THE EVENING TELEGRAM, ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND, MARCH 5, 1919-2

WHAT ACOUT YOUR INCOME!

The elements comprising the body are constantly wearing out and must be renewed daily, else the outgo of strength exceeds the income.

will help the tired business man or woman keep pace with the wear and tear of life. Scott's nourishes the bedy, blood and nerves, and helps maintain an even balance of strength and energy. Safe-guard your in-come of strength with Scott's. Scott & Bewne, Tor

The Game-Keeper's Hut

CHAPTER XXII.

THE CARLIST UPRISING. "Wait!" echoes Mrs. Edward. "You seem to forget that we must reach St.

"What, then?" asks Edna, quietly. on the road, or in one of those dread-"He advises us to go back to Bilful wine shops kept by robbers and bao," replies the captain, quietly, and all sorts of dreadful people! We although he smiles as of old, there is must reach St. Sebastian to-nighta serious, not to say anxious, look and look at the horses! 'That horrihave the consideration, I think, to insist upon his throwing away that face from the sun and at the same time from the captain's dark eyes. nasty cigarette-" "Which are we to do?" she says, ap-"Nonsense!" snarls Edward; "they all smoke. I've told you so fifty pealing to the sufferers as a body. times to-day. He would only stare smoking; pray be patient!" sponds. "I think we had better follow his "Patient!" retorts Mrs. Edward. piteously and angrily. "Patient! sit- advice. It is awkward our missing ting in a broken-down thing like a the road-more awkward still that Brighton fly, in the middle of a dusty the Carlists should have made for road, with the sun pouring down on this route; the road to St. Sebastian one's face and turning one into a nig- will be lined with troops in another hour or so; and even supposing that ger. Who could be patient?"

Edward Sore jerks his head toward they would allow us to pass-which the other two ladies-silent, and cer- is doubtful-these quadrupeds of tainly patient, if miserable-for an- ours, which, for want of a suitable cognomen, I am fain to call horses. "Yes, it is all very well for Edna," are already knocked up. Yes, if you retorts Mrs. Edward, in a minor key. have no very great objection. I think she had done at any other halting "It was all her doings that we were we had better get back to Bilbao." "We all have the greatest possible brought to this dreadful pass-"" "I am very sorry," says Edna, in objection," says Edna, respectfully; "but I suppose it is the best thing to her musical voice.

"I don't doubt that, my dear Edna. do. How sorry I am; how guilty I grew pale—a sure sign of her weari-You couldn't be mortal and not feel feel! But for me," and she sighs, ning like remorse. To think "you would all be safe and comfortthat we were so comfortable at St. able at St. Jean!' Jean! What on earth put it into your "But for you we should have misshead to take this wild-goose chase I ed a very romantic adventure," recan't conceive. But there-there is sponds the captain; and he mounts to no use going over that again; we are the box, and gives the driver direcas much to blame as you are. We tions to turn back to the place from ought never to have started; we whence they have only that morning shouldn't if it hadn't been for Ed- started. The driver-good, honest man-says: "Si, senor-where you ward."

rilling to come into Spain "Did I-now I appeal to you, my The Best Cough Syrup ear Mrs. Weston-could I possibly Is Home-made magine that those horrid Carlists were on the road? Could I possibly Here's an easy way to save $2, and yet have the best cough remedy you aver tried. know that?

"Neither did either of the rest of s." retorts Edward. "They were us," retorts Edward. "They were miles away when we started, and we should have got clean out of their line of march if you hadn't stopped a whole day to buy lace shawls in Bib-bao." The dispute would have gone on for hours—for days—for weeks—perhaps, but that Capt. Morton was seen hur-rying away from the wine shop, and the two combatants desisted from battle to turn upon him with eager inquiries. "Well, what does he say? Can we

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough-usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splen-did for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma. Finex is a highly concentrated com-pound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments. The captain, leaning on the carriage door, looks not at husband or wife but at the calm, pale face in

Avoid disappointments. Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept any-thing else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont. "He says that we cannot possibly go on, that the road is bad ,and that the troops have taken possession of

"Not go on!" cried Mrs. More, sinking back on the torn and blister-she had lately become possessed of ed cushion, which emits a cloud of demon of unrest. Outwardly calm to dust as she falls against it. "Not go indifference, as we have seen her i Sebastian to-night. We can't sleep on?" the hot afternoon sun, on the glaring dusty Spanish road, inwardly she is dissatisfied and restless. Since the afternoon on which Capt Morton had played his little comedy ble man--really, Edward, you might about his eyes. Edna leans back and shades her

