EARLY IN DECEMBER

Bylaw Passed Announcing Vote To Be Taken First Monday in Month.

Special to The Advertiser.

Strathroy, Sept. 3 .- Municipal elections in Strathrov will be held on the first Monday in December, with nomination meeting the last Monday in November, according to a bylaw put through the council last evening at the regular monthly meeting. There was little business to dispose of. Two petitions were presented, one from the residents of Salisbury street for lights and road improvements, which was referred t joint committee of the fire and water and road committees, the other from James Broom for a light near his residence on Centre Lane, referred to the fire and light committee. In connection with the Salisbury street petition, one of the reasons urged upon the council was the prevalence

f motor car petting parties along this dark highway. Chief of Police Wilson reported that many young men liable for poll tax were endeavoring to evade payment claiming to be members of the militia. The chief was instructed to militia. The chief was instructed to collect from every one who did not produce a certificate from the commanding officer of the 26th regiment, A report of the court of revision was approved, allowing the appeal of Libby, McNeil & Libby for rebate of taxes for last six months of this year as they have removed their business, and of the Canadian National Ra way against their business assessment for the express office, as been held by the courts the Canadian National Railway is not liable for business assessment as an express company. The appeal of Miss W. Buchanan, one of the collegiate teachers, who left at the end of June, against income tax, claiming she was a resident of London, was allowed in part. The court allowed her credit or last six months of the year, and the amount of income tax she may pay in London. The complaint of the citizens on Maitland Terrace against the stench which is coming from the drain from the Dominion Canners factory along that street was turned over to the road committee. Mayor Wright was empowered to allow the use of the main street for a street dance on the last night of the fair. The ladies of the hospital a, auxiliary expect to sponsor the dance, proceeds to be used to furnish the general ward in the new wing to the ### BLUE WATER LILY. At Victoria Park a blue water live rather a rarity, is in evidence just now. There are some fine white water lilies there, but the late blooms ing blue one is the object of admira-tion of many horticulturists.
