READ YOUR CHARACTER

57TH YEAR. NO. 23198

-Just Today

How the Purse Votes. Vote Equal Rights. Vote Less Red Tape. Vote Somerville.

-EDITORIAL-

THE campaign in London is practically closed. The issues have been placed before the electors, and it is not the desire of The Advertiser, nor of the London Liberal organization, brought in.

The electors have before them three men, C. R. Somerville, Frank White and Arthur Mould. BALLOTING ENDS 5 P. M. The three parties have selected clean, honorable men as their City Clerk Baker Hopes To candidates.

The last appeal made for C. R. Somerville is on the principles for which he stands in this con-

To the woman who votes this elections. election means much. If she For a couple of weeks the candidactes controls the household purse she have held full sway, doing all the talkstrike for cheaper food. It is Now it is up to the people, and by not going to come until there is tonight at 5 o'clock they will have a government at Ottawa that adding of the figures will show the realizes its mission in life is to choices of the highest court in the land, consider the consumer as well as the people.

He stands against fining and voters. Prosecuting the small man who and accepting a at noon, the stream of voters being alpromissory note from million-most steady.

At the city hall there are two polls, and a good vote was being polled there cannot pay and accepting a at noon, the stream of voters being alpromissory note from million-most steady.

At the city hall there are two polls, and a good vote was being polled there.

Never lose confidence in yourself, no matter how black the skies look. And, most important of all, never do will be open for the confidence of will be open for the confidence of t than a political issue involved rapidly as possible. here. It was considered important an array of voters gathered. These ant enough to cause the Christian are people who left it to the last minute Guardian to refer to it in the to find out where they vote, or Guardian to refer to it in the to most scathing terms.

If you want greater sim- vote by being on the list. making the country stagger under the burden of debt—vote for out my old charge, inefficiency at the city hall," he declared.

C. R. Somerville, because he is

The polls close at 5 o'clock. Imlieve the overtaxed citizen. You returning officers rush their returns to have seen the burden of taxation City Clerk Baker.

There the returns will be compiled, and it is believed that by 9 o'clock the it is taking a levy of over $300 per year of actual cash from definitely. you make a variety of purchases n a store, you are paying for every family of five. Every time our goods, and, in addition, you are paying direct tribute in dollars and cents for the extravagance of your government at Ot-

If you want a tariff framed as in London it is toward Somerville.

Strike for what you want on Tuesday. Strike for a chance for the common people.

Strike for cheaper food.

Vote Somerville on Tuesday is the only way to accomplish these ends.

POSTOFFICE FORBIDS MAIL TO N. Y. PAPERS

An order contained in the Weekly Postoffice Bulletin reads as follows: "Copies of a weekly newspaper en-titled 'The Horseman,' 'Pink un,' pub-New York, N. Y., are being received in the Canadian mails, offering for sale racing tips supplied by the publishers of this publication. As the supplying f such information in Canada is illegal a fraud order is hereby issued against this paper."

The bulletin also contains the following for the public: "Remember that thousands of other people are mailing an unusual number of letters and parcels at this season, too, and if they all pile at this season, too, and if they all pile up together in a few days it is impos-sible to get everything delivered on time and somebody is bound to be dis-appointed. Mail early and see that your friends get your Christmas greetbefore the day's festivities are

ELEASE JOHN COLLINS

FROM CORK HOSPITAL Cork, Dec. 5 .- John Collins, brother of Michael Collins, a member of the Sinr Fein delegation in the Irish conference was released unconditionally from in-ternment Saturday. He had been con-fined to Spike Island, from which was recently removed to a military

PRICE. THREE CENTS

FACE RENEWAL OF WAR IN IRELAND

ELECTORS POLL London Is Certain to Rebuke Meighen PEACE PLANS CIVIC CONTEST Autocracy by Electing C. R. Somerville

that last-minute stories should be Constant Stream of Voters Moves To and From Polling Places.

Have Results Tabulated by 9 o'Clock.

Despite inclement weather a record vote is being polled today in the city controls the household purse sne ing and handing out their opinions can make use of the ballot to right and left.

consider the consumer as well as the producer. C. R. Somerville is pledged to that course.

