

Tuberculosis of the Bone Successfully Treated

HARRY R. WICKHAM

This young man, son of Fred T. Wickham, proprietor of the Semi-Ready Clothing Store, Windsor, Ontario, developed tuberculosis of the right knee joint, as the result of a fall, and his condition became so serious that no hope whatever was held out for his recovery. He heard about Nature's Creation through a friend, and as a result of the medicine, is enjoying perfect health today. He tells of his recovery in the following statement:

In September, 1910, I injured my right knee by falling in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium in Detroit. The injury resulted in white swelling, or what the doctors called the tuberculosis of the bone.

My knee steadily grew worse. The disease spread into the shin bone, and a large area of necrosis developed. My temperature ran from 99 degrees to 101, and I had night sweats very bad. My appetite became very poor, and I lost about twenty-five pounds in weight. (My normal weight was about 145 pounds.)

In July, 1911, two large ulcers appeared on the knee and one in the centre of the area of necrosis on the shin, and for about a month these ulcers discharged nearly a teacup full of pus each twenty-four hours.

I knew I could not live long in this condition, and on August 16th, having heard of the wonderful results obtained by different persons with Nature's Creation, I decided to try it as my only hope.

Soon I began to notice a wonderful improvement in my condition. Night sweats stopped during the first week, and I began to sleep fine. My appetite returned, and I began to gain rapidly in weight. The discharge from the ulcers kept getting less and less, and now they have been entirely healed for more than two years.

Wherever large groups of farmers were collected, either in the livestock building yesterday, they were sure to be gazing at the grand champions in their various classes.

John Lowe, of Middlebrook Farm, Elora, won the grand champion for Aberdeen Angus bulls with Black Abbot Prince. Out of nine entries, Mr. Lowe had four firsts, two seconds, and one third. He also won the junior prize and the calf prize. Mr. Lowe has built up a winning herd in Aberdeen Angus, starting with two individuals from the Pride of Aberdeen family and Queen Mother family.

James Bowman, of Guelph, won the senior prize, starting with two individuals from the Pride of Aberdeen family and Queen Mother family.

J. A. Watt, Elora, who won all the championships at Toronto, and who was a heavy winner in the west this summer in short horns, took first prize in graded herd, young herd and get of sire.

Female Championship. Fred Rowe, of Curries Corners, won the senior grand championship in Holstein bulls, with Prince Aberkern Merced. L. H. Lipsett, of Strathfordville, won the female championship with Madelon Duchess.

Wm. Stuart and Sons, of Campbellford, won the grand champion in the show of the Ayrshire bulls, with Springfield Cashier, while A. S. Turner, of Ryckmans Corners, had the champion cow.

E. H. Bull and Sons, Brampton, took the senior grand champion championship in Jerseys, with Sultans Raleigh and Brampton Patricia.

There were also two champions in the show of the Ayrshire cows, by Mrs. H. E. Mabey, of Spring St., Murrumbidgee, Tenn.

FARMERS BROKE ALL RECORDS AT WESTERN FAIR

London Exhibition Was Yesterday Visited By Huge Rural Crowds.

FIGURES ABOUT 40,000

Secretary Hunt Places Total Attendance at 35,000 to 40,000 People.

Yesterday, Farmers' Day, the attendance at the Western Fair, took another big jump, and Secretary A. M. Hunt estimates that at least 35,000 or 40,000 people passed the turnstiles during the day.

From early in the morning every train arriving in London brought a large contingent, and street cars after street cars ran out to the grounds, so packed that no stops were made to pick up passengers at intermediate points. A way through the crowds that thronged the Midway, the walks, the buildings, and the open spaces, as only Western Toronto, were represented, and the visitors found plenty to see and do.

Big Grandstand and Evening Performances drew immense crowds, and many had to be refused admittance to the stand. Every seat was sold. The grandstand acts have been increased again, and the fireworks were even better than on Monday and Tuesday, if that were possible.

Splendid Horse Compete. A part of both the grandstand and the afternoon and evening performances consisted of exhibitions of horse-jumping by the horses of the saddle and hunter class. In the afternoon some splendid animals competed in this event.

John Lowe, of Middlebrook Farm, Elora, won the grand champion for Aberdeen Angus bulls with Black Abbot Prince. Out of nine entries, Mr. Lowe had four firsts, two seconds, and one third. more than the others, and each making a specialty and mastering some end of the business. Everyone who is interested in harness or fine leather goods should make it a point to examine this exhibit.

