

The Colonist.

FRIDAY, JULY 26, 1901.

Published by The Colonist Printing & Publishing Company, Limited Liability

No. 27 Broad Street, Victoria, B. C. PERCIVAL R. BROWN, Manager.

THE DAILY COLONIST.

Delivered by carrier at 20c. per week, or mailed postpaid to any part of Canada (except the city) and United States at the following rates:

THE SEMI-WEEKLY COLONIST

One Year $1.50 Six Months .75 Three Months .40

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

All new advertisements and changes of advertising, to ensure their being inserted, should be handed in to the business office not later than 6 p. m.

$10 REWARD will be paid for such information as will lead to the conviction of anyone stealing the Colonist from the doors of subscribers.

MR. BODWELL'S LETTER.

We print this morning a letter from Mr. E. V. Bodwell in regard to the proposed survey through the Hope Mountains. Mr. Bodwell takes exception to this proceeding on two grounds.

On the first point we may state specifically that the expenditure will be made out of the grant for surveys made at the last session of the legislature. We may anticipate the obvious objection to this, namely, that no such survey was contemplated when the House passed that vote.

On the question of policy, there may be room for a difference of opinion, but the government has to take the responsibility for the course it has chosen to follow. It is true that the Loan act of last session provides that no subsidy shall be paid for the Coast-Kootenay line until the whole road is constructed and security is given for its operation and maintenance.

On the question of policy, there may be room for a difference of opinion, but the government has to take the responsibility for the course it has chosen to follow. It is true that the Loan act of last session provides that no subsidy shall be paid for the Coast-Kootenay line until the whole road is constructed and security is given for its operation and maintenance.

FIREWORKS

For celebrations, garden parties, camping out, etc. Promptly shipped, carefully packed, with full instructions for firing.

HITT BROS.

Fireworks Manufacturers, Victoria, B.C.

ing to take all risks, but surely he would not ask the government to tie the province to an enterprise, that might not be carried through even though the failure to carry it through might not involve the province in the payment of any subsidy.

In regard to the profile, which Mr. Norman McLean is said to have filed, we have the authority of the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works for saying that no such plan is in the department.

Mr. Bodwell's query as to what company Mr. Dowdine will be acting for can hardly be put seriously. As to the value that gentleman's report will have in the opinion of a company, we do not know that this is in issue.

A WORTHY APPEAL.

We are in receipt of the following from Bishop Ridley in regard to the sufferers from the fire at Metlakahla:

I am so persuaded that if the British Columbia public knew how to help us, many are distressed and needy. During 22 years of toil, I have never directly appealed to my neighbors, but have laid all our need before God, who has wondrously and heavily promoted our work among the children.

The Indian department makes a capitation grant towards the maintenance of the Indian children, but which private beneficence bears the burden. The "White Home," as we call the institution for half-breeds and white children depends entirely on private enterprise.

Please send to me, or to the senior lady missionary, Miss West, at Metlakahla, the following: rice, oatmeal, potatoes and other foods. Also clothing for both sexes. The children range from six to sixteen years of age. Send also blankets, sheets, pillows, mattresses, bedsteads and other furniture. Send money even at some sacrifice. Before the winter some shelter must be provided.

To provide for the children is all I ask, and for that alone will contributions be expended. These sails from Metlakahla on Thursday, the 26th inst., at 11 p. m. Send by her all you can spare, and God bless all the helpers.

Bishop Ridley says in the above. The case must commend itself to every person, and we are confident that the appeal for assistance will meet with an instant and generous response.

The Tees sails for the north tomorrow night, and she ought to carry with her a fine contribution to meet the immediate necessities of the children on whose behalf the appeal is specially made.

No one has given greater attention to the possibilities of Oriental trade than Mr. James J. Hill, the President of the Great Northern Railway Company.

United States government must develop a policy of irrigation, so as to make these vast areas productive. At present, he says, "rates are prohibitive on grain and flour from the Middle West."