If you are an advocate of the old theory of equal rights, you should vote for C. R. Somerville.

The people are wending their way to the people are wending their way to should vote for C. R. Somerville. He stands against the present of the candidates, especially the mayoralty contestants, have a few cars at their disposal, but they are busy for the the matter of collecting taxes, most part getting out the women

At the city hall there are two polls,

The candidates are all busy keeping dollar concerns. There is more their small organizations moving as

It was considered import- At the city clerk's office there was whether or not they were entitled to a plicity in administration—a cut-ting off of the red tape that is pledged to do his utmost to re- mediately the vote is counted the deputy

Passenger Trains Collide Sixteen Miles From

trader; neither is he bound to consider only the interests of manufacturers. C. R. Somerville believes that protection for the worker, for the consumer, and for all classes, is just as necessary as for the producer.

Your big chance to avoid group government in Canada is lo elect C. R. Somerville as a supporter of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King. The swing all over the country is toward King, just as in London it is towa were a local from Philadelphia for Newtown, Pa., and another from Newtown for this city. The wreckage took fire and early reports were to the effect that a number of persons were burned to death.

The place of the accident is not as the self and his f during the year 1920 over 1919 is shown by a comparative statement issued by but they must be the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. straight through." Gross revenues increased about 19 per cent, from $9,499,358 to $11,337,428, while operating expenses showed an increase of 22 per cent, from $7,813,259 to $9,589,952. This meant an increase of 3 per cent in the net operating the strength of the strength

The pole mileage increased from 51,415 miles to 52,393, or 2 per cent. Wire mileage increased 11 per cent, from 314,629 to 238,866 miles.

Didn't Lose Nerve World's Drug Store King Tells How

LOUIS K. LIGGETT.

[Special to London Advertiser.]

Dundas street. He has just emerged from a financial Subdivision No. 10-Garfield avenue.

were assigned to the care of trustees, Subdivision No. 12—199 Langarth street.

at his own request. Business depression had sent his stock holdings to-bogganing in a hectic market.

"Simultaneously with the arrows."

Subdivision No. 14—68 Bruce street. Subdivision No. 15—95 Bruce street. Subdivision No. 16—64 Askip street.

'Simultaneously with the announce- Subdivision No. 17-64 Stanley street. ment by the trustees that they were subdivision No. 18—58 Riverview handling my affairs, I sent a letter to every stockholder in the 'company explaining, frankly, all the facts," says street.

diately expressed confidence in me. Letters and telegrams poured into my office from thousands of my druggist friends from every American state and from Canada and England.

Offers of Help!

"Offers of help of every kind were made. Checks came by the score and thousands of dollars worth of securibles were turned over to me."

Subdivision No. 24—651 Richmond street impression upon the great mass of the working people, when he tried to wave away the unrefuted charges made by James Murdock.

All through the campaign there has street.

All through the campaign there has street independence of the three Caucasus region. The publics, although official confirmation. Offers of Help!

dence in Liggett. That's how he has Subdivision No. 57-458 Queen's avenue

but they must believe in themselves

E LEAVES ON

TRIP BACK TO U. S. Subdivision No. 75—290 Cheapside street.
Subdivision No. 76—909 William street.

Havre, Dec. 5 .- Charles W. Morse, whose return to the United States on the steamship Paris, was requested by Attorney-General Daugherty, boarded the liner for his journey back to New York at one o'clock this afternoon.

VOTING PLACES TUESDAY IN 72 SUBDIVISIONS

None of Municipal Booths To Attempt To Intimidate Work-Be Used For Federal Election.

POLLS IN PRIVATE HOMES

One Booth At City

Voting in the city on Tuesday, for the federal house, will take place in 72 polling places, none of which were Ross Somerville as London's next memused at the municipal election on Monday. Every city subdivision will have its separate booth. The polls open at 8 a.m., and will close at 6 p.m. Citizens are warned not to be confused, as scores of them are at this moment, and gain the impression that they will vote at the same place as they did on Monday.

