FUNNY:—The blant and whilom editor of the radical Standard, of this city, now of the Tory Hereld, of Guelph, make jokes occasionally. Here is his last. It is a brilliant effort. - Perhaps some of his contemporaries can see where the laugh comes in:—"What funny names Grit candidates have! Bane, in North Wentworth, is painfully suggestive of baneful influences upon the party. Frizzle, in East Hastings, is sufficiently comical without explanation; while Stripp, of Kent, outstrips them both, and leaves the party naked, without a rag of principle or strength! And all under such a blake leadership, as our Irish editor would say. Poor fellows, we hope that they won't take cold, while under canvass amidst so much inclemency."—Hamilton Times.

One Hundred and First Hoos Roasted Alive.—A fire in the pork and provision establishment of Jacob Deld, 139 and 140 Michigan street, and 82 and 84 West Market street, Buffalo, on Sunday last, completely gutted the building, a four story brick on Michigan street, and a three story brick building on West Market street. Loss about $75,000, partially insured. One policy for $25,000 is said to have expired at noon the same day. One hundred and fifty nogs in the upper story were roasted alive.
