MORE CAVALRY!

A Brigade Must Be Ready to Start for South Africa Soon.

London, Oct. 31.—The war office sent orders to Aldershot last (Wednesday) night, directing that a brigade of cavalry be prepared to start for South Africa about the middle of next month.

BULLER'S MESSAGE.

The National Review gives the essential terms of the "spatchcock" dispatch of Sir Redvers Buller to Gen. George White, when in command of the beleaguered British garrison at Ladysmith. According to this authority, the message ran as follows:

"I have been repulsed. You will burn your fingers and destroy all your ammunition. You will then make the best terms you can with the Boers after I have fortified myself on the Tugela."

AN EXPLANATION.

Gen. Buller, in the speech which led to his dismissal from the command of the first army corps, challenged the National Review to publish the completed dispatch, and to explain that he would then publish a certified copy of the original, and allow the public to judge the matter. The editor of the National Review now explains that he got the dispatch from a civilian who was in Ladysmith at the time, and who said there was nothing secret about it. He asserts also that he understands that both Gen. Buller and Gen. White have officially asked permission to publish the authorized version, and he cannot conceive why permission has been withheld.

The same informant, giving an alleged explanation of the fact that there was no co-operation between Gen. Buller and Gen. White during the battle of Colenso, says Gen. White was informed that the attack was fixed for Dec. 17, but Gen. Buller commenced the attack Dec. 15, to the dismay of Gen. White, who had not completed his preparations. The Morning Leader characterizes the National Review's version of Gen. Buller's dispatch to Sir George White as "imaginary and misleading."

CHILD WAS KILLED IN PARENTS' DUEL!

Husband and Wife Fought With Pistols—Little Two-Year-Old Girl the Victim.

Virginia City, Mont., Oct. 31.—Two-year-old Ethel Plumb was killed, Mrs. Plumb, the child's mother, was shot in the hip, and Mrs. Plumb's mother, Mrs. Parke, was shot in the shoulder during a fight with pistols between Plumb and his wife, who for some time have not lived happily together. Mrs. Plumb has recently been making her home with her mother. Plumb appeared there last night and the pistol fight followed. The child fell dead at the first shot from her father's pistol. The man, who is now in jail, escaped other injury than a powder-burned face. The women will recover.

TOO BIBLICAL.

Tess—Of course he wanted to kiss you?
Jess—Oh, yes; and I told him I wouldn't let him.
Tess—And did he realize that you meant what you said?
Jess—No, he didn't. I guess he never heard the verb "to let" used in the sense of "to hinder."

Adversity is the only true balance in which to weigh friends.

REFORMING OF POLITICS DIFFICULT.

A Post-Graduate Course Needed to Round Out a Man's Training.

George Ade Talks of the College Man's Ideas of Political and Social Reform—Obstacles in the Way.

Once upon a time a Member of the Graduating Class advanced his left foot and talked for fifteen minutes about "The College Man in Politics." Then all the other Seniors in various fresh-water Institutions had sprung the same scholarly discourse, including Gestures. But this Young Man thought he was breaking new ground. He had discovered the formula for a Post-graduate course in Politics. He had a large, snow-white Utopian Scheme for Turning the Rascals out and filling all the offices with pale Chaps who were Specs and talked grammatically.

To the Collegian, seated among his soft pillows and twanging the Banjo in the gloaming, this whole business of reforming the Universe is as simple as A, B, C.

The first thing to do is to Educate the Masses. After that induce Business Men to attend Primaries and take an interest in Ward Politics. Then fill all the Minor Offices with learned Gentlemen of unimpeachable Character, and there you are!

The Graduate delivered a good hard Roast on the respectable Stay-at-Homes.

He struck straight from the Shoulder at the Prominent Citizen who was so busy with his Income that he refused to get out and give his time and Money to the Glorious Work of Municipal Reform.

