AMUSEMENTS

"The Kiss Waltz."

The "Kiss Waltz" much heralded on account of its catchy music was presented before a good audience at the Grand last evening and the various numbers were well received. The strongest part of the play is its staging the costumes being of more than usual beauty. The music proved a disappointment to many, probably because they expected so much more.

Miss Valaska Suratt, the leading lady, did some clever dancing, but her work in this line was rather offset by the coarseness of some of her alleged comedy. Her singing was only fair, although the support she received from George Baldwin, a young man with a rich voice, was good.

Misses Louise Richmond and Miss Hattie Burks were a decidedly dainty pair of singers, and their work was much more pleasing to the audience than that of the leading lady. Miss Burks was particularly attractively gowned.

The cleverest part of the whole show was the comedy work of Harry McDonough and Miss Henry, who take the roles of a coachman and his wife, who through a legacy left by a prince for whom the coachman works, become suddenly wealthy and start out to capture a rich husband for their daughter.

Edward Lorraine, a baronet who stutters, played the role well.

Scotch Comedy Tomorrow.

The coming to this city at the Grand twice tomorrow, matinee and night, of the latest Graham Moffat Scotch comedy, "A Scrape of The Pen," will be an event of interest to the playgoers of this city. The play, which is being given here before the novelty of being given here before the company opens for its unlimited engagement at the Grand Theatre, New York, Sept. 25. This is according to the desires of Mr. Moffat, who stipulated to the Messrs. Weber and Fields, its American managers, that the latest should have its first hearings on American soil in the Dominion. "Bunty Pulls the Strings" was so successfully received in Canada that Mr. Moffat wanted "A Scrape of The Pen" tried in Canada, and the result was that the entire company, together with the scenery and costumes, were brought direct to Quebec.

"The New Barnmaid."

On Monday and Tuesday next at the Grand Opera House, Messrs. Alexander Loftus and John Lubbock will introduce to London audiences that record-breaking musical comedy, "The New Barnmaid," enacted entirely by a specially brought over "All-English" Company, and judged by the reports. "The New Barnmaid" should have a very successful career. The management make no vain glorious assertions in respect of the company, they merely state that they have secured the services of the best "All-English" company. "The New Barnmaid" has been played most successfully in English-speaking countries, and with the exception of North America, and holds the absolute record for continuous run. The play about a "Barnmaid," a wholesome fun from rise to fall of a town, and describes the fortunes of two brothers, William and George, who are members of the Olet's Bohemian Club, while William is a waiter thereat. How the two change places, and time passes in a tremendously funny. Seats now on sale.

The Bismarck Concert.

David Bismarck, the most eminent operatic and concert baritone that America has produced, a man of exceptional personality, intellect, and interpretive powers, and the man who has done more than any other for the advancement and encouragement of the American concert, and for the use of the English language in singing, will delight music-lovers with a song recital on Thursday, Sept. 26, at Grand Opera House. The Bismarck concert is under the local management of the First Methodist Church choir, and will be given in aid of the All-Star Artists' Series. Madame Nordica and Madame Mary Hallcock will provide the other two vocal numbers. Course tickets on sale now for the series.

Wandering's Secret.

How one man can last from year to year, never grow stale, always excite the greatest curiosity and deepest interest, is the marvel of the world, and the secret of G. R. Wendling, whose series of lectures in the Auditorium next week are creating considerable interest in his interest in the subject. He is one of the men who make public opinion, because his words are so strong, and his ideas are so original, and his simplicity of style from a master of the platform.

CROSS OR FEVERISH HALF-SICK CHILDREN

If Tongue Is Coated, Breath Bad,
Stomach Sour It Means a Torpid Liver and Clogged Bowels.

Mother! Don't scold your cross, peevish child! Look at the tongue! See if it is white, yellow and coated! If your child is listless, drooping, isn't sleeping well, is restless, doesn't eat heartily or is cross, irritable, out of sorts with everybody, stomach sour, feverish, breath bad, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, or is full of cold, it means that the little one's stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels are filled with poisons and foul, constipated waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing.

Give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, and in a few hours all the clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little waste-clogged bowels, and your child, sea, gripping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your child, and you are not giving entirely of luscious figs, and aromatics it cannot be harmful; besides they dearly love its delicious taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Company. This is the delicious, fast-acting, genuine, old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

CAR SHORTAGE

Consignees Pay Demurrage Rather Than Release the Rolling Stock.

[Canadian Press.]
Moos Jav, Sask., Sept. 19.—At a meeting of the Associated Boards of Trade of Western Canada, which started its ninth annual session here on Wednesday afternoon, General Superintendent Taylor, of the C. P. R. Company, in the course of a lengthy statement on the question of the car shortage in the west, laid the blame for the greater part of the congestion upon the consignees, who prefer to pay the $1 per day demurrage charges, rather than build or rent proper warehouses for their goods.

At one of the cities of the west, he said, there are at present 64 cars on hand, which have an average of 12 days per car. At another point there are 88 cars, which have been under load 1,122 days, an average of 13 days, and in another city there are 192 cars delayed, 2,461 days, or an average of 12 days.

REFUSED BURIAL

No One Will Take Responsibility in Guelph Case.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Guelph, Sept. 20.—Because no one will assume responsibility in the matter, the body of Hans Johnston, the Macedonian, who died as a result of injuries inflicted when he jumped off a hand-car backwards near Georgetown, has not yet been interred. The railway company, it is stated, has refused to do anything towards its burial, claiming that they did enough in making up a special train to bring the injured man to Guelph, where he died. The city authorities claim that as he does not belong to the city, he should not be interred at the expense of this municipality. The undertaker cannot see why he should pay for the burial out of his pocket, and there the matter rests at present, the body still being at the undertaker's after five days. The deceased had $10 in his pocket at the time, but the authorities claim that this must be sent to his wife in Roumania.

BRUCHESI FOR CANADA

Will Likely Be Created Canadian Cardinal Very Shortly.

Rome, Sept. 19.—It is learned from an authoritative source that the report of the creation of an American cardinal originated from the fact that the Pope intends to create a Canadian cardinal, and Canada was mistaken for the United States. The new Canadian cardinal, it is believed, will be Mr. Paul Bruchesi, the archbishop of Montreal, who will shortly visit Rome, accompanied by his brother, who is a member of a religious order.