In practically every instance, voting will take place for the federal election will take place for the federal election City on their itinerary in a desperate in a private residence with one booth

Electoral District of London. And, most important of all, never do anything to forfeit the confidence of will be open from 8 a.m. until 6 p.m.: Subdivision No. 1-3721/2 Ridout street. This from Louis K, Liggett, the most Subdivision No. 2—252 King street. remarkable comeback in the history of finance. Subdivision No. 3—357 Ridout street. Subdivision No. 4—259 Clarence street

Liggett is head of the United Drug Subdivision No. 5—243 Talbot street. Company and its chain of 10,000 retail Subdivision No. 6—28 Simcoe street. drug stores in the United States, Canada and England, which includes seven subdivision No. 8—6 Watson street. stores in London, Ont., operated from the main branch in that city at 209 Subdivision No. 9b—332 Tecumsch Dundas street.

storm that threatened, for a time, to sweep away his private fortune.

Last July Liggett's financial affairs street.

street. Subdivision No. 20—477 Richmond street Banks that carried my loans imme-Subdivision No. 21-424 Clarence street.

Subdivision No. 24-651 Richmond street

Liggett felt that, however grateful, Subdivision No. 28-St. George's Church ensued a frenzied effort by the govern- liam has decided to marry again. The rublics, although official confirmation he must decline this generosity. He school house, Wharncliffe road.
could not afford to risk the welfare of Subdivision No. 29—191 Wharncliffe road

Unheard of Tribute.

It was an unheard of tribute to a captain of finance in the affairs of American business.

Liggett never lost confidence in himself and his friends never lost confidence in Liggett. That's how he has subdivision No. 54—426 Waterloo street. Subdivision No. 55—426 Waterloo street. Subdivision No. 56—426 Waterloo street. Subdivision No. 57—458 Oueen's avenue. The place of the accident is rather isolated. Relief and wrecking trains were at once sent out from nearest points, and physicians along the countryside were summoned.

INCREASES REPORTED

IN CANADIAN BUSINESS
Ottawa, Dec. 5.—(Canadian Press.)—
A large increase in business by the telegraph companies throughout Canada during the year 1920 over 1919 is shown

Increase in Liggett. That's how he has won from the day, 18 years ago, when the conceived the idea of unity in the growth of the day has been surpassed, "Liggett says, "but through it all, in sunshine and storm, I have never for one moment doubted the ultimate success of the undertaking.

"There are boys, thousands of them, who can accomplish as much, or more, subdivision No. 63—491 Charlotte street. Subdivision No. 64—24 Picton street. Subdivision No. 65—583 Maltiand street. Subdivision No. 66—561 William street. Subdivision No. 66—561 William street. Subdivision No. 67—812 Princess avenue. Subdivision No. 68—740 Elias street. Subdivision No

Subdivision No. 79—499 Piccadilly street. Subdivision No. 71—561 Piccadilly street Subdivision No. 72—797 Colborne street Subdivision No. 73—799 William street

THE CANADIAN Flax Growers' Asso ciation will hold a meeting at the Tecumseh House Thursday, Dec. 8, at 8 o'clock. Flax prices and other matters pertaining to the flax-growing industry

TORIES, FACING DEFEAT, TRY TO 'SCARE' LABOR

ers by "Old-Fashioned" Election Canard.

WHITE LOSES ALL HOPE

Exception To Rule Will Be Result Will Prove Campaign of Invective Is Costly

places, none of which were the municipal election on ber of parliament at Ottawa. Every city subdivision will Throughout the campaign the Tory effort to convince the working people and the returned soldiers that all charges of reckless extravagance and administration have been without

The greatest despot of them all, the Right Hon. Arthur Meighen ("Sir" Arthur, as he was referred to by Mr. Frank White on Saturday evening a: the Tory rally), honored the citizens by his presence when he delivered his official notice of dissolution of a parlia-ment that had held frantically to office for sixteen months with approval of the common people of this "Whirlwind of West"

Then come with all this cloquence, and bothbast, the so-caped "whirlwind of the west," or, as he had been termed by no less a person than Mr. Mc'shen himself, "the phonograph of the Mackenzie-Mann interests," R. B. Bennett. Lastly, the few electors who turned out to the Tory rally Saturday evening merly chairman of the Canadian board of commerce, but judging by his reception at the Grand Opera House on Saturday evening he made little or no impression upon the great mass of the day, but with little apparent sucspeakers ar Workers Undismayed.