When he returned Home he told his Father all about his Plans for redeeming the City and State. "Chuck it!" Take that waiting for it!" said the Young Man. "I am away up on Tariff Reform. The Law of Supply and Demand is simply Nuts for my eyes shut, and can quote John Stuart Mill by the Yard. It is a Shame to smother these gilt-edged Talents in a Manufacturing Business. The University Man owes a certain Debt to Society."

"You bet he does," said the Old Gentleman, warmly. "And if he doesn't mind his P's and Q's, society will throw him down and choke him and take it away from him."

"You don't seem to bank very much on Unselfish Patriotism," said the Son. "You are the type of Commercial Cynic that I walked so hard in my march the attack Dec. 15, to the dismay of Gen. White, who had not completed his preparations. The Morning Leader characterizes the National Review's version of Gen. Buller's dispatch to Sir George White as 'imaginary and misleading.'"

"I rooted for one or two campaigns," replied the Father, "and when I wanted to get a Permit for a Switch-Track to the Factory, the Forces of Evil looked up my Record and immediately gave me the Boots, as it were. Fortunately I was acquainted with an Agent of Darkness, named Patsy, and Mr. Dinkie's head rises straight from his Collar. I regret to say that he is the Managing Editor of a Thirst Parlor, and a Crap Game upstairs and a Hope Lab laboratory in the Basement. Mr. Dinkie squared me with the Gang, and I got my Permit in a spirit of Gratitude I tipped him $500 for his Campaign Fund. Since then we have been Good Friends. He sees that our vested interests do not get the Short End of it at the Election Time, and then an X opposite his name on the Official Ballot. I would have preferred to get the Permit through the agency of our Sunday School superintendent. I regret to say, however, that he has no Dags, so I had to get next to someone who could enter the Goods. Perhaps you, with your wide knowledge of Political Economy and the Principles of Government can tell me of some other Scheme that I might have used. As you know, I am a Pillar of the Church and I do not use Tobacco in any form, therefore it Revolts me to be friends with a Rum-Seller. I can promise you and the Switch-Track of shut up Shop. To be sure, we might have stood out. We might have taken a tip from the College Officer and refused to compromise with the Practical Politicians. If we had done so, I have a large Oil Painting of our Competitors shipping in freely to protect us in our Rights."

Just one thing: pretences. They think, if it acts on dirt so strong-ly, it must hurt the clothes. Soap and rubbing act on dirt, and the fabric is rubbed away. PEARLINE loosens the dirt better than with little or no rubbing, and no injury.

"When the Masses are Educated such men as Fatty Dinkie, will not sit in the Council Chamber," said the Student.

"I thought of that at the time," said the Old Gentleman, "and I decided that we would have a wait. You see, I got that Permit via the Education of the Masses. We were in a Hurry to get the Plant working, and decided that we could not wait that long. I have a Hostler of today cannot Educate the Masses with one Hand and Meet Bills with the Other. But if you want to get into Politics, you must get that Permit via a lead-pipe combination and play both Ends against the Middle. Your Father can work the Church Vote and furnish the Coin. I will give you a lead-pipe to get into the Legislature. I'll keep you in the Legislature, Young Fellow, as long as your Precinct goes for me. Now, put your money in the Shoe and I'll take you out to meet the People that can do you some good. But before we start I want to show you one more at the start that you're against all this Civil Service Reform hanky-panky and Midnight-Civil Business, or both of us will get Murdered the first place we go into. Your motto from this Minute is, 'No Gas, No Water, No Police.' And if you want to get into the Legislature, make it Strong."

That Fall the brilliant son of the well-known Manufacturer was elected to the Legislature by a Spontaneous Uprising of the Common People.

Moral: It requires a Post-Graduate Course to round out a Man's Training.

The Boss of the Ward greeted him warmly. "Welcome to the Club," he said, and then he called up the House. "We are always glad to find a Money Guy, who wants to get into this Game. We will take care of you. You can keep the Swell Mugs and I'll line up the Hickeys. You tout me to the Willie Boozes and I'll keep you strong in the Boozes. You tout me to a lead-pipe combination and play both Ends against the Middle. Your Father can work the Church Vote and furnish the Coin. I will give you a lead-pipe to get into the Legislature. WASN'T SELF-CONCEIT

An Embarrassing Misunderstanding Caused by Vocal Cockyness.