In addition to the harness department many other lines of leather goods are handled, including trunks, suit cases, club bags, ladies' hand bags, purses, men's belts, etc.

James McCormick & Sons are located at 385 Talbot street, where any and all customers can be assured that they will receive a dollar's worth of satisfaction for every dollar spent.

At the place, McCormick & Sons, 385 Talbot street.

PERRIN'S BISCUITS. The D. S. Perrin Co. has provided a "Rest Tent" on society row and extends an invitation to the public to call and refresh themselves with a cheering cup of tea and tasty Perrin biscuits.

The Perrin Co. was unable this year to secure the necessary space to make the very handsome biscuit exhibit it desired. The firm was very much disappointed in this, as it was its wish to show its many customers and an appreciative public the hundreds of varieties of its products.

An invitation has been issued to its customers to call and inspect its new factory premises on Dundas street west. The Perrin Co. has now the use of the most modern and best equipped plant and candy factories in the Dominion of Canada. Every arrangement has been made to produce "Perrin Quality" with the greatest dispatch and according to the most advanced ideas.

D. S. Perrin & Co. announce that, like many other firms, they have not advanced food prices and will only do so when it is absolutely compelled, as it was increased cost of raw materials, to do it.

Every customer of this firm is particularly requested to make themselves known at the "Perrin Tent" on society row.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF FORESTERS. The Independent Order of Foresters, at the Western Fair, next to the main building, will be found in the first tent on society row, which is beautifully decorated with flowers and plants, and is one of the most attractive of the whole grounds. G. H. Merryfield, superintendent, and T. Ball, D.S.C.R., in charge and will welcome everybody who may give them a visit. This order is proud of its record for 1913, viz.:

Paid to Beneficiaries $2,494,023.37
Paid in Disability Benefits 136,561.04
Paid in Old Age Benefits 771,675.39
Paid in Sick and Funeral Benefits 313,994.24
Reserve Fund, Dec. 31, 1913 41,903,227.04
Reserve per $1,000 of insurance, per capita 195.98

The order is proud of its supreme chief ranger, in the person of E. G. Stevenson, the greatest fraternal insurance man of the day. He is a Canadian by birth and has the respect and confidence, not only of the membership, but of the whole world. The order affords a great opportunity for women, men and women, as well as all other classes. To protect wives and families against sickness and death, a small monthly payment will do the job. No child of a deceased Forester need be a stranger for a home. Over 300 orphan children are now being cared for by this order. They also have a free sanatorium for all members afflicted with tuberculosis. The rates of this order are correct, and 100 per cent sound. Join the order today.

EXETER MFG. COMPANY, LTD. The Exeter Manufacturing Company, Limited, of Exeter, Ontario, is at the Western Fair again this year and as usual is displaying a full and complete line of goods manufactured by it. Its space in the west wing of the machinery building has been the centre of attraction for all those interested in modern machinery, cement blocks, and cement tile machines. A complete line of road machinery is also on exhibition. The booth is in the hands of several salesmen who spare no pains to explain and demonstrate the uses of the various machines that are being shown. A line of bells is also being shown by the Exeter company at this year's fair. It has the only steel foundry in the Dominion of Canada. A complete line of church, farm and school bells is on exhibition.

SOMETHING NEW IN SOAP. The Keenleyside Oil Company has an exhibit at the Western Fair this year that is equalled by few and excelled by none. Its booth, which is just to the right of the two leading into the Palace Annex, presents a sight that has seldom before been seen at the Western Fair.

The Keenleyside Company is this year featuring its sanitary liquid soap and Matchless Powdered Ammonia. Liquid soap is the most sanitary soap on the market and is used almost exclusively by hotels, railroads, schools and public buildings of every description.

A large display of powdered ammonia, put up in cartons, is also attracting attention and has brought forth many favorable comments from the throngs that have gathered around the booth.

to hear the merits of the two articles, a demonstrator is in charge of the display and willingly dispenses any information in regard to this meritorious line of goods.

MIDDLESEX PUBLICITY ASSOCIATION. The proud position which Middlesex County occupies in agriculture is made more apparent at the fair, and this is due to the good work of the Middlesex Publicity Association, which already has established its reputation as a live organization.

A visitor passing along the south side of the agricultural building is deeply impressed with the splendid exhibit of fruits and vegetables which proclaim the virtues of Middlesex soil and labor. The wide variety of produce shown is striking evidence of the fact that the farmer seeking a market for his produce in this country adapted to almost any line of agricultural work to which his mind may incline, whether he may wish to engage in stock raising, stock breeding, poultry raising, fruit growing or gardening.

