End Is Evident in Fifth, But Frank Struggles On Until Worn Down.

San Francisco, June 19.-- Monte Attell knocked out Frankie Neil in the eighteenth round of what was to have been a 25-round contest at Jimmy Coffroth's Colma arena today. That the Attell family has it over Neil is skip 18 evident, inasmuch as Abe Attell, the featherweight champion, performed

Total135 the same trick twice. Both boys hall from San Francisco and there were many friends of both among the spectators. But at the end AT COVES SATURDAY of the fifth round it was clear that Attell would be the victor. In that period he had jabbed Neil in the face until his mouth and nose were streaming blood, and it appeared as if Frankie could not last another round. But he came up doggedly for period match of the Canadian Rifle after period and fought gamely through a losing battle until he finally weakened under a storm of blows afternoon, although a strong wind was and sank to the canvas unable to rise.

Neil Rallies in Sixth.

The following were the scores made: It was the rally made by Neil in the sixth round that brought his friends to their feet. Finding that he could 200 500 600 T'l not land on Attell by long-distance 33- 92 sparring, he bored stolidly in, catch-33- 92 ing blow after blow on the sides of 31- 92 his head, but always persisting in an 33-90 attempt to reach Attell's stomach. 33- 89 Monte followed the tactics of his bro-32 29-89 ther Abe in this battle and kept 29-86 sprinting away whenever it seemed 27-86 likely that he would get the worst of 31- 85 the mixing.

He sent 25 26-79 a solid left to the pit of Monte's stomach, which made Attell stagger and clinch. They wrestled around the ring for a brief moment, and in that time Attell recovered. From that time on Monte boxed more cautiously.