As it's last fling on the protection ssue the local Tory organ on Saturday made an effort to startle the workers SYDNEY OFFICER SEIZES of London by a series of interviews with general managers and directors of local industrial plants, who issued the sinister warning that there will be no work for anyone in the city if the government ticket is defeated.

It is significant to note that these statements have been actually challenged by representative union labor men themselves, who decisively and without hesitation repudiate Meigher and his platform.

In the dying hours of the Tory campaign the local supporters of autocracy with general managers and directors of aging the local supporters of autocracy ment which was being hauled to vari-have attempted to confuse again the confuse again the beach, but the liquor had all been care at lassues of the day by resorting to a lowest form of political trickery at has ever been employed, when omen speakers at a Tory gathering to the Opera House on Saturday eventate the Opera House are ference to the contraband landed. that her innuendo could hardly be mis

Why Stand in the Rain and Cold?

TT WILL be cosy and warm tonight in the foyer of The London Advertiser's new home at York and Richmond streets. Get the Election Results There—First and Best.

Tickets $25 Each For Santa Claus

ONDON, England, Dec. 5 .- "Tickets, $25 each for Santa Claus." That sign hung in front of a theatre here when a performance was en to bring Christmas cheer to thousands of London's needy children. And the show was worth it. The three leading women's roles were Miss Rebecca West, leading English novelist.

"Margot" Asquith, wife of the former premier of Great Britain.

Miss Iris Tree, daughter of Sir Herbert Tree, brilliant poetess.

And among the men actors were W. L. George, the writer: Sir Gilbert Parker, novelist; Alfred Noyes, poet, and W. Pett Ridge, humorist.

King George and Princess Mary were in the audience.

The play? It was "Not So Bad As We Seem." written in 1851 by Lord Lytton. When it was first produced Charles Dickens took part and Queen Victoria attended. Miss Rebecca West, leading English novelist.

JOIN RUSSIAN ALLIANCE

CAUCASUS REPUBLICS WILHELM TO WED AGAIN

Danzig, who was killed in the war. The newspaper lzvesta, published at Patum, announces that a conference was held early in November at Baku, and it was decided that there should be minister of labor, in the Ulster parliating trustworthy source.

trustworthy source. 9 BARRELS OF LIQUOR Tixlis.

The Weather

Today-Fresh to strong southwest to northwest winds; mostly fair; a little colder tonight. Tuesday-Fresh westerly winds; fair, with moderate temperatures.

The pressure is high over the greater part of the United States and low over Canada.

An important disturbance is develop-ng off the middle Atlantic coast. The weather has been fair and mild in the West, mostly fair with snow flurries in the Lake Region, and fair with lower temperature in Quebec and the Maritime Provinces. Temperatures.

The highest and lowest temperatures during the 24 hours previous to 8 a.m. today were:
High.
Victoria .... 42 High. Low

Calgary

Winnipeg ... Pt. Artbur ... P. Sound ... Teronto ... Ottawa ... 34
Montreal ... 28
Quebec ... 26
F. Point ... 24
St. John ... 32
Halifax ... 38 LOCAL TEMPERATURES.

Following are the highest and lowest emperatures recorded in London during night: Highest, 38; lowest, 28.

The official temperatures for the 12 hours previous to 8 a.m. today were: Highest, 31; lowest, 27.

Barometric Standing. Sunday—8 a.m., 29.00 Today—8 a.m., 28.74.

Lloyd Gecage Is Expected To Make Explanatory Statement to Public.

DECISION SOON MADE

Sinn Fein Cabinet Informs Government New Terms Unacceptable.

London, Dec. 5 .- The Irish peace negotiations have broken down, according to statements in responsible quarers today, and the Dail Eireann dele gates are expected to return finally to Ireland Tuesday or Wednesday. The correspondence in connection with the negotiations will be made public by the government, it was stated, and Pre-mier Lloyd George is expected to make an explanatory statement. On the government's side, it was indicated, the argument will be that the refusal of the Sinn Fein to accept allestance to the king made an agreement impossible, since that condition was inpossible, since that condition was, in addition, an essential preliminary to securing any assent from Ulster.