No pains have been spared to make the exhibit one of the finest displays seen at the Western Fair in recent years. The exhibit takes up the entire south wall in the south wing of the building, and shows that the fair has been taken to leave nothing that might in any way add to the attractiveness of the display.

Apples, plums, and sugar beets are seen in great abundance. The vegetables and fruits are arranged in orderly piles and rows, and speak well for the taste of those who arranged the exhibit.

Many remarks of a highly complimentary nature have been brought out by the way in which the Publicity Association has taken up the work this year, making the exhibition one that will long be remembered by all those who have seen it, as being the best in the history of the association.

MASON & RISCH PIANO CO. The expectations of the Mason & Risch Piano Company, Limited, have been fulfilled, and all eight of the salesmen, who have been in attendance at the booth of this popular piano company, have been kept busy attending to the many wants and inquiries that have been put to them by the eager crowds that have gathered to hear the merits of the Mason & Risch piano, expounded by men who are authorities in the piano world.

The $8 note Piano Grand is the thing to see at the Mason & Risch booth. This is the first Canadian fair at which one has been exhibited, and Mason & Risch are a Canadian firm to manufacture it. In appearance the instrument is not unlike the Baby Grand. It has piano action, mahogany finish case, and is of colonial design.

Another piano worthy of mention is the Louis XV type, with burled walnut satin finish case. There are also seven or eight regular style pianos, in mahogany and walnut finish, and a number of Victor Victorolas on display.

The piano booth is in charge of C. L. Gray, local manager. The downtown address of the firm is 248 Dundas street.

LOVE HARDWARE COMPANY. The Love Hardware Company, successor to the Young Hardware Company, has a very attractive booth and year at the fair. It has a mahogany building. It is featuring Pindley Brothers' stoves, and is the sole agent in the city of London for this popular range of stoves.

Several salesmen are kept busy, demonstrating the stoves, and they spare neither time nor effort to give those who are interested a good insight into the merits and worthy qualities of this admirable line of goods.

The model, which has been especially featured this year, is that known as the Universal, which is a limited edition, with a black and white design, and has brought forth many favorable comments from those who have inspected it. The City of London has adopted it for its trade mark.

The demonstrators, in charge of the booth, put some vigorous tests to metal of the quality of the pans and utensils made of. Pancakes are cooked on a griddle without grease, and are allowed to burn in a small pan without injury to it, and this is pointed out to the public to show that the utensils are practically harm proof. Mr. J. W. Morris, who is district manager for the Aluminum Specialty Company, has special offices at room 175 Dundas street.

All aluminum articles sold by this enterprising company are guaranteed for twenty-five years, for the metal used is 99 per cent pure.

FINE FRUIT EXHIBIT. The Middlesex County Fruit Growers Association has an exhibit this year at the Western Fair in the north end of the Agricultural building that ranks as one of the finest ever seen at Western Fair.

Fruit in great profusion is arranged in a solid bank extending from close to the floor to a point considerably over a man's head. The exhibit has been the centre of an admiring throng of people, many of whom were ignorant that such fruits could be raised in Ontario. On every hand words of praise are heard from those who have been instrumental in bringing about the exhibit.

It is the first year the association has exhibited at the fair and those in charge are more than pleased with the results that have thus far been obtained. The exhibit is composed of several varieties of apples, grapes, pears, plums and peaches.

CANADA OVERALL COMPANY. Well put together. Wear like leather. Sold all over over all. That's what they say about Bulldog Overalls, the product par excellence of the Canada Overall Company, which is on display in the machinery building. This company now has a fine new factory on Carling street, and is now supplying over 2,000 retail dealers throughout Ontario.

Bulldog Overalls are not popular without reason, and the reason is found in the fact that they are made of heavier denim and drills than most of the other brands. Nothing of a slipshod nature is tolerated in the Bulldog factory, and as a result the public have confidence in the quality of the goods. Every garment turned out being backed by a guarantee of a new garment for any overall that proves unsatisfactory.

FIRE TWO TORPEDOES. HARWICK, Eng., via London, Sept. 16.—11:55 p.m.—The submarine "E-9," which sunk the German cruiser Hela off Heligoland on Sunday morning, arrived here today, and was cheered by the crews of the warships as she entered the harbor.

The submarine fired two torpedoes at the Hela, one striking her amidships, and the other hitting her amidships. The cruiser immediately burst into flames. A number of German merchant ships which were in the vicinity went to the aid of the Hela, and it is believed that a majority of her crew were rescued. The Hela sank within an hour after being hit.

