It was amusing to see what are supposed to be the finest drilled volunteers in the Dominion saluting, some with the left hand, others getting mixed, and instead of giving a military salute, making a most gracious bow to Mrs. Denison.

The band of the Queen's Own and Tenth then closed the concert with selections, after which they played God Save the Queen.

UPPER CANADA COLLEGE. house. Here is what it says; Judge Mackenzie is everlastingly talking about the "disgraceful" building called the court house, and has not unfrequently stated it was the worst in the province, if not in the Dominion. Constantly repeating the assertion has led the old man to believe in its truthfulness; but the facts are against in thin, and quite the reverse of his tri-annual fullminations. With two or three exceptions there are few court houses in Ontario to be compared with the one in this county, either for convenience or accommodation; and it is not creditable to Mr. Mackenzie's good sense to make such sweeping assertions as is contained in his address this week to the grand jury. * * The county council are representative men, and if Judge Mackenzie had to get his place by a vote of the electors annually, his judgeship occupation would leave him rather suddenly when presenting himself for the ratification of his official connecion.