These considerations deserve the most serious consideration from the people and government of Canada. We have in the Dominion a vast area adapted for the production of wheat. It is as near the Pacific ocean as are the greater portions of the arid lands which Mr. Hill is so desirous to see reclaimed.

All that is needed is to provide transportation facilities. As we have said, this can be done for a very much smaller sum than it will cost to reclaim a similar area of arid land in the United States, and there is not an equal area there any way.

THE ROYAL VISIT.

The revised itinerary of the royal party only mentions one day in connection with the stay in this city, but we notice that ten days intervene between the time of arriving here and the visit to Toronto.

It seems hardly likely that the party will be nine days on the road going back. Such a programme is apparently designed so as to permit of a few days' rest at the end of the journey if it is thought desirable, although it may be that the stay here will be limited to a single day.

The Times says that it should have said that Mr. Dunsuir never possessed the confidence of the people of British Columbia. A statement of this kind is misleading, because it conveys the impression that Mr. Dunsuir had at one time been solicitous of obtaining the confidence of his fellow-countrymen and had failed to secure it, which we all know is not the case.

MR. DUNSMUIR AND THE PEOPLE

The Times says that it should have said that Mr. Dunsuir never possessed the confidence of the people of British Columbia. A statement of this kind is misleading, because it conveys the impression that Mr. Dunsuir had at one time been solicitous of obtaining the confidence of his fellow-countrymen and had failed to secure it, which we all know is not the case.

Speaking recently about the Fashoda incident, ex-President Faure, says that France never intended to go to war over that affair, but that there was great danger that the excited state of French feeling would make peace impossible.

The Hamilton Spectator says: "The Cape route, who was hanged yesterday stands no chance of becoming one of the future Grits of the South African British Colony." In living up to its reputation of being funny, the Spectator makes some bad breaks.

The Times says: "Mr. Dunsuir has lost the confidence of the people of British Columbia." It only requires the use of three letters to answer this completely. Thus: Mr. Dunsuir has NOT lost the confidence of the people of British Columbia.

It is immaterial to inquire into what may or may not have transpired in the early days of Mr. Dunsuir's administration in regard to certain ministers. It is sufficient to know that he has met the house in two sessions with the cabinet constituted identically as it was at the outset, and that his support was certainly not been in any way weakened.

COLLEGIATE EXAMINATIONS

Reports Received from the Examiners by the Head Master.

The following reports of the recent examinations of the Collegiate school have been received by the head master, Mr. J. W. Laing, M.A., Oxford: H. M. S. Waspette, Esperanza Inlet, B.C. July 14, 1901.

Dear Mr. Laing: I have examined the highest forms of your school in mathematics, and I send you herewith the marks obtained. In arithmetic a general paper was set for the whole school. Dart and Todd I. obtained top marks, Harrison I., Houghton and Potts over 90, Leiser and Houghton 80 per cent. In algebra different papers were set to the four divisions. Perhaps that for Division I. was a little too difficult, as no one obtained half marks.

In the Fourth Form, Houghton and Armtage I. show the best marks. You will see by the results that there is a general standard of excellence, which testifies to the painstaking and thorough work of the form masters during the past half year.

I have the honor to remain, yours faithfully, W. D. BARBER, M.A. Bishopscople, Victoria, July 24, 1901. My Dear Mr. Laing: As the Archbishop has made it his duty to be an examiner, I consented to help Mr. Barber in his work and set the papers for the Third and Upper Second Forms.

I have been glad of the opportunity of this carefully testing the work of these classes, and I need not tell you that I am thankful for the result, as you know the deep interest that I take in the welfare of the school.

I am, yours sincerely, W. W. COLUMBIA. Dear Mr. Laing: I send herewith a report of the examinations which I conducted in the junior classes of the Collegiate school. I was much pleased with the excellent knowledge of Scripture displayed. My questions covered an important portion of the Gospel of Saint Matthew, and I was much struck by the intelligent grasp of Scripture fact and truth made evident during the course of the examination.

