Peel Reformers Nominate J. Smith for

the Legislature

Ex-Premier Mercier will be 52 years old next Saturday, and a number of his friends propose te give him a banquet.

The apple crop in Tecumseh is very heavy. Toronto and Montreal buyers are picking up all choice fruit offered for sale. The Reformers of Peel have nominated J. Smith for the seat in the Local House for Peel, vacated by Mr. Chisholm, appointed registrar.

The council of the Provincial Land Surveyors' Association met Tuesday in Toronto and decided that the first examination under the council be held early in November.

William Chambers, aged 105, of Dawn Mills, a veteran of Waterloo, went to Sarnia on Tuesday to visit the tunnel, and was given a reception by some of the leading citizens.

According to the assessors' returns the land in Hamilton is valued at $10,549,532, and buildings at $11,159,970, the value of buildings over land being $609,438. The number of houses in the city is 9,831.

Le Monde, the Montreal Conservative organ, says the Government is playing into the hands of the Liberals by the continued persecution of ex-Premier Mercier by creating a sympathy for him among the people.

Kingston College for young ladies is an assured fact. The commodious residence of Hen. G. A. Kirkpatrick has been secured and $2,000 subscribed by citizens as a guarantee fund for the first year; a stock company to follow later.

The Pullman palace car people are doing pretty well these days. They earned a little over $10,000,000 last year, and, after paying dividends, running expenses, taxes and other little bills, had $3,250,389 left over for a rainy day.

The Bosten Commercial Bulletin says there is really a deal in progress which is very close to announcement, and which includes the Boston and Maine, the Vanderbilts, the New York and New England, and the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroads.

The GREAT STATE OF THE Court of Revision will have work enough on its hands shortly. Appeals have been entered against the assessment of no fewer than 30,000 citizens. Ald, G. S. Macdonald appealed on behalf of 5,540 people in old St. Matthew's ward in the east end; Ex-Ald Boustend appealed on behalf of 1,243 assessments in the sixth ward. Essides there are some 2,000 appeals from individual taxpayers.

Quite a number of 109,000 could be proved to the dedication ceremonies in connection with the World's Fair. The party leave by the C. P. R. at 3 o'clock, and will travel in the palace cars Pekin and Mattwae.

At a meeting of the board of the House of Industry to-day the funds were reported to be in anything but a flourishing condition. There is an overdraft of $3,037 and twas urged that the city should increase its annual grant, which remains the same as when the city was much smaller.
