WESTERN PROGRESS.

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL

From THE DAILY COLONIST, August 1 LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL.

qualified success, and the clay has been found to undergo the burning process hetter even than was anticipated. Indeed, so successful has been the result that it is at present proposed to continue for light war and builders' requisites the present establishment, while the kiln and virts upon the presents at Alderley Park are greated.

Company of the Com

Coloni DAY, AUGUST 22, 1890.

RRUPT REPUBLIC tine Republic is ment is weak and s are in a state of fusion. Yet this constitution—on p as governed acco institutions work hould in that Republic would t it is not everyt re capable of most bountifu a fertile soil a and its natural conle are not goo elves of the ber ived both from their itutions and their They are not intellig tic, they are not nd they are indolent, There appears to ublic opinion in public. The officials t, from the highest the people in the n The grossest abu ple are apathetic. Th bodies exist m crees of the stion of the public codible. Men seek purpose of enrichi

And they do enrich the unscrupulous way, r of Cordoba, for inst bed as a mere "gaucho and an ignorant brute, ha when he came into office ow has a fortune of ten ng safely deposited in the md. A gentleman who had ears in the country, info The directors of the nation ial banks who have been a scheming politicians, have rith the funds of the banks, oke of business The curse of the Argentine is p uch as the whole object of po to make their fortunes while lice." Corruption and ras ned to the official culation was rife in and every means was used to give fightious value. The specular orrupt use of the land bank arios which were est country to develop agricult ize landed property. "Lots of land were sold by lozen times and the titles p ner to owner without any sive owners having been to lot was even situated. les the Banco Hipoticario oney. What with auction sale occasions, the creation of a cessions, the creation of tres, the formation of c of vines, the digg score of other schemes ctitious, an increase it to lands which nobod on the title deeds ortgage banks have which bear interest, butcorrespondances to barren mountains or usele instead of good land. This stat seems incredible in the Argentin have been on the spot and hear for yourself. The Bancos Have really advanced millions on security, which, upon exproves to be marsh or desert."

It is no wonder that the fin country in which such open carried on should in time get i inextricable confusion, and would be very little to-day t the millions borrowed from talists. Many of those millions way into the pockets of such Governor of Cordoba, who obta by schemes and practices d him in the penitentiary in r country. The banks, too other country. The banks, too, by the Government party for poses of corruption, money vanced to Government offic ced to Government offic ccomplices of the politic onder that the legitimate the banks found it very dif m them the money that the ed in them. Frequently without money, and the he presented his cheque "We cannot pay to-day; ps, we will have some > large concessions and onds of several companie railroad on paper,

It is not surprising tha as imminent, though n