Opposed Consideration. The Sinn Fein, it is declared, refused even a conditional promise of allegiance contingent upon a settlement, the most it offered being to "recognize" the king is head of the commonwealth of free rnment's latest terms satisfied the Sinn Fein delegates and the Dall Eireann cabinet, it is asserted, that they con-tained no advance on the terms of Mr. Lloyd George's original letter, which Lloyd George's original letter, when was formally rejected in July by Earmon De Valera in his speech to the Dail Parliament. Two months of negotiations with Downing street had not got the Irish any further, it was argued, and according to well-informed quarters, some of the delegates were opposed even to the consideration of the new proto the consideration of the new pro-posals by the Dail last Saturday. These delegates being satisfied that acceptance by the negotiators would not be indorsed by the Sinn Fein in Ireland.

Made Quick Decision. It did not take the Dail cabinet long to decide the issue, it appears. After a short discussion in which all the cabinet members rejected the government's proposals, Mr. De Valera turned to the delegates and said: "These are your in-structions; they are the instructions of ople of Ireland.

the people of relation.

No arrangements have been made for continuing the truce, but it is not anticipated there will be any immediate reparted there will be any immediate resumption of warfare. The truce continues to exist until notice of its termination is formally given and both the overnment and the Sinn Fein say they ave no intention of giving that notice Nevertheless both sides feel, it is de-clared, that the course of events will be ound to involve a renewal of hostil was held early in November at Baku, and it was decided that there should be a political and economic union of the Caucasus with Russia. The political center of the federation, according to this stan is Raku and the economic center, address, "that under no circumstances address," that under no circumstances and the committee of the state of the federation.

Announces Ulster Will Hold Her Parliament.

Turn to Page 11, Calumn 5.

-SUPPOSE NOBODY CARED!-

ON CHRISTMAS MORN

EAR SANTA CLAUS: Do come down our chimney. Mamma said you won't, as she has no money, or Daddy, either. "Goodbye,

And so the letters come rustling in at the mail-box from big folks and small, all bringing with them their own appeals, stirring hearts to kindlier thoughts of others, and loosening purse strings to make the "Goodfellows" Christmas Cheer Fund' grow and grow until no one can possibly be unhappy or hungry or cold in London on Christmas Day.

"GEORGIE.

Christmas is a time of youth and joy. So, everybody, join the "Goodfellows' Club" and become young again. Enter into the Christmas spirit with the children. If you can't write letters to Santa Claus, you can at least make it possible for these letters to come true on Christmas morning. You can make eager little hearts thrill with delight. You can make little feet dance with sheer joy, or you can do nothing at all. And then, if the little feet dance, they will not be dancing for you. And if the small hearts are full of happiness, you will know that it is not because of you.

Don't you want to get in with the rest of the Goodfellows and make this Christmas the best in years?

London Advertiser Election Service --- First and Best!

TN conjunction with its detailed result of the polling in the municipal and federal elections, The London Advertiser on will not be placed to any disadvantage by possible inclement Monday and Tuesday evenings at its new home on the northwest weather. As the new Advertiser plant is as yet uncompleted, corner of York and Richmond streets will furnish the general public with appropriate diversion in the form of spitchle moving public with appropriate diversion in the form of suitable moving persons. pictures and popular musical selections.

As has been customary in past years, there will be no tiresome waits or delays. the local polling booths or by leased telegraph wires in the office diversion. from outside points, the verdict of the voters will be flashed A splendid musical program has been arranged, in addition on a spacious silver screen on the opposite building, the Grigg to a moving picture chow, which will be presented on both

RAIN OR SNOW, it should be borne in mind that the public

EVERYBODY WELCOME

Used by The London Advertiser to such great advantage during the world's baseball series, the magnavox will be pressed the 24 hours previous to 8 o'clock last Directly the returns are received by speedy messengers from into service again, in order that the public will be provided