At the police headquarters for several hours last evening was a little boy named Doyson Romily, a plump, flaxen-haired, 7-year-old with a story. His mother, Mrs. Romily, 510 Parliament Street, has two sons, one of whomis in the Industrial School. She is a widow, left in such circumstances that she must earn her daily bread. The ladged into all sorts of mischief on the streets. Yesterday Mrs. Romily before leaving home for work chained the boy up in the woodshed, and there he was found by Detective Watson, who at the request of the neighbors broke into the house. The boy did not seem to mind his strange captivity, and when taken away by the officer began to cryf for his mother. The case may not come to trial, but Mrs. Romily will be told not to repeat the process.

CYCLONE IN DAKOTA.

Several Lives Lost and Many Buildings

Minneapolis, Minn., July 22.—A special to the Tribune from Fargo, N. D., says: "A cyclone passed over the northern part of this county at 3 p.m. Seven persons were killed. Details are meager. The only thing learned is that the storm struck Bowen, Clifford and Galesburg, about twelve miles northwest of Hunter, in the southern part of the trail land, in the northern part of Cass county. I tore and twisted across the country, leveling buildings and destroying crops. Five persons were killed outright, and a man and his wife probably fatally injured near Clifford."

A special from Marshall, Minn., says: "A cyclone occurred near Ghent, seven miles west of here. Two persons were killed and several injured." MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 22. - A special

THE ODDFELLOWS.

Kingston, Ont., July 22.—The 21st session of the Grand Encampment of Ontario, I. O. O. F., opened this morning, the grand officers being escorted to the Coart House by Cantons Montreal, Oswego and Kingston. Mayor Drennan, on behalf of the eorporation, and R. F. Elliott, on behalf of the local encampment, extended a hearty welcome, to which Grand Patriarch Hornibrook replied. About 100 delegates were present.

Hornibrook replied. About 100 delegaces were present.

J. T. Hornibrook, the grand patriarch, presented the annual report, which says:

"After a lapse of sixteen years we are again privileged by a Divine Providence to assemble in annual convocation in this beautiful city. At the session in 1874 the Grand Scribe reported 25 encampments, with a combanable of 1.102; to day we have 61

The report of Mr. M. D. Dawson, the grand scribe, says: The past year this branch of the order has expended nearly the third of its entire revenue in relief. We have no desire, however, to boast of our own special charity, but to say that the order at large presents a record worthy of imitation.

Pulpit Comments on the Cyclone.
CHICAGO, July 23.—The Rev. Frank J. Probst discussed the Lake Pepin dissater in his sermon Sunday at the Westminster Presbyterian Church. The tornado which swept across Lake Cervais and then down the Mississippi to Lake City, destroying property and causing the death of over 100 persons, was, in his opinion, a direct judgment from God, sent to rebuke the sinfulness of the people in going upon a Sunday excursion, and intended as awarning to the rest of the world. "Last Sabbath," he said, "was a day full of horror. A disaster of a terrible nature swept down upon scores of individuals, who, in stead of following the law of God for the observance of the Sabbath, were engaged in doing their own pleasure, exercising their own peasure excursion across the lake. The tornado came howling and shrieking along, seized upon their craft and overwhelmed it in the deep water. The surroundings, so entirely Godless, were seemingly so secure, so safe. Then the storm came and showed their true helpless ness before this frightful judgment. Sabbath desceration always brings disasser. It is against God's law."

THE AMATEUR LEAGUE STANDING.

To the Sporting Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Sir.—As there has been considerable dispute between the baseball clubs of this city as to what games should count in the league, we would be much obliged if you would insert the following letter in explanation:
The Imperials played the Clippers (both clubs being fully organized) and defeated them 15 to 9. They then played them in Queen's Fark, the Clippers winning by a score of 7 to 4. The last game was arranged for to be played on the Frie's grounds, but the Clippers failing to appear the game was claimed by the Imperials, which the Clippers do not dony, and say they were perfectly right in doing so, as it was through the fault of their captain they did not play. This makes the three games, layed, the Imperials winning two of them. With regard to the St. Marys game, the Imperials and other clubs in the league say it cannot be counted, as the Imperials had their three games played with the Clippers before the game in St. Marys was played. Besides this, the Clippers had no game arranged with the Imperials before going to St. Marys (as stated, in Mr. Humpidge's letter of the 22nd inst.) The following is a correct standing of the clubs to date, the games played outside the city and with Struthers, Anderson & Co. not being in-BASEBALL.
