Johnson Smily in East Toronto. A crowded house greeted Miss E. Pauline Johnson and Mr. Owen Smily last evening at the Y.M.C.A. Hall in An Incendiary Apprehended.

On the morning of Nov. 5 the old, vacant hotel building at George and Esplanadestreets was the scene of a fire, the origin of which was supposed to be incendiary. Detective Davis was detailed to investigate, and as a result of his enquiries Jas. Paterson, 40 Mercer-street, was arrested on a charge of arson. Two companions of young Paterson are also suspected, and will be placed under arrest as soon as they can be located.

Mr. Walker of the Hamilton Victorias is third on the list. Mr. Walker has seen the design of the clever Toronto builder, and both are equally confident of defeating the Ethelwyn or any other defender. The new craft will be 15 feet, corrected length, and will be salled by her designer and a crew of one, an amateur belonging to Hamilton or Toronto. Vice-Commodore Walker is quite content to wait for the two races, and then will force an issue. Mr. Cuthbert's boats include the 18-footers Folly and Vixen, now in Montreal, the former being champion in the 18, 22, 25 and 30-foot classes, and has proved herself superior to craft designed by Mr. Duggan, the Montreal challenger, who will have the first chance for the cup. Vixen is also an unbeaten boat. The Sylvia and Mirage, 27-footers, are still in Toronto, and have won 90 per cent. of all races in which they have salled.
