MONTREAL WHOLESALE TRADE.—The drygoods trade has assumed a much more cheerful aspect this week, being the first of the fall trade. There were a very few buyers in the market last week, but a number arrived on Saturday, and others are constantly coming in, so that the importers and wholesale houses are rather busy. The disposition to purchase is also better than was expected; but the payments are, as a general thing, still sadly behind. This throws a heavy burden on our wholesale houses, who are more anxious for payment of former purchases than even to make fresh sales. The other branches of business are all more or less active.—Witness.

In a house in Richmond street, Toronto, two of a family are down with fever, and in a house in front five persons of a family are also down with a fever, and all from the frightfully fearful condition of the ground under the house. The mud and stagnant water is over a foot deep, and there is no doubt was the direct cause of the sickness.

The oil fever has broken out at Pleasantville, Pa., and the scenes of Pithole bid fair to be enacted over again. The town has added a couple of thousand to its population already, and is increasing daily. Lands have been sold there at $3,000 per acre. At the beginning, landowners required a royalty of one-eighth to one-fourth. Now a royalty of three-eighths to one-half, and a bonus of $300 to $500 per acre is readily obtained.

Another of those horrible scenes at the gallows, which are of too frequent occurrence in this country, occurred at Warwick court-house, Virginia, on Friday, when a negro was executed for the murder of a white man. After having made his last prayer and protested for the last time that he was innocent of the crime imputed to him, the drop fell, the rope broke, and the half-strangled wretch fell to the ground. He was speedily restored to consciousness, another rope procured, and the man was finally strangled to death.

The duel between Mr. Jecker and Mr. Olyano Barot, editor of the Liberte, of Paris, terminated in the latter receiving a bullet in the last button of his waistcoat, causing a severe contusion, but no wound. The ball was flattened on the button, and glancing off slipped into the waistcoat pocket, where it was found. Mr. Barot is evidently intended to die by other means than a pistol shot.

One of the pleasantest ways they have in Texas is to publish notices of political barbecues, warning persons of the opposite party that if they appear on the ground they will be instantly shot.

The Wesleyan Methodists talk of erecting a new church at Toronto, capable of accommodating four thousand persons. It is understood that the whole Criminal Code for the Dominion will be revised at the next sitting of Parliament.
