other steps for the development of the south.

There is a great deal of disgust among canny managers that break in the price agreement should have occurred at this late date in the season. As but few fish are coming in now and the end of the season is near, it is possible that further increases in price may be made.

It is certain, however, that no price advance will be held by any canner for as long as a move in that direction is discovered all competitors will meet the highest figure quoted.

Alcohol was not a prevention of cold, and a lot of rum to our sailors were not only of little use but actually pernicious.

The various party and speakers in the discussion agreed that alcohol was not a prevention of cold, and a lot of rum to our sailors were not only of little use but actually pernicious.

Dr. James Kingston Fowler, dean of the faculty of medicine in the University of London, and president of the Medical Society of London, in the course of an address on the subject of "Medicine," said he looked to a more general use of sanatoria for a variety of affections other than tuberculosis.

As the advantages of an open-air life, combined with careful medical supervision, because better known," said Dr. Fowler "the sea voyage, which so often means life in a windy passage on deck and a stuffy cabin below, and the hotel at a health resort on the Continent, where influenza, perhaps, is rife, will be replaced by sanatoria."

OPPOSITION TO HUGHES HALTED

New York State Governor Is Endorsed For Second Term By Roosevelt.

New York, Aug. 21.—The announcement was made at the Republican national headquarters today by James W. Sherman, Republican candidate for vice-president, confirming the report from Oyster Bay that President Roosevelt's conference with the party leaders at Sagamore Hill yesterday had developed that the political exigencies demand the re-nomination of Governor Hughes for a second term.

Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock was present when Mr. Sherman stated the result of the conference and he assented to all the vice-presidential nominees. The statement made today unquestionably will put an end to the organization of opposition to the candidacy of Governor Hughes.

Man, Mr. Havel, Mr. Tait, Mr. Sherman, Mr. Hitchcock and several New York members of congress and other state leaders for Mr. Hughes, it is not believed possible that the fight against the nomination of Mr. Hughes can gain any headway. In fact the political leaders are now predicting that no other name will be presented to the convention.

PRICE WAR ON THE FRASER. 30 Cents Paid by Chinese and Further Advance Expected.

Stevenson, August 21.—A price war which threatens the financial arrangements of the salmon canners on the Fraser river during the tail-end of the season broke out at Stevenson this morning, a Chinese canner having jumped the price of sockeyes from 20 to 30 cents. The news of the advance had not sooner spread than the associated canners and their agents hurried consultations over the telephone line between here and Vancouver with the result that instructions were given by all canneries that the advance should be met.

There is a great deal of disgust among canny managers that break in the price agreement should have occurred at this late date in the season. As but few fish are coming in now and the end of the season is near, it is possible that further increases in price may be made.

It is certain, however, that no price advance will be held by any canner for as long as a move in that direction is discovered all competitors will meet the highest figure quoted.

MEDICAL CONGRESS INDICTS ROAST BEEF

Is Not the Solid Foundation of the British Army—Fish and Cheese Are Boomed—Alcohol Regarded as Pernicious in Some Cases.

London, Aug. 20.—The roast beef of England received a severe blow at a sectional meeting of the British Medical Congress, at Sheffield, yesterday.

Lieut.-Col. Davies, professor of the Royal Army Medical College; Major R. J. Blackburn, Major G. S. Crawford, both of the British Medical Corps, and Capt. W. Sinclair, R.A.M.C. (military), were per read in the section devoted to the health of the soldier.

Major Blackburn said that experiments had rather upset the popular notion that roast beef was the solid foundation of the British army.

How "Tommy Atkins" might deal with such a change in his diet as that suggested, finally, by Lieut.-Col. Fotheringham, of Canada, who spoke out of the fulness of his own experience.

Waste of Cheese. Lieut.-Col. Fotheringham agreed that cheese had an extreme value as an article of food. An attempt had been made to introduce it into the rations of the British soldier, but it was maintained that it was not a necessary item and that the soldier's ration should provide for a better supply of fish, while a bread and butter diet was quite sufficient for the ordinary soldier.

Buckets of cold water were also poured over the same section by Major Fotheringham, who, speaking from a long experience in India, said he had proved that non-drinkers were far more healthy than those who drank alcohol.

Major Blackburn, after pointing out that he believed in the value of alcohol, said he had learned to abstain from it, but even in the hospitals it was taken up on scientific grounds, could rarely be justified.

Sailors' and Run. Alcohol was not a prevention of cold, and a lot of rum to our sailors were not only of little use but actually pernicious.

EFFECT OF FROST INCONSIDERABLE

Wave Was Unseen And Only Certain Districts Suffered—None in Alberta Yesterday.

Winnipeg, Aug. 22.—Severe frosts last night visited scattered districts in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, while in most parts of the two provinces the thermometer ranged around the freezing point. The damage to the crop will be mitigated by the heavy winds blowing and today there is a change to milder weather. The frost wave was very uneven in its distribution, three degrees being reported at Brandon, but the famous Portage Plains apparently escaped the lowest record, which was seven degrees at Kamusack, which will play havoc with the wheat and oats in that district.

Four degrees of frost were recorded at Birtle and one degree at Virton and Pison, while at Regina and Marysville, the freezing point was touched as was the case at many other points. No frost is reported in Alberta.

The damage on late, low-lying land, where the wheat crop has still ten days to a fortnight to go before harvest must be considerable and will also suffer in the affected districts. At most points, however, the frost wave must be a considerable and its effect on the total wheat crop is therefore inconsiderable.
