London, Aug. 6.—Police magistrate Grey imposed a sentence of four months in jail and a fine of $50 on Mrs. Henrietta Tait, who was convicted of having cruelly beaten her twelve year old niece, Loretta Morris. She admitted that she compelled the child to strip and had inflicted twenty lashes on her back with a rawhide whip. If Mrs. Tait does not pay the fine she will be compelled to go to jail for an additional month.

Asquith is Firm.

Special to Evening Telegram.
 LONDON, To-day.
 Premier Asquith gave cold comfort yesterday to Mrs. M. Fawcett, President of the National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies, and her non-militant colleagues, when they interviewed him in his official residence and urged him to bring on a Government measure bestowing the franchise on women. The Premier complimented the visitors on the constitutional methods which he said were such a welcome contrast to the criminal proceedings of the militant suffragettes. He however frankly declared he had undergone no change of heart in the matter, and there could be no question of the Government undertaking to carry out their desire during the present Parliament.

Cable News.

Special to Evening Telegram.
 LONDON, To-day.
 The Crown Steamship Company, owners of the steamer Crown of Cordova, has taken proceedings to arrest the steamer L. A. G. at a claim of $25,000 damages arising out of a recent collision off Cape Madeline.
 LONDON, To-day.
 Sylvia Pankhurst promises to lead Sunday's suffragette riot. The battle cry will be "On to Downing Street." She has issued notice, "I believe it is figurative sticks and stones from the East End and a general popular revolt that will win the fight for women as it did for men in the past."

Event of the Season.

The concert, last night, in aid of the C.L.B. Armoury, was a huge success, and Jack Rossley has every reason to be proud. Through the kindness of Capt. McLachlin and officers of H.M.S. Sirius, the concert party and band of the ship gave one of the best variety concerts witnessed in St. John's. The theatre was cleaned and decorated by hundreds of flags, and every seat taken, scores of people had to stand, and hundreds had to be refused admission. There were twenty-six turns and it would be unfair to pick out any one turn, as they were all splendid, and everyone did his best to please. The boys of the warship have endeared themselves to the people of St. John's by their kindness. Too much praise cannot be given. Jack Rossley for his kindness in helping out the Brigade. Col. Rendell, who was present, personally thanked Mr. Rossley and wishes his thanks conveyed to the ship's concert party and orchestra. Everybody was simply delighted with the show, which passed off without a hitch.

Obituary.

MRS. BERNY.
 The widow of the late Michael Berny, Eliza Repoff, passed to her eternal rest after reaching a good old age. Mrs. Berny was the last of the family of the late Colonel Repoff. To the last her faculties were retained and she used to tell the stories of a generation which has almost passed away. She was of a most kindly disposition and charitably inclined. During her last illness she was attended by the Rev. Father O'Callaghan.

The Police Court.

Three drunks were discharged. A man for refusing to support his children, was ordered to give two shillings in £20 each, or go down for three months.
 The defendant in an assault case had to give bonds in $50 for his future good behavior.
 The case in which a man was charged with refusing to give his wife support, was postponed.

MINARD'S LINIMENT USED BY PHYSICIANS.

Mr. O'Regan's Narrow Escape.

Last night, Mr. Michael O'Regan, butcher, had a narrow escape from serious injury. He was driving counterclockwise and when near German date on the Topsall Road, his horse bolted and the vehicle, which Mr. O'Regan was in, careened. The occupant was thrown violently to the ground. He was badly cut about the hands and face, was very much shaken up and it is feared he is hurt internally. Dr. Mitchell, who was summoned by phone, responded hurriedly and attended to the victim. But for the presence of mind displayed by Mr. O'Regan, who protected his head with his hands in falling, he would have fared very much worse than he did. Last night Mr. O'Regan rested quietly and to-day is somewhat better.

Fishery North.

Passengers by the S.S. Prospero report the trap fishery practically closed to the north. Very little cod was taken out of the water this week in traps. In fact none at all. The fishery at Battle Harbor this season is a failure, there was not enough caught for the consumption of the fishermen. From Fogo south to St. John's the fishery on the whole is above an average catch. A good autumn's fishery is expected in White Bay. Several Treaty Shore vessels have arrived at Twillingate with good fares. Several have struck in at King's Cove and handliners there are expected to do well.

Asks for Car Fare in Vain.

New York, Aug. 6.—A young and well dressed man swung aboard a trolley car in Newark last evening and for a time sat in a rear seat, then got up and moved forward in the car where the wind swept in refreshingly through the open front door. He leaned forward, resting his arm on the back of the seat in front of him and then rested his forehead on his arm. The other hand he clasped against the side of his face. When the conductor, John Manning, approached to collect his fare the passenger gave him no heed. Manning called out, "Fare, please!" The man still remained motionless. Then Manning shook the man. The arm, released from the pressure of the passenger's head, suddenly flew out and struck the conductor full in the face.

Manning, indignant, reached for the seated man to eject him from the car, but the hand he put forward stopped short. For the head of the man in the seat was lolled queerly forward on his breast and Manning saw that his eyes were staring.

"Why, the man is dead!" said another passenger, and several women passengers, hearing it, became hysterical.

Dr. Geo. Marks said later the man was dead, and from a superficial examination thought heart disease had killed him.

Dr. Grenfell is expected in the city from St. Anthony next week.