It is believed the cruiser was the Hela, the sinking of which by a submarine was officially reported from Berlin yesterday.

SKIN TROUBLE ON THE SCALP. Skin Dried and Cracked and Hair Fell Out—Cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Eczema is annoying and distressing at any time, but doubly so when it gets into the scalp and causes the hair to fall out. Here is a grateful letter from a lady who was cured by using Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mrs. Hector Currie, Tobermory, Ont., writes: "I am suffering from a disagreeable skin disease of the scalp by using Dr. Chase's Ointment. The trouble started with itching and pain in the scalp, the skin would get dry and crack and at times would bleed and was completely cured. The hair has grown again, and I am as well as I ever was. You are at liberty to use this letter, for I am glad to recommend so excellent a remedy."

Dr. Chase's Ointment has no rival as a cure for itching skin disease.

TO ANSWER KAISER AT END OF WAR. President Wilson Believes It Would Be Inconsistent to Judge at Present Time.

[Canadian Press.] WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—President Wilson today replied to Emperor William's protest that the Allies were using dum-dum bullets. The President's reply follows closely the statement he made today to the Belgian commission, protesting against alleged German atrocities. His reply to President Poincaré's message will follow the same lines. The text of the President's reply to Emperor William was as follows:

"I Am Honored." "I received Your Imperial Majesty's important communication of the seventh and have read it with gravest interest and concern. I am honored that you should have turned to me for an Imperial judgment as the representative of a people truly disinterested as respects the present war and truly desirous of knowing and accepting the truth."

"You will, I am sure, not expect me to say more. Presently I pray God, very soon, this war will be over. The day of accounting will then come, when I take it for granted the nations of Europe will assemble to pass judgment on the wrongs that have been committed, their consequences and the relative responsibility involved will be assessed."

A Day of Reckoning. "The nations of the world have fortunately, by agreement, made a plan for such a reckoning and settlement. What such a plan cannot compass, the opinion of mankind, the final arbiter of all such matters, will supply. It would be unwise, it would be premature, for a nation to assume a final judgment, it would even be inconsistent with the neutral position of any nation, which like this has no part in the contest to form or express a final judgment. I speak this frankly because I know you will expect and wish me to do so as one friend to another, and I feel sure that such a reservation of judgment until the end of the war, when all its conflicts can be seen in their entirety and their true relation, regarding those who are unable to meet their payments through lack of employment."

PEOPLE MAY NOT HAVE TO PAY OFF LOAN PRINCIPALS. Legislature Likely to Pass Retroactive Bill to Relieve Need.

[Canadian Press.] TORONTO, Sept. 16.—As the result of a conference between the Ontario Government and the executive committee of the Provincial Industrial Association, held today, it is likely that an announcement will be forthcoming that the Legislature will be asked to pass at its next session, a partial moratorium measure, deferring those in cases of hardship, payments of principal on account of mortgages now current.

It is the intention to make this legislation retroactive to the date of the commencement of the war, so that the announcement in the meantime will have the effect of relieving those who are unable to meet their payments through lack of employment.

PETROGRAD, Sept. 16.—By order of Grand Duke Nicholas, commander-in-chief of the Russian forces, the following public announcement, printed in nine of the principal languages of Austria, is being distributed in the Austrian districts captured by the Russians:

"The inhabitants of Austria-Hungary: 'The Government of Austria declared war against Russia because the great empire, ever faithful to its historical traditions, could not forsake its ally, Serbia, nor acknowledge its enslavement.'

"On entering the Austro-Hungarian territory, I declare in the name of the great emperor, that Russia, which shed its blood many times for the emancipation of nations from the foreign yoke, only seeks the rehabilitation of rights and justice."

"Russia also brings liberty and the realization of your national vows. For many centuries the Austro-Hungarian Government planned among you discord and enmity; for it knew that as a result of this strife its dominion over you would continue."

"On the contrary, my sole aim is not such and every man may grow and prosper, and keep at the same time the previous inheritance of language and faith of your fathers. Let every one of you, united to his brothers, live in peace and harmony with your neighbors, respecting their national rights. Being convinced that you will co-operate with all your strength to reach this end, I call upon you to welcome the Russian troops as faithful friends who are fighting for the realization of your greatest ambitions."

"In view of the statement circulated in the United States that Australian, New Zealand and Indian soldiers were passing through Canada in such numbers as to interfere with ordinary passenger traffic, G. M. Bosworth, vice-president of the C. P. R., states that it is absolutely untrue that Australian, New Zealand or Indian troops have passed through Canada in connection with the present war.