I was also much impressed by the bright and gentlemanly manners of the boys. With kind regards and best wishes for the success of your valuable school, I remain, sincerely yours, J. D. O'MEARA, Dean of Rupert's Land, Deputy Warden St. John's College, Winnipeg.

The following promotions have been made in the school: Upper Fifth to Sixth Form—Bell, Leiser, Potts. Lower Fifth to Upper Fifth Form—Newcombe L. Kerfoot. Fourth to Lower Fifth Form—Houghton Todd I., Marshall, Newcombe H., Armtage II.

THE KING'S OATH.

The Committee of the House of Lords has recommended that hereafter the oath taken by the Sovereign at his coronation shall be as follows: "I, A. B., by the Grace of God, King (or Queen) of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, do solemnly and sincerely, in the presence of God, profess, testify and declare that I do believe that in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper there is not any transubstantiation of the elements of bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ at or after the consecration thereof by any person whatsoever. And I do believe that the invocation or adoration of the Virgin Mary or any other saint, and sincerely, in the presence of God, profess, testify and declare that I do believe that in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper there is not any transubstantiation of the elements of bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ at or after the consecration thereof by any person whatsoever."

It is immaterial to inquire into what may or may not have transpired in the early days of Mr. Dunsuir's administration in regard to certain ministers. It is sufficient to know that he has met the house in two sessions with the cabinet constituted identically as it was at the outset, and that his support was certainly not been in any way weakened.

It is immaterial to inquire into what may or may not have transpired in the early days of Mr. Dunsuir's administration in regard to certain ministers. It is sufficient to know that he has met the house in two sessions with the cabinet constituted identically as it was at the outset, and that his support was certainly not been in any way weakened.

THE KING'S OATH.

The Committee of the House of Lords has recommended that hereafter the oath taken by the Sovereign at his coronation shall be as follows:

"I, A. B., by the Grace of God, King (or Queen) of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, do solemnly and sincerely, in the presence of God, profess, testify and declare that I do believe that in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper there is not any transubstantiation of the elements of bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ at or after the consecration thereof by any person whatsoever. And I do believe that the invocation or adoration of the Virgin Mary or any other saint, and sincerely, in the presence of God, profess, testify and declare that I do believe that in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper there is not any transubstantiation of the elements of bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ at or after the consecration thereof by any person whatsoever."

It is immaterial to inquire into what may or may not have transpired in the early days of Mr. Dunsuir's administration in regard to certain ministers. It is sufficient to know that he has met the house in two sessions with the cabinet constituted identically as it was at the outset, and that his support was certainly not been in any way weakened.

It is immaterial to inquire into what may or may not have transpired in the early days of Mr. Dunsuir's administration in regard to certain ministers. It is sufficient to know that he has met the house in two sessions with the cabinet constituted identically as it was at the outset, and that his support was certainly not been in any way weakened.

It is immaterial to inquire into what may or may not have transpired in the early days of Mr. Dunsuir's administration in regard to certain ministers. It is sufficient to know that he has met the house in two sessions with the cabinet constituted identically as it was at the outset, and that his support was certainly not been in any way weakened.

It is immaterial to inquire into what may or may not have transpired in the early days of Mr. Dunsuir's administration in regard to certain ministers. It is sufficient to know that he has met the house in two sessions with the cabinet constituted identically as it was at the outset, and that his support was certainly not been in any way weakened.

It is immaterial to inquire into what may or may not have transpired in the early days of Mr. Dunsuir's administration in regard to certain ministers. It is sufficient to know that he has met the house in two sessions with the cabinet constituted identically as it was at the outset, and that his support was certainly not been in any way weakened.

It is immaterial to inquire into what may or may not have transpired in the early days of Mr. Dunsuir's administration in regard to certain ministers. It is sufficient to know that he has met the house in two sessions with the cabinet constituted identically as it was at the outset, and that his support was certainly not been in any way weakened.

