The Century Magazine

WITH the November, 1887, issue, THE CENTURY commences its thirty-fifth volume with a regular circulation of almost 250,000. The War Papers and the Life of Lincoln increased its monthly dition by 100,000. The latter history having recounted the events of Lincoln's early years, and given the necessary survey of the political condition of the country, reaches a new period, with which his secretaries were most intimately acquainted. Under the caption Lincoln in the War, the writers now enter on the most important part of their narrative, viz.: the early years of the War, and President Lincoln's part therein.

Supplementary War Papers, following the "battle series" by distinguished generals, will describe interesting features of army life, tunneling from Libby Prison, narratives of personal adventure, etc. General Sherman will write on "The Grand Strategy of the War."

Kenman on Siberia.

With the previous preparation of four years' travel and study in Russia and Siberia, the author undertook a journey of 15,000 miles for the special investigation here required.
An introduction from the Russian Minister of the Interior admitted him to the principal mines and prisons, where he became acquainted with some three hundred State exiles—Liberals, Nihilists and others—and the series will be a startling as well as accurate revelation of the exile system. The many illustrations by the artist and photographer, Mr.
George A. Frost, who accompanied the author, will add greatly to the value of the articles.

A Novel by Eggleston, with illustrations, will run through the year. Shorter novels will follow by Cable and Stockton. Shorter fictions will appear every month.

Miscellaneous features will comprise several illustrated articles on Ireland, by Charles De Kay; papers touching the field of the Sunday School Lessons, illustrated by E. L. Wilson; wild Western life, by Theodore Roosevelt; the English Cathedral, by Mrs.
Van Rensselaer, with illustrations by Pennell; Dr.
Buckley's valuable papers on Dreams, Spiritualism, and Clairvoyance; essays in criticism, art, travel, and biography; poems, cartoons, etc.

By a SPECIAL OFFER the numbers for the past year (containing the Lincoln history) may be secured with the year's subscription from November, 1887, twenty-four issues on all, for $6.00, or, with the last year's numbers handsomely bound, $7.50.