Mrs. More groans, Aunt Martha and laugh, and think we had gone sighs, Mr. More bites his nails, the mad if I were to ask him to leave of captain is the only one who re-have told if she had been asked. All she herself knows is that she cannot est-that she must get on. Arrived at St. Jean de Luz, after what Mrs. Edward piteously declared wild scamper across Europe. they thought that they had reached a spot that might prove a resting place fo > a time at least. Edna seemed more contented, more inclined to stay in the soft, pretty watering place, than ed, the old, restless, impatient look came, by fits and starts, into the delicious dreaminess of her eyes; she fort. But the officer was firm; he frowns-nobody can see him, you see -moodily at the sweating and strug gling horses, the driver smokes cigarette after cigarette with sweet and aggravating nonchalance, and the afternoon grows into evening, and be-From Eczema fore they reach Bilbao, the evening will have grown into night. "Can we not get fresh horses?" in quires the captain, as they halt for minute or two at an inn. "Fresh hor seconds. ses of any kind." and he shows good Seems too good to be true—but it is true, and we vouch for it.

English gold, which abroad, in Spain, especially, is a magic talisman. The landlord is bowed down with grief. Alas! he has not so much as four legs in his stable: the troops-Eczema, Bad Leg, Ring-worm, Salt always those rascals. the soldiery!-Rheum, Barber's Itch, Psoriasis, Open have taken-have requisitioned every-Sores and Itching Rashes and other skin troubles are caused by myriads of germs at work in the skin. Unthing, even the mule for transport less these germs are promptly destroved they rapidly multiply, gnaw-"If English milord could wait uning their way deep into the til to-morrow-or the next day!" and tissue. This is what causes that awful itch, and what seemed a mere rash may grow and develop into a this is the tale at every place along the road. All the horses have been loathsome and torturing skin disease with its years and years of misery. taken by the government troops. "If Don't take any chances! Destroy the germs at the beginning of the milord could only wait!" trouble with that soothing and cleans-ing wash, the D. D. D. Prescription ous as it appears, they must wait: for Eczema. If you have skin trouble of any kind, for when they get in sight of Bilbao, get a bottle of D. D. D. Prescription to-day. Sold Everywhere. oldiers ride up to the carriage and to-day.

Dried Fish.

Instant

Relief

You can stop that awful itch from czema and other skin troubles in two

Just a few drops of the simple, cool-ing wash, the D. D. D. Prescription for eczema, a new remedy that is attract-ing widespread attention and the itch stops instantly. The first bottle will

Although the development of the trade in dried fish has been retarded by a notable lack of demand, and fur-The carriage cannot be alther declines are reported in codfish of certain grades, and hake, there is The officer of the patrol was very a prevailing opinion in the trade that polite and courteous, and eloquently the market has reached its lowest level, and a reaction is imminent. With Lent close at hand, it may be expected that there will be an im-Edward provement in the movement of dried fish, and it is notable that some of the weak spots in the West Indies are now recovering from the recent slumps in prices. The condition of and that we demand admittance to the soft cured codfish market in Newfoundland, although continuing weak, gives promise of betterment as affairs approach adjustment in Europe markets and the demand opens. As most factors in the New York market are possessed of supplies which were purchased at high prices, there is a he proceeded to make one more ef- reluctance to sell at low prices in many quarters. Those who have been underselling the market have apparhad received his orders that no one ently taken a different view of the ness, as her fellow travelers knew; excepting the military was to pass situation, since the next few weeks did not sleep at night, evidently want-the barriers, and milords and miladies promise better business. Porto Rico odfish.

It may seem a bit early, but the Buying Season has started somewhat earlier of late years. and this year, we understand, we are going to have opened the following goods during the past few days:

LADIES' SHOWER & COVERT COATS in the Newest and Smartest Trench Styles.

These are priced from $12.00 each upwards. Those that we were advertising a week ago are practically all sold. Styles plus value was what did it.

Children's and Misses' SHOWER and COVERT COATS.

We have only received a few of these, as well as a few Ladies' and Misses' Mackintoshes.

We have received fairly large assortments of Ladies' Costume Skirts in Navys, Blacks and Tweeds. Ladies' Moire Underskirts

in Black and Coloured. Ladies' Blouses in Blacks, Whites & Col'd. Ladies' and Misses' Straw Hats. Millinery Flowers and Ornaments. Black Veilings in Plain & Fancy Makes.