It is immaterial to inquire into what may or may not have transpired in the early days of Mr. Dunsuir's administration in regard to certain ministers. It is sufficient to know that he has met the house in two sessions with the cabinet constituted identically as it was at the outset, and that his support was certainly not been in any way weakened.

THE KING'S OATH.

The Committee of the House of Lords has recommended that hereafter the oath taken by the Sovereign at his coronation shall be as follows:

"I, A. B., by the Grace of God, King (or Queen) of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, do solemnly and sincerely, in the presence of God, profess, testify and declare that I do believe that in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper there is not any transubstantiation of the elements of bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ at or after the consecration thereof by any person whatsoever. And I do believe that the invocation or adoration of the Virgin Mary or any other saint, and sincerely, in the presence of God, profess, testify and declare that I do believe that in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper there is not any transubstantiation of the elements of bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ at or after the consecration thereof by any person whatsoever."

It is immaterial to inquire into what may or may not have transpired in the early days of Mr. Dunsuir's administration in regard to certain ministers. It is sufficient to know that he has met the house in two sessions with the cabinet constituted identically as it was at the outset, and that his support was certainly not been in any way weakened.

ANOTHER POINT. It costs no more to finish a good skirt with "Corticeil Skirt Protector," that will outwear the skirt, than to "rebind" the garment several times with cheap "bindings."

The New Electric Hot-Air Baths. GHEVILLE SYSTEM. Or localized application of super-heated dry air for the treatment of rheumatism, neuralgia, etc.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE. Stated Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood vice-judicially in court that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne, that the whole story of the defendant Freeman was literally untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to—Times, July 13, 1864.

A SMART RIG. Is largely a harness outfit, whether it's a buggy or a lumber wagon. And this is our text: that we have the harness to prove the prices in our assortment, and customers testify to previous satisfaction.

CROFTON HOUSE. A Boarding and Day School for Girls. VANCOUVER, B. C. This school, established as a Day School in 1888, will re-open in its new premises on September 2nd.

JOHN JAMESON & SONS, DUBLIN. "Own cased" very old Black Bottle WHISKEY. PLEASE SEE YOU GET IT WITH METAL CAPSULES.

Fountain Pens. L. E. Waterman's. FULL GUARANTEE WITH EACH P.N. POPE STATIONERY CO. 119 Gov't Street.

These Symptoms Are A Warning to You. That the blood is losing its richness and the very life itself is being sapped from brain and nerves. You feel weak and run down. You get pale and sallow, with dark rings under the eyes. You lose flesh, and the food you eat does not seem to nourish you.

High List of A Fairly Thos The resu inations, w and closed tions. These vaca toria, Vancouver minister an construction p provides for for, Internec demic grad ed for exa and Intern candidates accepted teachers' c a Junior H 18 years of reach in the ince for a holder of a er taking. Normal sch class certifi suits of the cases, howe, d of the Hig The foll successful their respo VICT Harold L Lu Lu J. Ellen C. Emma Maude I. May Faw F. Joseph K. Kristin Emily M. Leo And Mabel Elizabeth In this s sorted for ber 35 we INT Lila M. The abov dicate in t of 14 pres VANCO Donald E Arthur J. Robert G Gladys E Celia G. Frederic Ella J. E. Fanny A. Ninyas. Corinne Hilliard Lillian E. Fanny M. Lydia E. Helen R. Jennie F. Margaret Ethel W. Clara C. Leah V. Sarah J. David E. In this s sented for ber 25 we The Int were pres tion exam successful do not ap toria and so prout matriculat WESTM Lillian E. Grace I. Sidney G. Ethel M. Clara E. Ethel M. Margaret Edward In this s sented for successful. A candi schools t tion at successful. NAN Margaret Samuel David E. Archibald Nasann May B. Harold In this s sented for NE The Ne the first school w advantage pills of t