

tion, before your children? What can you say when before the Judge on that great day if your loved ones, being lost, blame you for the example of taking strong drink? Much has already been written by abler pens than mine upon this subject, but because I have suffered so terribly, will you not let my story plead for your little ones, and ere you lay it aside place your name to the following pledge?

Yours in His happy service,

LIZZIE VINCENT,

Australasian Organizer and World's Missionary of the W. W. C. T. Union.
