Mayor Gosling Elected By Majority of 464.

Mayor Gosling and Mr. Kelly Thank Citizens for Their Support.

At 8.50 o'clock Saturday night' the curtain rang down on the last scene in the municipal contest, when Returning Officer Doyle counted the last ballot, and declared William G. Gosling, Esq., duly elected by the people of St. John's to be their Mayor for a term of two years. Mr. Gosling, in a brief speech thanked the citizens, all classes included, for their loyal support in electing him to the high office of Mayor of their city. "Should I," said Mr. Gosling, "have been asked of Mayor of their city. "Should I," said Mr. Gosling, "have been asked three years ago to enter myself as a candidate for municipal honors, I would have unhesitatingly declined, However, after two years of hard work in the best interest of our city and with that work yet unfinished, I decembed it my duty to the people to

In common with his compatriots the Telegram takes occasion to extend a warm and cordial welcome to Hon. Sir Edgar R. Bowring, principal and with that work yet unfinished, I deemed it my duty to the people to offer myself as a condidate for Mayor." The contest which closed on Thursday night has been a clean one, well fought and well won. Mr. Kelly," said Mr. Gosling, "is a gentleman I have the greatest respect for; we shook hands and will always be the best of friends." The Mayor again thanked the people for their hearty support, and was answered by thunderous applause. Mr. W. A. O'D. Kelly then addressed the crowd, and congratulated Mr. Gosling on being chosen as Mayor of St. John's. "Though defeated," said Mr. Kelly, "I still have your interest at heart, and should I appeal to you two years from now I hope and trust I will be "I still have your interest at heart, and should I appeal to you two years from now I hope and trust I will be more favorably received. As a member of the Citizens' Committee I will have something to say about the new charter. The contest just closed has all through been clean, and any little differences that may have arisen are now cast aside. I take this opportunity of thanking you for supporting me, and especially my committee men who worked hard in an effort to place me at the head of the poll." Mr. Kelly was cheered to the echo by the large crowd.

"The Debt We Owe."

Everybody should subscribe to the Beigian Relief Fund by purchasing Subscription Tickets to the Royal Belgian Concerts, to be given in the Methodist College Hall, the 11th, 12th and 13th inst. By so doing we can show our sympathy, and give practical help to the brave Belgians, who sacrificed themselves and their homes to prevent the mad German rush to Paris. Their sacrifice saved Paris, and probably is having more effect to-day on the safety of the British Empire than we imagine: We owe the Belgians a great debt of gratitude.—advt.
