Berlin Kreuz Zeitung Says United States Is Under Moral Obligation to

Save the Boers From Subjugation by Britain.

London, Dec. 20 .- The correspondent of the London Times in Pretoria says the progress of the war is eminently satisfactory, but care should be taken not to imagine that more has been done than is actually the case, to avoid disappointments. der Commandant Kemp between Rus-Lebenburg is probably with Com-mandant Delarey, who has 400 men 40 miles northwest of Klerksdorp, and another 200 near Wolmaranstad.

IN THE EASTERN TRANSVAAL. In spite of the line of blockhouses and constabulary posts in the Eastern Transvaal, it is still possible for Boers to pass west. On Dec. 15, 150 Boers passed over the Wilge River, but they are being closely pursued, and will probably either be captured or driven out. Blockhouses do not keep the enemy out, unless built 600 yards apart, with barbed wire entanglements between. correspondent accounts about 500 Boers in the Orange River Colony, besides Dewet's tration, which is divided into two groups comprising four commandos.

WANTS AMERICA TO SAVE BOERS Berlin, Dec. 19.—A curious article has appeared in the Kreuz Zeitung, which, although it cannot be called even a semi-official newspaper, sometimes reflects government views. The article dwells on the alleged probability of American intervention in South Africa, remarks that President Roosevelt is not in harmony with the bulk of public sentiment, and adds:

1783 the union would not have been possible except through foreign interstatesmen in America it must be hoped that they soon will see that they are under a high moral obligation to intervene in South Africa, and that they are strong enough to do so effect-

COULD THREATEN CANADA. The article goes on to say that the United States occupies a unique position, being without powerful military rivals across her border; that she would need only to give orders to march on Canada to bring Great Britain to terms, and that if she took such a step she would win the sympathies of the Christian world.

The editor of the Kreuz Zeitung interweaves considerable talk in this article about corruption in high places in the United States and the dominance of plutocracy there; all of which he says would be forgiven her if she would only intervene in South Africa.

DR. KRAUSE COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

London, Dec. 19. — Dr. Krause, the former governor of Johannesburg, who is charged with high treason and having incited Cornelius Broeksma, the ex-public prosecutor of Johannesburg (who was executed Sept. 30), to murder John Douglas Foster, an English law-yer attached to Lord Roberts' staff, was formally committed for trial at the Bow street police court.

London, Dec. 19.-The Midlothian Liberal Association, of which both the late Mr. Gladstone and Lord Rosebery have been president, and which has frequently led Liberal evolutions, publishes a resolution which is regarded in some quarters as tantamount to an invitation to Sir Henry Campbell-Ban-It is hoped that before long the nerman to retire from the Liberal leared area in Western Transvaal leadership of the House of Commons. will reach as far as Mabalstand, but The resolution acknowledges the great there is a concentration of Boers un- services of Sir Henry, but in the next der Commandant Kemp between Russentenburg and Zeerust. disposal of the party. The Vienna correspondent of the London Times, says that since the days of Beaconsfield and Gladstone no speech of a British statesman has excited such keen interest as Rosebery's address at Chesterfield.

HARD TIMES IN GERMANY. The most conservative estimates place Germany's Christmas spendings at one-third less than a year ago, as a result of the economic crisis. Merchants declare that this is conclusive evidence that the hard times have affected both the masses and the classes. The curbs are lined with hawkers and venders, ranging from old men to mere babies. The merchants have drawn their recruits for holiday time largely from families whose regular means of breadwinning in shop and factory have

A FALSE WITNESS. Patrick A. McHugh, Nationalist M. P. for North Leith, is back in Ireland from his trip to Canada and the United States. Already he is trying to fill up the hearts of the Home Rulers with false hopes. Addressing a meeting at Cork, his first public utterance since his return, he said: "I never heard more enthusiastic cheers than those that were given in Canada for the gallant men against a handful of whom 000 British soldiers were fighting. McHugh's remark tried to convey the impression that the Canadians were in sympathy with the Boers. It might remarked that Mr. McHugh only a short time ago was released from jail after having served a term for intim-

I. B. S. CHRISTMAS CHEER. The Irish Benevolent Society will on Tuesday deliver Christmas cheer to the homes of hundreds of needy people throughout the city. Last year the society adopted the plan of delivering the Christmas goods to the houses of the poor instead of distributing it to all comers from a central point. The plan was found to work so well that it will be carried out again this year. Last year nearly 250 homes were supplied with good things. The names of those who will receive Christmas gifts are those only of really deserving persons, and they have been obtained from relief societies, churches and oth-