Charles Whymper, the well-known engraver and animal painter, told the following anecdote a few years ago:

"I dined at Mr. So-and-So's, at Highgate, last night, and as a mark of honor his eldest daughter was assigned to me to take down to dinner, very nicely with her and Lady Blith-erington on the other side, until the ladies were on the eve of retiring to the drawing-room. I was talking about the beautiful scenery near the house, the views from the windows, the fine air, when Miss—— suddenly said:

"I think I get prettier every day—don't you?"

"What could she mean? I did not dare to answer her, so I said: 'I beg your pardon—what did you say?'"

"I said I think I get prettier every day."

"There was no mistaking her words, so I answered: 'Yes, indeed, you get prettier; and no wonder, in such fresh air, and——' Just then she caught her mother's eye, and with the other ladies she left the room. As she went out she looked over her shoulder with such a withering scorn in her eyes that I knew I had put my foot in it somehow. Then it flashed upon me that I had misunderstood her; she said was not a silly compliment to herself; the sentence really was: 'I think Highgate prettier every day.' Whymper's hair is quite gray now. —Chambers'.

NOT GETTING HER SHARE.

Ennisee had been doing some figuring on her slate. "do you know this country eats about 2,600,000 tons of sugar every year?"

"No, I don't know it," replied papa, taught by past experience to be cautious.

"Well, it is so. I saw it in a paper."

"Yes? What of it, dear?"

"Nothing, only I've been finding out how much every man, woman and child in the United States eats, on an average."

"It's about 66 pounds a year. I don't believe I eat half of that, and yet you make a fuss every time I want—"

"That'll do, child. I surrender. Here's a quarter. Go and get your box of candy." —Chicago Tribune.

Make a Test of the Kidneys.

Decide For Yourself by a Simple Experiment if You Have Kidney Disease.

Scores and hundreds of people who are complaining almost daily of backache, pains in the limbs, not unlike rheumatism, and stinging, scalding sensations when urinating, do not know that they are in reality suffering from kidney derangements. Gradually they become thinner and weaker, experience more or less puffiness under the eyes and swelling of the limbs, and feel chronic disease fixing itself upon the system.

It is not necessary for you to undergo an expensive examination to find out if the kidneys are diseased. You can make the examination for yourself. Take a clean glass vessel and allow some urine to stand in it for twenty-four hours. If at the end of that time there are deposits in the bottom of the vessel you can be certain that the kidneys are not in healthy working order. This test, accompanied by the symptoms referred to above, are indisputable evidence of kidney disease.

Mr. James Clark, Concession, Prince Edward Co., Ont., states:—"Eleven years ago I was taken with pains in my back, settling in my hips and extending up my spine. The pain was very severe and at times almost unendurable, and many days I was not able to do an hour's work. My weight was reduced from 150 to 160 pounds, and though I had consulted many first-class physicians and tried several advertised medicines I could get no relief.

"At this time my father-in-law told me to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and said he knew they would cure me. I secured one box, and great was my surprise when I began to feel better after using only one box. I continued their use until I had taken about four boxes, which made me a sound man and I also regained my usual weight, 190 pounds. I cannot say too much in favor of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills which have done so much for me. I have recommended them to a number of my friends and have never met with one case where they did not meet with good success. My daughter, Mrs. Charles Phillips, has also been cured of a severe stomach trouble by the use of these pills."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

There is no longer any question about the efficiency of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills as a prompt, thorough and lasting cure for every form of kidney disease. Their combined action on the kidneys and liver enables them to cure chronic and complicated diseases which cannot be touched by ordinary kidney medicines. You can depend on Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills every time. One pill a dose. 25 cents a box. At all dealers or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Revenge is like a mule—it works both ways.
