COMPARE WITH GERMAN METHODS.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY OF OCCUPATION, Tuesday.—(By the A. P.)—The British Army is rendering assistance to devastated and impoverished Northern France and Flanders. During November the Army furnished to the American Commission for Relief in Belgium, twenty million rations which were badly needed for quick distribution among the hungry people. This aid came at a time when the Commission was unable to get provisions through, speedily enough. Holland, British officers and soldiers are also giving largely from their own stores, and the British Army is providing great quantities of kerosene and candles for the homes and shops, otherwise darkness would prevail in most of the towns. A successor of different source, but equally valuable, is being afforded by transportation of the refugees.