THE FOUNDATION OF ALL DRESS is a Good Corset. The Best Corset is the "W. B." CORSET.

We have just received a further shipment of these famous and popular Corsets.

SOAPS

All Kinds. All Sizes.

| Demands German Me Marine. | |
|--|---|
| AL PROFITS. LONDON, March 4. dence to-day before the nquiring into the British A. L. Dickenson, Finan- to the Coal Controller, profits of the owners months up to September ted £39,000,000, equal to ton on the output, of ns, the value of which at was 238, 10d. This was | the national assemi strikes outside Berli the Essen district sh ers' strike has been but that it has not large proportions. manding the shorten by z half hour. Allernburg Coal Dis Germany have voted to-day. This is beli beginning of the end ing strike in the Hu |
| th an average period in for the same period in s ended in 1913, on an 000,000 tons equal to 1s. alue of which at the pit 9d. | AMALGAMATION OTT Without a dissen stockholders of the l at a meeting this a |
| EB BIG GAME. BERLIN, March 3. Spartacan leaders de- beration of all political in the establishment of ary tribunal to try the sof the war, the Hohen- id Marshal Hindenburg, endorff, Admiral Tirpitz ors to the revolution, net, Chancellor Scheide- ustav Noske, the Minister The immeidate conclu- with Russia and the es- of diplomatic relations sian Soviet republic are anded. A strike at this prove catastrophic in its would be inimical to the sion of peace and the | endorsed the merger Ottawa with the Ban While the meeting in its finding, it was these present that to Ottawa should not the banks are amal WHY NEGOTIA WAR The failure of the tiations between to Ukrainians in Galich here to the great con- ternal situation in one party or no lead trol the situation, a that no one is in a tiate with finality. the Ukraine of Chin from Moscow is said |
| arcHANGEL, March 3. | the situation. REACHING A The peace confer- |

Barons' Pr

against the Allied and on the front 160 on Belgian affairs f Archangel, according day reached a decis eived at headquarters vision of the treat ing. The Allies have finally brought pea village of Vevsievland and Belgium the commission or T STIPULATION. he submitted late council ENHAGEN, March 4. has demanded the PERSHING very of the German WASHI without regard to the d supplies, according ning, made publi from Weimar where)ent, charges that riticism against grew out of trial KES NO CHANCES. March 4 rned at noon to-day The message said Republican filibuster that killed a long list began about the leasures. Just before ot begruter President Wilson auhaving been tice to the Republiin grade, and attempt to force an enlisted man. session had failed, Bidrsall threate shaken in his deterthat he would ge call the New Con-she wish to go-what is the destina lowed to pass. tion of her desire? She could not regretful, but he was immovable.

"Ask him what the devil he thinks dence! tell him that we are English,

the beastly little town." "Is it necessary to inform him

so many words, of our nationality?" said the captain, growing sarcastic;

And he shrugged his shoulders

"That's right," growls Mr. More; please;" flicks his whip, and starts "I was waiting for you to bring it his slumbering specimens of equine back to me. You know that you architecture, and the clumsy vehicle were quite as willing to make the ex- rattles and rumbles on its dusty way. cursion as anyone, and backed Edna From Park Lane to St. Jean de up. Why, I was tired of hearing you Luz, in the Pyrenees, and Bilbao, in declare that you were bored to death, Spain, are rapid transitions, but Edand that St. Jean was the most awful na's transitions have been both rapid place in existence. You were quite and sudden; it would seem as though

And the Worst is Yet to Come-

0

0

ed to go on. Then one morning must, per bacco! lodge for the night secret desire found voice. at the inn, which, the officer declared, "What would they say to taking a they would find comfortable and few days' trip across the frontier in to Spain?" "It is only for one night," he added;

One of them, Capt. Morton, late of "the Carlists may not arrive, the the Carlist army, if he had been free gates will be open to-morrow, and all to express his opinion, would have will be well; but to pass you in tosaid decidedly, "No!" Of all places night, Santa Maria! it is not possihe cared least for his handsome face to be seen in, Spain was the one. But ing Gazette. Night was rapidly descending; what he only smiled, and murmured: "Yes, was to be done?

not at all a bad idea!" and waited for some one else to raise the objections. positively refused to leave the car-But no one seemed to have any to riage, she declared she would not do the trip. Mrs. More was anxious to so even now until the officer had sent buy a real Spanish lace mantilla, and in their cards and passports to the "California Syrup of Figs" best for so was silenced; Aunt Martha would commandant and procured a pass for have raised no objection to a journey to the moon, if Edna had wished to "I am afraid it is of very little use," take it, and Edward-miserable, illsaid the captain, who was not at all tempered and beginning to doubt the "I think it would be beteasibility of the captain's schemes, ter to take refuge in the inu for the didn't care a rap where they went, if night. He assures me that the Carthey weren't going back to England, lists are not likely to attack the which was the only place fit for an town.'

English gentleman to live in, etc., etc. Mrs. More groaned, and squeezed The captain did then murmur herself into the remotest corner. something about the war, and the (To be Continued.) chance of the Carlists coming across their path, but they all scorned the Wholesale indents promptly execu-ted at lowest cash prices for all Brit-ish and Continental goods, including: bao, heard rumors that the Carlists were approaching, but Mrs. More in-Books and Stationery, Boots, Shoes and Leather, sisted upon staying one day at least for a veil she had ordered, and when Chemicals and Druggists' Sundries. they started the next, their driver lost his way, owing to too much wine, and the horses broke down; reliable intelligence of the troops on the road, and the Carlists in the neighborhood, met them when they did at last get on the right route, and so it is brought about that they are starting to return

o Bilbao. It is not by any means a cheerful ride. Mrs. More, too exhausted, apparently, to wail aloud, wails half audibly under her veil, which is thick enough to make her intolerably hot, and yet not thick enough to save her complexion; Aunt Martha dozes THERIA. quoted at low prices still, but some of the more resourceful merchants are selling their fish in other and better markets. The situation in Nova Scotia is unchanged, and while there is a willingness to sell, holders of dried fish do not show any evidence of reducing prices. An improvement in the general situation is looked for as a natural reverse to the depression of while of variable quality, is tender stomach, liver, bowelstastes delicions.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on-castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them. With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides' are injured by them. If your child's stomach, liver bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Mil-children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Com-pany." Refuse any other kind with conterment China. Earthenware and Glassware, Cycles, Motor Cars and Accessories, contempt.

nan Munn, deceased.

Dept. of Col. Secretary, March 4th, 1919.

Drapery, Millinery and Picce Goods, Sample Cases from $50 upwards. Fancy Goods and Perfumery, Hardware, Machinery and Metal, Jewellery, Plate and Watches, Published by Authority. Photographic and Optical Goods, Provisions and Oilmen's Stores, His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to appoint Rev. J. D. Savin, P.P., Messrs. John Dunphy, etc., etc. Commission 2½ p.c. to 5 p.c. Trade Discounts allowed. Special Quotations on Demand. Consignments of Produce Sold on (Established 1314.) 25 Abchurch Lane, London, E.C. Cable Address: "Annuaire, Lon." William Wilson & Sons

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DIPH-

Gossage's Soaps for years have always given satisfaction to dealer and user, and will conthe past several months .-- N. Y. Fishtinue to do so in the future. Take Nothing But GOSSAGE'S.

New Price List on request. GEORGE M. BARR.

Fishermen, Buy Your Engine Now. Lathrop Marine Engines

for immediate delivery. Prices will be higher in the spring. We have a full lines of > STATIONARY ENGINES. SAW MILL MACHINERY. COOPERAGE MACHINERY. HEAD ROUNDERS, ETC., ETC.

A. H. MURRAY & CO.,

Denis O'Reilly, James McGrath (Ar-gentia), James J. Davis, Patrick Hunt (Marquise), James Murphy (Ship's Harbor), John Davis (Fox LUCKY ACCIDENTS. a measure than the introduction o General Grant used to contend that it was because his mother happened the penny post. The observer of the incident happened to be Rowland Hr.), James McCarthy, John Reddy (Red Island), to be the Roman Cathon one occasion to be short of butter that he eventually became President. Hill.

colic Board of Education for the Dis-trict of Argentia; Mr. W. A. McKay, that the lad heard read a letter con-Only a missing marriage certificate prevented the hod-carrier of Hugh to be a member of the Presbyterian Board of Education for the District cerning a possible vacancy at West Point. He applied, obtained the va-Miller establishing his claim to the Earldom of Crawford, just as the of Harbor Grace, in place of Mr. Norcancy, and from that time never lock-ed back. absence of a comma in a Bill which passed through Congress on one oc-

A simple incident observed in a lit-casion cost the American Government tle country tavern resulted in no less a million dollars!

